FORMER MONCTON PASTOR LET CHURCH FOR "MOVIES"

Rev. H. G. Dockrill's Scheme to Wipe Out Debt Arouses the Nottingham Congregation.

Nottingham, Eng., May 29.—An American pastor's proposal to let a Baptist chapel for use on week-days as a cinematograph theatre, has led to extraordinary scenes at Nottingham. The building is the Nottingham Baptist Tabernacle, one of the largest and best-known Baptist places of worship in the provinces.

The minister, Rev. Henry Grant Dockrill, came over to England last spring as a missionary, and soon afterwards accepted a call to the pastorate of the Tabernacle. Finding the place burdened with a debt of some thousands of pounds he set himself to discover methods of raising money, and some months ago the whole Baptist denomination was startled to learn that this famous chapel was to be let on week-days to a cinematograph theatre.

Many prominent Baptists throughout the country protested, and one of the trustees refused to sign the lease. But Mr. Dockrill and the majority of his supporters persisted, and the building has since been fitted up as a luxurious picture palace.

Still Not Peace

The removal of financial worries has not brought about peace, however. The doctor has been at loggerheads with a large section of his congregation, and now a number of the prominent officials of the church have resigned. At a meeting of the members it was decided by a majority of fourteen to give the minister a quarter of one year's salary, and a majority is necessary, the vote was therefore operative. So great was the uproar that the meeting had to be adjourned. When Mr. Dockrill was called in and informed of the decision he remarked that he hoped the church would be blessed.

The Rev. Charles Spurgeon, a son of the late Rev. Charles Haddon Spurgeon, was minister at the Nottingham Tabernacle until five years ago.

Rev. Mr. Dockrill was formerly pastor of a Moncton Baptist church and has preached in St. John churches.
