SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 17, 1874.

A "Reform" Financier. The easiest way to make money, in connection with mining enterprises, is to buy up a lot of worthless mining claims for a few dollars, have them in your partner's name, and then, professing to be a disinterested party, organize a Company to purchase these mines from your partner at a big figure, get yourself and your relations appointed manager, "promoter," solicitor, etc., and sell the stockholders into paying as many cents as possible.

On all that scolding being heaped upon the wounded feelings of C. W. Weldon, Esq. He will either be nominated for the Commons or succeed the recently appointed Deputy Minister of Justice.

On all in Sanbury that the "wire puller" of the oily gammonish family compact will be left at home to sympathize with Mr. McMonagle and Leask. The office he is to get, after his defeat, is under discussion.

It is said that if C. W. Weldon accepts the nomination which is about to be offered him that Simon Jones will resign in his favor. But if we know the gentleman he won't resign "a word."

NOTES AND NEWS. NOVA SCOTIA. AKA Frolic at West Bay, Cape Breton, a row ensued in which sticks, scythes, hatchets and other weapons were used.

The Truro Sun has learned of the murder of Mr. William McNu, late of Ontario. He was a painter in Kansas City, and moved to West Bay, where he and his wife were sleeping in their own house, when they were attacked by a band of five men who were armed with pistols and knives.

UNITED STATES. The City Treasurer of the newly-fledged city of Holyoke added as a rider to his oath of office, "And I swear that if I see any more stealing going on I will expose it."

A number of New Yorkers are spending the winter in Florida and South Carolina. They write home aggravating descriptions of the good things to be had there - strawberries included.

A Missouri gentleman, who drew all his money out of the bank during the panic, died very suddenly the other day. The cause of his death was attributed to any one who will find where he hid the money.

Judge Gilson, of the Hastings Court, Virginia, some colored men having petitioned that juries for trying negroes should be composed of negroes, answered that by the Fifteenth Amendment to the constitution was expected to go and take color or previous condition.

Quite a number of weddings which were announced to take place this winter in New York, have been postponed for obvious reasons. One was postponed at the last moment, even after the cards were out and the mother-in-law-eloc was proceeding sacredly.

A concert in Buffalo a small boy, interpreted "fire" and the audience made a frantic rush for the doors and windows. Women and children were trampled under feet, and many injured. The cause of the alarm of the fire, and the consequent stampede, was supposed to be the boy's cry.

Bergh is after the cock-fighters of New York with a sharp stick. He led a contingent of his men to the wooden side of the building gave way under the pressure, and the cock-fighters fell pell-mell into a ditch. Each other grabbed one of the fighters and drove some twenty others into a corner.

GENERAL. The velvet and fur combination so popular this winter in street costumes is of the most elegant and stylish introduced for many years. Nothing can be handsomer or richer than real fur and velvet.

Bonnets have undergone a material change in shape since autumn. The real French model—something in the Maud style—is to be generally adopted by the leading ladies of fashion, and as a rule is very becoming.

Umbrellas for the fashionable young women of the period are of a navy blue serge-alk with ivory handles cut in the form of a cross. They are not ornamented in any way with silver or gold, and for that reason are very genteel and "safe looking."

A Paris correspondent, who it is safe to wager is a horrid man, says it is a current joke there that no titled person may be too old or ugly or impoverished but that he may hope to pick up an American girl who will give him a few dollars to become Madame la Duchesse or Madame la Baronne.

The Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh will make a state entry into London after their marriage. The Queen herself is favorable to this idea, but it has met with some unexpected opposition from other persons in high quarters. It is believed, however, that there is every probability of a "national welcome" being offered in this form to the daughter of the Emperor of Russia, and that we shall once again witness a repetition of the spectacle which took place at the entrance of the Princess Alexandra in London. This is to be a great illumination of the metropolis on the day of the marriage. The West End tradesmen have begun their preparations for this kind of illumination will, in spite of dearer gas, surpass that which took place in 1863.

A Strange Affray in Kentucky.

A preliminary examination has just been concluded in the court in Harrodsburg, Ky., which gave the particulars of one of the most bloody tragedies, consequent upon the habit of carrying concealed weapons, which has ever occurred in the States. For many years the Thompsons and the Davises had been friends, but at last they fell out, and that bitterness ensued which always follows when friends disagree. In November last both families were interested in a law suit regarding money which was tried in Harrodsburg. Each testified point blank against the other, and the testimony of neither was true. The members of the Davise family were most infamous scoundrels. In the cool Northern country such things might be and blood not flow. But Kentucky spirit was stirred and the result was a most bloody fray. Each party was armed, and as the testimony showed they were in the habit of being armed. Even while the civil trial was progressing, there in the very presence of the Court the fight began. A shot was fired, but by whom no one was prompt to swear. Then followed a fusillade in which the Thompsons and the Davises all took a hand. The result was three dead, Davises, a father and two sons, and several wounded Thompsons. In the mean time the spectators were so excited, some through the windows, and others behind the stoves or benches. There was some left to testify as to what they had seen, though many could swear to much that they had heard. The Judge took refuge behind his desk, and there a howling ruffian, with a pistol in hand, fell across him, both loudly yelling "For God's sake don't shoot."

Now four Thompsons have been brought to court upon the charge of murder. Doctors have testified, and blood garments have been exhibited. Ten days have been occupied in the sifting of the case. Upon general principles it has been found that the Davises were the aggressors in this case. Theodore Davise, two of the dead, was shot through the back, the other Thompson has been held in the sum of five thousand dollars bail, which was promptly secured. While his three sons were discharged.

The Snow Shoe Club. A number of the members of the club met in King's Square last evening and walked to the Railway Bridge, where they were joined by others of the club, making a party of about a dozen. It being the first meeting of the winter proposed was abandoned, and a much shorter one taken. They were out about an hour and a half, which was quite exercise enough for those of the members whose feet practice it was. The next tramp will come off on Monday, members meeting at the Railway Bridge at 7:45 p. m.

Grant Court.

The jury in the Smith vs. Gerow case were out about two hours and returned a verdict for the plaintiff of $1200, with $207 interest. The case will be argued in the Supreme Court.

Doedem McKenzie at vs. Mosher was the next case. This is an act of ejectment brought by the plaintiffs to recover possession of 450 acres of land in the original grant as lot 15. They claim possession by the grant made in 1810 to James Swin. The defence have not yet disclosed their claim to possession, but they will probably show that a man named White had possession of the land for some years and gave a quit-claim deed. The plaintiffs, on the contrary, claim that White was only a squatter, that he lived in poverty in a house no better than a lumber camp, with six or eight children. The evidence of J. E. Swin yesterday was to this effect. He swore that his father had cut timber from the land while White was on it, and that White had never attempted to present claim. He could remember being on the place when six years of age. He had even cut timber inside of a fence. The cross-examination of this witness was rather amusing. Dr. Barker, who appeared for the defence, called his style theatrical, and the Judge had frequently to speak out instead of nodding and shaking his head. At the conclusion of this witness's evidence the Court adjourned.

Wild Life. Capt. James Hobbs has been canvassing for his work entitled "Wild Life in the Far West." We trust he may be successful beyond his most sanguine expectations, as his work is replete with the wild scenes of the border, and contains much valuable information. Major Overton, Isiah Walker, and others well known to our citizens endorse Capt. Hobbs' work as a truthful narrative, having been present with him in some of the scenes described in Mexico, and having known him from his childhood as a truthful straightforward man. - Kansas City Times.

A late number of the St. John Morning News thus concludes a lengthy article entitled "Fellowship of Hypophosphites": "Mr. Fellows is certainly entitled to high credit for his energy and enterprise in working up his valuable discovery so successfully, and the presence of such gentlemen in any community is a matter on which that community should congratulate itself."

The St. John Telegraph and Journal says: "The invention of Fellows' Hypophosphites has become one of the valuable industries of the country, unique of its kind, and a credit to the Dominion of Canada."

What's Up Now! ST. JOHN, N. B., Jan. 17, 1874.

DEAR SIR: I observe in last night's Globe that the appointment of McMonagle to the office of Deputy Minister of Justice has not, and is not likely to take place. If such is the case will "Isaac" rise to explain how it was that when a certain Government official sent a telegram up to Ottawa to find out with whom he should legally consult in a certain matter, he was ordered to employ HENRY CHARLES McMONAGLE, Esq.

What's wrong now? Has "Isaac" sacrificed his bosom friend and confidential adviser to public feeling, or have Isaac's masters at Ottawa, advised by the Gill leaders here, ordered him to sever this "Damon and Pythias" friendship? Not that they like Henry Charles less, but a Government supporter more.

City Police Court.

Two prisoners occupied the Dock this morning. Daniel Maloney was charged with drunkenness in Charlotte street, and confessed the charge. "You'll pay $4. A boy of 20 years of age! You ought to be ashamed of yourself," said the Magistrate.

Albert G. Phillips was given in charge by Capt. W. Douglas of the brigantine Robin for being drunk and disorderly on board the vessel yesterday afternoon. From the Captain's statement it appeared that Phillips, who is first mate, was on shore and, when he came back, was the worse of liquor. He wanted some money, and to go on shore again, but the Captain refused to give him the money or let him go on shore, as they had in Halifax to pull him out of the water, where he had fallen while drunk. The mate insisted, and resisted the authority of the Captain, and was so bold that he was confined to his room. He broke the door down, struck the Captain, was put in irons and handed over to the police. "He's a good man," said the Captain in court. "No man can be a good man who gets drunk," responded the Magistrate, and fined Phillips $50 for assaulting his Captain. The money was as soon paid.

Shipping Notes. The Ship Saladin - A telegram from Captain Fell, of the ship Saladin, ashore near Halifax, to Messrs. Guy, Stewart & Co., received last evening, reports that they would commence discharging the vessel to day, previous to making an attempt to get her off.

New Vessels - Shipbuilding at River John, N. S., is quite brisk. Charles McLellan, Esq., is building a 700 ton mercantile steamer, the "Hesperus," for the Messrs. Ketchum, Jr., Esq., a 1000 ton ship; and John Henry, Esq., a 400 ton three masted schooner.

Universal Depot of Ballast - Captain Roush, of the bark N. Churchill, was, on the 15th inst., brought before our office, diary Magistrate at Halifax and fined $10 for depositing ballast on the fishing grounds at St. Margaret's Bay. It appears from the evidence that the captain endeavored to ascertain from the local magistrates where to deposit the ballast, but they did not appoint a place. As the law had been violated the fine was imposed.

The Canada Line of Steamers. Two of the first class boats of this line sail each week from New York and Boston for Liverpool. Passages and state rooms secured for any steamer at our office. A House Divided Against Itself. MR. EDITOR: Simon Jones is a bitter pill for the Americanization wing of the Liberal Reform Party of Jersey to swallow. They say he is the nominee of a "hole and corner meeting" of irresponsible "wire pullers," and consequently don't command the respect of the majority of the immediate Reformers. What will such enthusiastic young Liberals as Messrs. J. W. Laurence, Francis Collins, John Berryman, John W. Cudlip, S. P. Osgood, and Charles Gardner, say to such scandalous treatment from the American cliques, through their organ, the Evening Globe? W.
