WILLIAM JUNOR
88 West King Street, TORONTO

The Bishop of London, Dr. Winnington Ingram, addressing a crowded meeting of Church people at Parkstone, mentioned that he prepared all his sermons and addresses while dressing. During the general "titivation" of cleaning and shaving, his brains seemed to work in an astonishing manner and he did not know how he should find time to prepare his sermons and addresses if he did not do so while dressing.

Scotsman.—"A most masterly and comprehensive contribution to the world's knowledge."
Belfast Northern Whig.—"It is not likely that, in the English language, this work on 'Jerusalem' will be superseded."
Methodist Times.—"A great book, and a worthy successor to the Historical Geography of the Holy Land."
