

said that they would derive no benefit from it.

Mr. Muckle adds that on the highway along the Red River there are several bridges required which would be more than the business could undertake to build without assistance from the Department or the municipalities.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your obedient servant
A. G. S. J. J. J.
 Deputy of the Asst. Com.
 of Indian Affairs