

measure, indebted under God for this result.

From the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, Dr. Jesse T. Peck, and Dr. Geo. D. Carrow, have conveyed to us fraternal greetings. The rich expositions of Divine Truth, and the mature counsel to which we have listened, from these beloved and honoured Brethren, have cheered our hearts, while their descriptions of the wondrous favour which God has bestowed upon Methodism in their own land, has filled us with devout gratitude.

The ardent desires for union—the yearnings of Christian love toward others of kindred faith, which are beginning to distinguish the present era, and afford conclusive evidence that Christ is leading his people rapidly toward loving conquest—are manifesting themselves in our Methodist organizations. The Rev. S. D. Rice, D. D., has appeared amongst us, conveying an expression of the desire recorded by the Canada Conference at its recent Session, that we should, by authorized delegates, confer with their representatives, on the subject of an early union of Methodism throughout British America. To this request we have cheerfully consented, and we hopefully look forward to such a consolidation of all our interests as will add to our strength and answer in part the prayer of our Lord—"That they all may be one."

Our nomination last year, to the office of President, of Rev. Henry Pope, Junior, a name honoured in our Conference, as in your own, has contributed so greatly to the satisfaction of our brethren, that we are encouraged to present for
