

Sec. 3.—When two members shall rise to address the Chair, the Chairman shall name the first speaker.

An appeal against the decision of the Chair on any point of order, can be made at the request of five members present. In a case of appeal, one of the appellants shall have the privilege of explaining his reasons for said appeal. The Chairman shall then state his reasons for so deciding. No further discussion shall take place on said subject. The vote shall then be taken, and the result declared by the Chairman.

Sec. 4. A motion for adjournment shall be always in order (except when a member is speaking in order).

ARTICLE IX.

Should any amendment, addition to, deduction from, or substitution for any of the above rules be deemed expedient, the member wishing so to alter shall give one week's notice of his intention; said notice to be accompanied by the proposed alteration.
