LIFE INSURANCE AS PROTECTION.

The motive that prompted the inventors of Life Insurance was the desire to furnish protection. Savings and Investment are invaluable accompaniments, but the feature that sells Life Insurance is protection. That Company confers the greatest benefit upon its members that gives "the greatest amount of genuine life insurance protection for the least possible outlay." This aim has ever been the guiding star of The Mutual Life Assurance Company. Following out the principle of co-operation as the Mutual has done means that the Company allots the whole of its profit from all sources whatsoever, to the policy-holders, thus reducing their expense for insurance to actual cost—the only Canadian Company operating on this principle. The experience of the Mutual has fully justified the hopes of its founders who fifty years ago planned the Institution on the basis of CO-OPERATIVE SERVICE.
