Ottawa, 22nd May, 1908.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 10th inst. regarding Mr. Dunlop's accounts, amounting to $105.25, I beg to say that if you believe the goods were supplied under authority from the Department of Mr. Carter, and that the prices charged therein are fair and just you should certify to that. If you have reason to believe otherwise you should certify only to what you consider right.

Your obedient servant,

Tom Linn
Secretary.
