

PROTEST—Continued.

law of place determines sufficiency of, 394.
 of foreign notes necessary to bind endorsers, 455.
 may be extended later, if noted on day of dishonour, 301.
 when justices of the peace may, 304.
 holder allowed expenses of, 305.
 fees allowed for in different provinces, 305.
 copy of bill may be included in, 307.
 forms of, 307.
 notices of on day of dishonour or next, 308.
 like notices as in notices of dishonour, 308.
 forms of notice of, 467-474.

PROVINCE in Act includes the Territories, 127.

holidays differ in different, 127.
 legal holiday or non-judicial day in, 127.
 fast of thanksgiving day in, 127.

PROVINCIAL LAWS, transfer or transmission under, 233.PROVINCIAL LEGISLATION as to bills.

in Quebec, 9.
 in Ontario, 10.
 in Nova Scotia, 12.
 in New Brunswick, 13.
 in Prince Edward Island, 14.

PUBLIC HOLIDAY—See Holidays.PUBLIC POLICY, 189—See Consideration.QUALIFIED ACCEPTANCE defined, 114.

when an acceptance is, 114, 115.
 list of, not complete, 115.
 payable at a particular place is not, 116.
 "and not elsewhere" is in England, 116.
 was in part of Canada, 116.

holder may refuse to take, 246.
 requires assent of drawer and endorsers, 247.
 notices to drawer and endorsers of, 247.

QUEBEC, French law introduced into, 7.

English law in, 8.
 Act of 1774, 8.
 provincial legislation on bills, 8.
 Civil Code, 9—See Civil Code of Lower Canada.
 English rules of evidence, 9.
 old French law in, 17.
 compensation and set-off, 22.
 cross demand, 22.
 transfer of non-negotiable bill in, 65.
 holidays in, 127.