POOR DOCUMENT

Senior Lieutenant Dembicki then went to the ball and danced mernly until morning. His victim, Balasch, lay bleeding in the stable all night, and was uncon-scious when found there in the morning. He was removed to the hospital, but his condition is hopeless. Another example of Austrian militarism was afforded at Trient staton on the Southern Railway. An officer, Lieut. Adalbert Zalay de Hagyaros, was in a hurry to take his ticket, and ordered a score of civilians who were waiting in score of civilians who were waiting in him. The civilians naturally declined to do so, whereupon Lieut. Adalbert Zalay de Hagyaros ordered a policeman present to arrest them all. The policeman re-fused to arrest them, saying that he had no with the do no right to do so. Lieut. Adalbert Zalay de Hagyaros sent from representatives of an empire that was somewhat familiar with naval achievements and assured the admiral that the warmth of the reception accorded him would be fully as great as that given him by his own countrymen. The admiral in reply thanked the Cana-dians very cordially for the invitation. "Of all the evidences of good will shown me since mean rival in New York last Oc-tober," said he, "none has touched me more deeply than this. We are of the same blood. There is alight difference between us and I the prisoners' connection vals of ten miles to protect the rear and At the request of the prisoners' coun-sel the court was adjourned until next whip up the herds. Slight outpost actions take place daily Monday. Their counsel urges that they have a full trial at the assize court opening here May 22. Detectives have spotted a number of spies in the vicinity of the jail for the last spies in the vicini attemp to rescue the prisoners.

ELDER-DEMPSTER BOATS.

Trade.

& Company, took place at Glasgow today. She will sail for Canada with mails and pasengers May 15. The Elder-Dempster twin screw steam er Montreal with a capacity of 11,000 tons dead weight cargo, which has been fitted out for the carriage of Canadian produce and livestock, was launched Saturday at

A RUFFIAN SENTENCED.

ductor, Sentenced to Two Years.

two years at Dorchester, for attempting to shoot Conductor McLean on the Syd-

A Doubtful Rumor.

ent to confirm or deny the statement. Military men in the building say the move is much more likely to be the result of Fenian activity than of the carrying out of

Great Chess Feat.

suggested military spring manoeuvres.

ney and Louisburg express.

Wallsend.

was confident that if Her Majesty could dent visit the colonies, she would there receive a welcome even more enthusiastic.

The Prince of Wales,

responding to the toast to himself, con-cluded by acknowledging the "Ready manner in which the colonies have sent their best troc ins to fight for the mother cou try." Lord Salisbury, proposing "The Imperireal-I have just received from Paris, cable in which the minister of Foreign and Dublin had made clear to everyone the respect and loyalty felt for her in all parts of her dominions, and he said he dont the great share the pr dent and the government the French republic take in grief caused to the Canadian populat by the appalling disaster on the Hull a Ottawa fire. Please put my name on list of the relief fund for $100. (Signed) "A. KLECKOWSKL." Lord Melgund, eldest son of His Exc some of those from the government l among the sufferers and on visiting exhibition grounds where a large num were being cared for, saw one party gre ly in need of boots. On reaching the vi regal carriags he was asked what he l done with his boots. He replied that he was going to ride home he could, along without them. The mill hand not know that it was Lord Minto's who had made him the present. A case of diphtheria was discover among the destitute and ho were quartered in the very shed wh Lord Melgund had given away his boo The patient was at once oculated, danger is expected, but every precaution has been taken to guard against the spreof the disease. This morning E. B. Eddy had over thousand men at work clearing away debris from the site of their ruined tablishment. Although the firm does a say so there is very little doubt but th will build on a more extensive scale the were their old premises. The governme has started work to repair the approach to the interprovincial bridge at the Cha diere, which connected Ottawa with Hu It is expected that traffic will be resum in a few days, as the iron structure, though in some places damaged an warped with the intense heat, can be r paired. The McKay Milling Company have also decided to build on its old stan and work was commended today. The Hull Lumber Company have a expected that in about four weeks mill will be running. The Ottawa Street Railway have con menced rebuilding their power hour The cars only stopped running for a fe hours in the afternoon of Thursday, bu the service is limited. The experience gained by the city of 1 John, N. B., in relieving the sufferers h the great fire in that city on June 20, 187 is to be freely placed at the service of the executive committee of the Otlawa an Hull Relief Fund. The Relief and Au Society of St. John, is still in existen and on Sunday a telegram was sent to t president of that organization, Mr. Jam Reynolds, asking him to kindly send Ottawa whatever forms and infor he might consider would be of service here. The following reply was received today: "St. John, N. B., April 30. "Fred Cook, Executive Committee Relief ,Ottawa, Ont. "Society sympathizes with the suffered City and citizens will subscribe. I sen book and forms. Will write later. (Signed) "JAS. REYNOLDS, for a detachment of troops from the bar-racks, who marched down, arrested the policeman, and all the civilians, and form-ed a cordon round the station while the lieutenant took his ticket.

lieutenant took his ticket. Strange scenes, suggestive of anything but liberty, equality, and fraternity, took place at the congress of the Hungarian Socialist party at Buda Pesth. The Socialist party in Hungary is con-trolled by an unscraphilous clique headed by the demagogue Desider Bokanyi. This individual decided to admit no delegates when did not suit him so he sp.

delegates who did not suit him, so he en-gaged a hundred chuckers-out and excluded with their aid 40 properly elected delegates.

Another delegate who remonstrated was Another delegate who remonstrated was thashed by Bokanyi and then ejected. Another delegate was thrown down a flight of stairs by six hired chuckers-out, and when a feminine delegate protested against this terrorism Bokanyi threatened to have her hurled from a second floor window if she did not shut her mouth. Tumultuous scenes accompanied these acts of violence, culminating in a free fight between the two factions, precipitated by Bokanyi's threat that no oppon tated by Bokany's threat that no oppon-ent of his should leave the hall alive. Sticks and fists were freely used, chairs, were hurled across the hall, and tables, windows, and mirrors were smashed. The police finally separated the combatants, and the congress broke up in confusion.

ARRANGING FOR PLEASANT MEMORIES.

Two Addresses and One Purse Presented the Retiring Curate of the All Saints

Episcopal Church.

St. Andrews, April 30-(Special)-Rev. E. W. Simonson, who is about to retire from the curacy of All Saints' church, after being connected with the church for nearly four years, was invited to the church hall tonight and presented with a complimentary address. The address was read by the rector, Rev. Canon Ketchum, who expressed on behalf of himself and congregation the deep regret they felt over Mr. Simonson's departure. After Mr. Simonson had made suitable reply another address, accompanied by a well filled purse was presented to the very much surprised curate by the little after being connected with the church for much surprised curate by the little daughter of G. D. Grimmer. Mr. Simon-son will leave in a few days to enter upon his new charge in Carleton county.

SUICIDE AT LUNENBURG.

Middle Aged Woman Ended Her Life With Carbolic Acid.

Halifax, April 30-(Special)-Mrs. Chas. Dauphney committed suicide at her home in Lunenburg today, taking carbolic acid. She was 50 years of age and leaves a husband and nine children.

Married at Fredericton.

Fredericton, April 30-(Special)-St. Ann's church was filled with a fashionable assemblage this afternoon to witness the nuptials of Maud Agnes Leigh, eldest daughter of His Worship Mayor Beckwith, and Francis Edwin Ketchum Griffith of Cambridge, Mass., formerly of Woodstock, N. B. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by her sister, Miss Ethel. The groom had the support of Fred B. Dibb, a cousin of the bride.

There is alight difference between us and I want to say that the one man who stood at my back during those trying days at Manila was an Englishman. But for his support and moral courage he inspired me with, I don't know what would have hap-pened. I refer to Sir Charles Seymour." The admiral said that his engagements were many and that he was not prepared to state off-hand whether or not he would accept the invitation. "Be assured, how-ever," he concluded, "that if I can possibly do so I will and with pleasure."

Never in the History of the great auditorium has there been within

of the great auditorium has there been within its walls a sight more beautiful than that revealed tonight when the great ball given in honor of Admiral Dewey was at its height. Tonight was the first time that Chicago had been permitted to pay her tribute of honor and respect to the victor of Manila Bay and she utilized the oppor-tunity to the full. It was a decisive suc-cess in all details from the decorations on the walls to the reception proper which was tendered the admiral. Fully 2,000 per-sons were present.

sons were present. It being a naval ball the predominating decorations were of white and green. A canopy was drawn over the hall, making it resemble a huge white capped wave, the deep green at the bottom shading softly into the purest white at the topmast edge. At inter-vals around the tiers of boxes were placed vals around the tiers of boxes were placed white gallcons, which seemingly started from the mist of bunting and delicate hued electric lights which concealed them a few feet from the prow, where dolphins rose from the imaginary sea below. Above each galleon rose a towering mast, bearing in re-lifer a lion's head and fluttering with the signal flags of the navy. Behind the signal flags of the navy. Behind the signal flags of the spanish-American war who saw active service in the Carribean. Until after the admiral left the hall the men stood steadily peering out over the

Until after the admiral feit the half the men stood steadily peering out over the prow of the fanciful and beautiful ships. The bases upon which the galleons rested, the box fronts above and higher yet the railings of the balconies were festooned with the prevailing colors of green and white, while between each two boxes and at either out of the low tiers the pational subject.

either end of the low tiers, the national colors were artistically grouped with the Union Jack.

Union Jack. The doors of the ballroom were opened at 8.30 and one half hour later the pat-ronesses and managers of the ball, who formed the reception committee, assembled in the ladies room at the south end of the foyer. Headed by Mayor Harrison and Mrs. Arthur Caton, the committee entered the ballroom and behind two long strands of silken ribbon took their stand at the north at the rear door of the second tier of boxes on the south side of the hall and Admiral and Mrs. Dewey entered, followed by a throng of less distinguished guests. Imme-diately behind the admiral came with their wives the naval officers on duty in Chicago and the officers of the U. S. steamer Michi-ran. Behind the navy came the army and the onlers of the U.S. steamer Michi-gan. Behind the navy came the army, headed by Major General Jas. F. Wade and Mrs. Wade, officers of Gen. Wade's staff with their wives and officers of the garrison at Fort Sheridan and their wives. Officers of the revenue service followed and behind them came Brig. Gen. Chas. Fitz-simmonds, commanding the First Brizado behind them came Brig. Gen. Chas. Fitz-simmonds, commanding the First Brigade of the Illinois National Guard, and Mrs. Fitzsimmonds, members of Gen. Fitzsim-monds' staff, with their wives closing the procession of the city's guests. The admiral and Mrs. Dewey, after they had exchanged greetings with the members of the recep-tion committee, took their stand at Mayor Harrison's right and to them were presented the guests of the city who had followed Harrison's right and to them were presented the guests of the city who had followed them into the hall. Then came in long lines the guests of the ball, all who desired being afforded an opportunity of greeting the ad-miral and his wife. There was no grand march. The admiral's party retired to his box when the line of guests had passed and. the orthogene at the line of guests had passed and. Jamestown, St. Helena, April 30.—Gen.

the orchestra striking up De Koven's two step, The Dragoons, the floor was surren-dered to the dancers. Towards midnight the admiral and Mrs. Dewey left the hall for a luncheon in their honor given in an adjoining room by Hobart Chatfield-Taylor and then after returning to the ballroom for a brief period, the ad-miral and his party retired.

An Opportunity will be Afforded for Full Debate. London, April 30-In the House of Commons today Mr. John Gordon Swift Mac-Neill, Irish Nationalist, member for South Donegal, resumed the interrogation of the parliamentary secretary of the war office, Mr. George Wyndham, in regard to the South African war, but got little satisfaction. The speaker, Mr. William Court Gully, finally called Mr. MacNeill to order for demanding to know whether the operations at Magersfontein were exempt from criticism by the commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa because Lord Methuen was "A society peer and a court favorite." Mr. Wyndham said the war office had

tion of the despatches" he would place salary of the secretary state for war among the votes to be taken Friday and thus enable a debate to be had on the Troopers of the Mounted Rifles Cannot be Accounted For.

Toronto, April 30.—The Telegram's special cable from London says a despatch to the war office from Mafeting in British Basutoland, southeast of Wepener, reports two Canadian members of the Mounted Pides are missing they are served R H Rifles are missing; they are Sergt. R. H.

Ryan, of "B" squadron; he was on the reserve of officers and belonged to Kent-ville, N. S.; Pte. Thomas E. Linden, of "B" squadron. He had been in "B" squadron of Royal Canadian Dragoons.

THE SENATE HAS NO BOER SYMPATHY.

The Pettigrew Resolution Defeated Second Time. Washington, April 30 .- Again today the question of expressing sympathy for the Boers was thrust upon the attention of the Senate. This time it came up on a motion to proceed to sensider the resolution introduced by Mr. Pettigrew (S. D.) which was before the Senate last Satur-day. The motion was defeated 29 to 20.

CRONJE'S LIFE ON ST. HELENA.

spies in the vicinity of the jail for the last two or three nights. They were mostly men disguised in women's clothes. An at-tempt has been made to kidnap a 12-year-old girl named Constable, the principal crown witness and her father's house is now being guarded day and nght. The authorities are satisfied a regular information bureau has been established in Buffalo by spies and that an espionage is placed on the jail with the intention of attemp to rescue the primers.

with natives. The morning papers give special promin ence to the statement of a news agency that Sir Redvers Buller sent his resignation to Lord Roberts after the Spion Kop censures were published and that Lord Roberts declined to accept it. The war specials today consist chiefly

Three Fine Steamers for the Canadian of detached scraps, the favorite introduc-tion of the military commentators and editorial writers being that, as only scant news has been wired, something big is probably about to happen. The Daily Chronicle's expert says:

Montreal, April 30.—The Star's special cable from London says the Elder-Demp-ster steamer Monmouth for the Canadian trade was launched today from Sir Rayl-ton Dixon's yards at Middlesborough. The "If a solid victory is to be obtained the British must have different leadertrial trip of the Elder-Dempster steamer Lake Champlain, built by Barclay, Curle Dewet's Dorp operations."

BRITISH SUBJECTS

exceptions, to leave the republic with n 48 hours. Nearly £4,000 has been sub-James Eurton, Who Tried to Shoot a Conscribed for the relief of the victims. Commandant Schatt has been relieved Sydney, April 30-James Burton was and has gone on commando. sentenced this morning by Judge Dodd to

ARRANGING THE

The Politicians Will Soon be Booming

the Boers. Toronto, April 30 .- It was stated around the parliament buildings this morning that orders had been isued to seven battalions in western Ontario to hold them-selves in readiness to proceed to the St. Clair River for frontier duty. Col. Mutrie of the 30th Wellington Batt, is said to have been one of the commanding officers warned, but he cannot be found at pres-envoys will make a tour of the country under the auspices of the association.

LOUIS BOTHA

ASSUMES COMMAND.

New York, April 30-H. N. Pillsbury, the American chess champion, gave a blindfolded exhibition at the Brooklyn Recent Scene of Hostilities Clear of Boers. Ladysmith, April 30-The country north Chess Club tonight in which he conducted twelve games. At nearly every board he of Sunday's River seems comparatively was opposed by two or more players con-sulting with one another, thus making his clear of Boers. General Louis Botha has returned to task more difficult. After several hours play Pillsbury won ten games and lost of the republics' forces.

BODIES TAKEN FROM

Jamestown, St. Helena, April 30.—Gen. Cronje and his wife, accompanied by the ted to attend religious service yesterday at Deadwood camp after which they had their first ride around the country, an ex-perience which seemed to give General Cronje much pleasure. The famous Boer commander was re-ceived with cheers.

A Degree from McGill.

al Forces" paid a tribute to the "Disin-terestedness of the colonies in sending troops whose splendid qualities and cour-age had formed a magnificent spectacle that had taken not only the Empire, but the whole world by surprise. The services they have rendered in the field," said the premier, "are splendid, unexampled and only surpassed by the further service of having drawn the Empire together. After what the colonies have done, it is realized what the colonies have done, it is realized that Great Britain is a more important nation in the world than before; her character is more respected and her wigh-es are more regarded." es are more regarded." Lord Salisbury deprecated any attempt to expedite a fusion of the colonies with the mother country by legislation, de-claring that it would be better to allow this wonderful growth of sentiment to continue. "By its own laws and according to the impulse of its own vitality." He concluded with the remark: "I beg to couple with this toast the name of excellent friend, Col. Denison."

Col. Denison, responding, said: "By giving advantages to the West Indies the Canadians have proved their will-ingness to put their hands in their pockets for the benefit of their fellow colonists. So far as imperial defence is concerned other nations were armed to the teeth; and it was time we took such measures that will enable the Empire, should oc-SUBJECTS ORDERED TO LEAVE. In the twint enable the Empire, should force. I hope that upon the conclusion of the war an imperial conference will be called." Mr.Chamberlain said he cordially agreed The Johannesburg Explosion Has Been the Excuse for a Drastic Measure. Pretoria, April 30—As a sequel to the Johannesburg explosion the government has ordered British subjects, with a few the source of the Ernpire.

To internet the sentiments of the sentiments of the transfer the sentiments that moved the colonies to join us in an hour of trial. of the military command at Johannesburg and has gone on commando. with something stronger than words, 1 pelieve the old country will stand the strain DELEGATES' RECEPTION. Mr. Chamberlain delared that the days of apathy and indifference toward the colonies had passed away and have given place to a

Strenous Desire for Closer Union.

New York, April 20—P. Louter Wessels, special commissioner from the South Af-rican republic, today received a telegram from the Hagué, saying that the peace envoys, Fischer, Wessels and Wolmerans, will sail for the United States May 3 envoys, Fischer, Wessels and Wolmerans, will sail for the United States May 3. They will be the guests of the National Boer Relief Association in this city. The of Wales to Canada, and now on their behalf he would ask His Royal Highnes whether it was not possible to repeat that visit. (Loud cheers.)

The Duke of Devonshire, briefly responded for the league, saying a cablegram had been sent to Lord Roberts to the effact that the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Marquis of Salisbury and the members of the British Empire League had drunk to the success of the imperial forces he was so ably commanding and expressing their high appreciation of the loyal courage and endurance of all ranks, adding that a reply had been received from Lord Roberts tendering grateful thanks on behalf of the troops and saying that all were in splendid condition and that Her Majesty might rely upon them to bring the campaign in South Africa to a satisfactory conclusion. THE FOUNDRY WRECK.

Forest Fire in Maine.

Lewiston, Me., April 30-The forest fire in Lisbon has burned over 1,000 acres, deage unknown.

"Relief Society. Money and Supplies. Kingston, Ontario, April 30.-The city council tonight granted \$500 for the relie of the Octawa-Hull fire sufferers and thi afternoon the ladies association of chari ties sent a carload of supplies. Subscriptions in London London, April 30.-The subscriptions the Mansion House fund for the relief victims of the Ottawa fire already reat  $\pounds$ 7,200. Contributions for the Ottawa Fire Sufferen At The Daily Telegraph office: A. E. K.... At the Globe office:

At the Globe onder Emerson & Fisher St. John Globe ...... At the mayor's office John P. McIntyre Ceo, W. Ketwhum

stroying a large amount of timber. Dam-are unknown. man relief committee, the mayor of O tawa or the mayor of Hull.

