

According to the most reliable statistics, the Church of England in the British Isles has contributed in the last twenty years $46,100,000 to Foreign Missions; the Roman Catholic $840,000; the Church of Scotland $3,018,000; Non-conformist bodies $32,600,000.

The fields are white to the harvest, but the labourers are few. The Master calls us all to increased love, to intense zeal, to more thorough consecration.

NOTE.—It is recommended that the offerings for this purpose be sent at as early a date as possible to the Secretary-Treasurer of each Diocese, to be by him transmitted to Mr. J. J. Mason, General Treasurer of the Society, Hamilton, Ont.

ANNUAL REPORT FOR 1892.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—

With this appeal I send you three copies of the Annual Report (1892) of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, with the request that you will be so good as to hand two of them to your Church wardens or other influential men of your parish as you may think proper.

Yours truly,

Chas. H. Mockridge

Secretary.

Toronto, Dec. 22nd, 1892.
