Ottawa, January 28, 1915.

Sir,-

The Department is in receipt of a communication from Miss Halpenny, teacher of the Anishnauk Day School, in which she informs the Department that she rented a building for the purpose of carrying on the day school at that place. Miss Halpenny has been informed that the Department will allow a sum of $5.00 a month for the rent of this building and you will be good enough to forward vouchers, in duplicate, properly certified at the end of each quarter for the payment of this rent.

Your obedient servant,

L. M. Dean

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
