Clydesdale Men Meet

Lydesdale Men Meet

A proposition to move the Provincial Winter Fair from Guelph to Toronto Junction and there hold a combined Show, representing all live Stock interests, met with favor at the Annual Meeting of the Dominion Clydesdale Horse Breeder's Association at Toronto last Wednesday.

The adoption of the by-laws and constitution-draft and the time of the meeting. The principal point of contention was the representation on the board of directors. A large delegation from the West was present. These men felt that heretofore their delegation from the West was present. These men felt that herestore their interests had not been represented as they should be on the board of management. The matter was satisfactorily settled when it was pointed out that the vice-presidents from the different provinces had the same power as the directors.

as the directors.

The riveneuts, T. A. Graham, in opening the meeting, referred to the great strides that the industry had made during the past few years. Last year, the registrations had increased by over 200 per cent. The member-member of the past few years and the registrations are supported by the past of the pa

Holstein Breeders Meet.

Too small an exhibit of Holsteins was the complaint of J. E. K. Herrick for Sherbrook. The men there seem to be afraid of Ontario.

A good show of Holsteins and good demand for this class was the word from D. Murroe, Winnipeg. Holsteins held their own at Halitax, reworking for a beat. If John's is working for a beat. If John's is the Holstein class was organized at the Calgary Show last year, owing to the grant given by the Association. A S Blackwood reports a class of 20

S Blackwood reports a class of 20 cows there last year. Holsteins are becoming popular in British Columbia, reported Thos. Laing. Prospects are for a profitable trade with Japan, New Zealand and Australia. Australia
