

THE BRUNSWICKAN

VOL. 120 NO. 4 FREE

CANADA'S OLDEST OFFICIAL STUDENT PUBLICATION

October 4, 1985

OH, SO GOOD!

Bruns Barbarians Bombast CHSR Bunnies of Death

by CALUM I JOHNSTON
MANAGING EDITOR

The Brunswickan Barbarians have once again blown away the lilly-livered CHSR czars in the 19th Annual Media Bowl. Despite incredibly hazardous weather conditions, the Barbs prevailed by an embarrassing score of 42-7 last Saturday.

The game began at 1:30 after a rigorous warm up program in the Social Club. Both teams appeared to be pretty evenly matched. The Bruns side looked like this: Ken "the Mutant" Quigley, Leth "Gorn" Chu, Todd "the Hero" Daley, Ricky Hutchins (a forehead with legs), Spike MacKinnon, Dim "Beaker" MacKinnon, Kaye "the Spectator" MacPhee, Bill "Big Guy" Traer, Peter Thompson, John Stillwell, Ernest Dunphy, Steve Boyko, Tommy Henderson, Jeremy "the Pearl", Kevin "the Man" Grant, Brenda Paul, Shelly "Wifey" Nelson, Zoe Green, Kathi "the Beast" Davidson, and Kelly "the Mar" MacKinnon.

The Czars neglected to enlist one female player, leading to the fact that one Barbarian (regardless of sex) is worth at least 3 czars. The CHSR squad consisted of Dave LeBlanc, Paul Gorman, Jeff Hale, Mike London, Curtis Baxter, Richard "the Horizontal" Bird, and eight others who prefer to remain nameless.

The first touchdown was snagged by Ken "the Mutant" Quigley off a Hail Mary by QB Ernest Dunphy.

Minutes later the Czars quarterback rolled out and made a fine delivery to a Barbarian. Thanks guys.

14 - zip

The Czars passing problems continued throughout the game; throwing more interceptions than completed passes. Interceptees included: Jeremy "the Pearl", a so the recipient of a concussion, Peter Thompson, one by Mickey "Spike" MacKinnon, another by Dim MacKinnon, and an incredible play by Billy Traer. As one of the onlookers put it, "Billy was walking around downfield, yawned, stretched and caught the ball in his outstretched hand." Traer displayed a reserved enthusiasm as he ran around in a circle till tackled.

A happy bunch of Barbarians: left to right - Top Row: Steve Boyko, Mark Savoie, Spike MacKinnon, Dim MacKinnon, Hutch, Ernest Dunphy, Kevin Grant, Zoe Green, Gorn Chu, Wifey Nelson, The Mutant. Bottom Row: Todd Daley, Peter Thompson, Kelly Maher, Mini MacKinnon, Brenda Paul, Kathi Davidson, Bill Traer, Kristine Hiew. Lying in background: Jeremy Earl. Cal "Rifkin" Johnston was out in Todd's car looking for more beer.

The scoring was handled by the smaller Bruns players; Jeremy Earl ran for one TD, Ernest Dunphy aired one to Peter Thomas for a major, and Quigley pulled down another Dunphy "Duck like" pass. Todd Daley then fell target to to a bee-line delivery from the Mutant for another major. The next 7 points were gathered by by a Daley "Prey to God" pass to Mickey MacKinnon.

Tommy Henderson, out of pity, called back a perfect CHSR fumble, which Mickey returned for a TD. Tommy is recovering nicely and expects to be released from hospital within a month.

Rickey Hutchins, a snowman with skin, made many excellent killings (condolences to Paul Gorman). One of these wonderful plays included a near interception with his stomach.

Ken Quigley, under pressure from fifty Czarist line backers, made a pass at the first half referee, Kristine Hiew, for which Quigley was savagely beaten around the face and neck by her boyfriend.

An on-field lumpectomy was performed on Brenda Paul (vocalist for the Fredericton Mimetroupe) during the game. Inflictors of this injury were, of course, among the Czarist regime. She was later awarded the Booby prize.

In the last half, Shelley "Wifey" Nelson was called off

continued page 19

Is UNB obliged to divest?

by PAMELA JOHNSON
BRUNSWICKAN STAFF

Our university, like any other university, has funds invested in numerous firms and companies: General Motors, Texaco, Union Carbide, and Noranda to name just a few. Are any of these companies directly involved with South Africa? Few university personnel are able to offer a satisfactory response. However, it is almost certain that UNB has some form of foreign investment directly or indirectly tied in with South Africa.

Universities with huge financial dealings, such as the University of Toronto, Queen's, and Columbia have found it necessary to completely review their own financial policies, make appropriate changes, and in so doing protest against apartheid during the current disinvestment campaign. The Sept. 23rd issue of Business Week reports that "U.S. enterprises dependent on good municipal or university relations cannot afford to keep their ties with South Africa." It is clear that university sanctions in the U.S. have made a great impact on overall U.S. investment in South Africa.

If a university such as our own were to divest in any companies dealing with South Africa, the effects would be miniscule. "It is not even an issue, it's not worth bringing," comments Timothy Lethbridge, student representative on the Board of Governors. He adds, "Even if UNB were to withdraw all her funds, someone else would immediately buy them and no good would be accomplished."

Lethbridge does not believe disinvestment will solve the problem of apartheid. Damage to the South African economy and the suffering of

See South Africa page 7

Photo by Sandy "Beaver" Rabasse. Need a photo? Leave it to Beaver.