CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lamphier of Erindale celebrated their golden wedding last week, when about fifty guests were present, including most of the members of the family, grandchildren and relatives. The celebration took place in Association Hall, which, as well as the exterior of the hotel, was profusely decorated. Glonna's Orchestra of Toronto supplied the music. Mr. and Mrs. Lamphier looking remarkably well, received congratulations and good wishes from many friends.

MONTH'S MIND MASS FOR MR. JOHN KEENA.

On Thursday, September 27th, a Month's Mind Requiem High Mass for John Keena was celebrated in St. Peter's church. In announcing this Mass Father Minehan stated that it was a personal and parochial acknowledgement of the services rendered by the deceased to every project for the advancement of St. Peter's parish, and especially to the construction of the beautiful church now nearing completion, of the building committee of which he was until prostrated by his last illness, one of the most zealous members, and to which he was one of the first and most liberal contributors. In this he was living up to family traditions, his parents being amongst the best friends of St. Peter's church from its humble beginnings. His death, at the early age of 43 years, caused a keen sense of loss to his companions on whose shoulders rests the burden of looking after the fine edifice in the progress of which he took a deep interest to the very last. To the parishioners to whom his robust and stalwart form was familiar the announcement of his decease was a sad surprise, all the more so because he did not live to see the completion of the new church to which he looked forward so eagerly; and many and genuine were the expressions of sympathy with his widow and his sisters whose sole and loyal brother he was. May his soul rest in peace.—Com.

DEATH OF MR. T. J. CARLEY.

Mr. T. J. Carley, proprietor of the Claremont House, corner of Queen and Claremont streets, for the past nine years, died on Monday after an illness of more than six months. He was 34 years of age. The funeral took place at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning to St. Mary's Church, thence to Mount Hope Cemetery. Mr. Geo. Carley of the Majestic Hotel is a brother of the deceased. R.I.P.

Diamond Jubilee. On Saturday, Sept. 15, 1906, the cosy home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hodgins, Newmarket, was the scene of a unique celebration—the occasion being the 60th anniversary of their wedding day. On the 15th September, 1846, Patrick Hodgins and Bridget Fitzpatrick were married at the parish of Roosky-on-Shannon, Leitrim, Ireland. For a few years they lived in their happy little Irish cottage and then rumors reached them of the independence and freedom of far-off America, and so, with love for their capital, and hope for their guiding star, they started for Canada. Here fortune smiled on them and in a very few years a farm on the 2nd concession of King was their own. Interesting, and often times pathetic, are the stories the old couple tell of the trials of the Canadian pioneer. Mayhap we blush a little at our own luke-warm ideas of religion, when we hear 'aem tell of walking miles and carrying their children in their arms to be present at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The faith of St. Patrick glowed brightly in their warm Irish hearts, sweetening their joys and healing their sorrow, when death came to their happy home and claimed a manly young son and a winning little daughter. One son and five daughters are still living. About 25 years ago Mr. and Mrs. Hodgins gave up the active life of the farm and retired to their comfortable home in Newmarket. Here in the evening of their life they are tenderly cared for by their daughter, Mrs. Annie Delaney. The members of the family present at the Diamond Wedding were Mr. Michael Hodgins and family of three sons and three daughters, Mrs. Annie Delaney of Newmarket, Mr. and Mrs. Dickson of Toronto and daughter, Miss Maymie; Mr. and Mrs. Wallis of Toronto and family of three sons and one daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gould of Newmarket with their son and daughter. The only member of the family absent on the occasion was Mrs. Ellen McDermott of Pawtucket, R.I. Three great grand-children were also present, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cain of Newmarket. Other relatives present were Mrs. Milne and son of Barrie, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hodgins of Newmarket. A brother of Mr.

nephew Michael, his end was peace. The funeral took place on Saturday, the 29th, from his late residence, 748 Duferin street, to St. Helen's church, thence to Mount Hope Cemetery. R. I.P.—Com.

LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

Dear Sister Knight,—It has pleased our Heavenly Father, who in His infinite wisdom and justice doth all things for the best, to take unto Himself your beloved father, and we with you and your family mourn the loss not only of a worthy and respected citizen, but an ardent and devoted member of our Holy Mother Church. What a holy consolation to know that your dear father died embracing the true faith and rich in the memories of many good deeds rendered. We only hope and pray that God will give you strength to bear with Christian fortitude the loss of so kind and loving a father. Hope whispers fondly, "your dear father will meet us at Heaven's bright portals where partings and sorrows shall come never more." Signed on behalf of the Ladies' Auxiliary Knights of St. John. L. O'LEARY, President. ADELINE JORDAN, Rec.-Sec.

Well diggers have to do a lot of deep thinking.

Patrick Hodgins was also present—Mr. Michael Hodgins of Newmarket—an old gentleman of 90 years. He was a guest at their wedding in Ireland sixty years ago. The old couple, looking bright and happy, received the guests in the parlor, where the following address was read by Mrs. Wallis: Dear Father and Mother,—We are gathered around you to-day with tender words and loving hearts to congratulate you on this, the 60th anniversary of your wedding day. As we look back over the years since first your loving care guided our childish footsteps, we have the proud satisfaction of knowing that you have always been an example which we—your children and your children's children, assembled here to-day to honor you—can never do better than imitate. And now, dear parents, with all the love of our hearts we ask you to accept this gift, and we pray that you may long be spared to brighten the dear old home. Mrs. Delaney, on behalf of the relatives, then presented the aged couple with a purse of gold and a bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern was presented to the bride of sixty years ago. Tea was served on the lawn, where a group photo was taken of twenty-five persons representing four generations. The death is announced of Rev. Cleophas Demers, of Somersworth, N.H., who was called the "Saint of the Diocese." Though a great sufferer for many years, due to ailments resulting from exposure while doing missionary work in Maine, Father Demers attended to the details of one of the largest parishes in New Hampshire, and was always so jovial that few could associate with him any idea of death.
