The Peace Program of the Red Cross

In an address before the members of all branches and auxiliaries of the Utica Chapter of the American Red Cross and the ladies' committee on nursing activities, Dr. T. Wood Clark outlined the peace program of this worthy organization.

The meeting was held in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Beecher M. Crouse, 389 Geneva street, where a luncheon was given to meet Miss Stella M. Jenkins, newly appointed executive secretary of the committee on nursing activities of the Utica Chapter of the American Red Cross. Miss Jenkins received a distinguished service cross from the British Government. The speakers of the afternoon included Dr. T. Wood Clark and Mrs. Ezra Pugh. In the receiving line were Mrs. Beecher M. Crouse, hostess, Miss Jenkins and Mrs. Ezra Pugh. Coffee was poured by Mrs. Frederick T. Proctor and Mrs. Frederick S. Kellogg, assisted by Mrs. William B. Crouse, Mrs. Wallace J. Childs, Mrs. Lawrence Swift and Mrs. Carmine G. Scala.

Dr. Clark in opening his address on "The Peace Program of the Red Cross" said that he was glad to meet so many women, who were interested in this noble work. He told how nobly the women responded to the need of the soldiers in the service during the war. Continuing, he said, "This organization which has done such great good during the war has great potentialities for good in time of peace. The question arises, should this organization disintegrate? Should it be held together as a unit for the benefit of mankind? The answer was simple. The disintegration of the Red Cross would be a national catastrophe, therefore a comprehensive program has been drawn up which if carried out will make the Red Cross even a greater boon in time of peace than it was in time of war."

"The program includes the conservation of child life, prevention of mental, social and industrial diseases and the stamping out of tuberculosis. The first step which has been proposed is to place district and public health nurses in country towns; that part of the country which has previously been so sadly neglected. These nurses will visit the homes of the sick and help care for the patients and instruct the family what to do. Pre-natal inspection will be given. Infant welfare, child welfare, welfare work and school work will be a function of a tuberculosis nurse. The ultimate purpose of the service is to be such that every sick person deserving of the service of the nurse will have it. The instruction and advice will be given in every case where deserved. Every new born baby will be inspected and the mother instructed in its care, every child under school age and every school child shall be examined at least once a year and all cases of tuberculosis discovered will be given nurses' care. The work will be both practical and educational."

About 60 guests were present, including representatives from different Red Cross branches throughout the country.

Committee on Nursing Activities, Utica Chapter, American Red Cross, follows: Chairman, Dr. T. Wood Clark; vice chairman, Mrs. Ezra Pugh; executive secretary, Miss Stella M. Jenkins, R.N.

Board of Trade Executive Approves

TO THE PEOPLE OF BELLEVILLE:

In carrying out the plan for more thoroughly organizing the City of Belleville, it is the feeling of the Council and the members of the Board of Trade that the desired end can be best accomplished by a complete re-organization of the present Board of Trade.

In this re-organized Board of Trade there should be enrolled not only those who are now supporting it but a larger representation of all the interests and all the elements of the city. A broadly representative, thoroughly efficient agency is what Belleville requires.

Our decision has not been hastily reached. Careful consideration has been given to the purpose and ambitions of the City of Belleville and it will be served well by changing the type and methods of work of the present Board of Trade.

Further than this, we have been prompted not only by our knowledge of the value of such an institution as a means for promoting the civic, industrial, commercial and agricultural development of the city and its surrounding territory, but by the urgent need at this time for united service by all our people in the great tasks of reconstruction and re-adjustment brought by the close of the war.

The plan of organization as represented by the Canadian City Bureau has been considered and approved by a special committee of this Board, composed of four members from the City Council and four members of the Board of Trade with the President of the Board of Trade as Chairman.

The City Council and the Board of Trade are a unit in this matter and members of both bodies are doing individually and collectively everything they can to make this Campaign a great success and to bring greater prosperity to Belleville, and their approval has been approved and accepted by this Board of Trade. Accordingly, a vigorous campaign will be immediately entered upon, and to its successful prosecution we pledge our hearty endeavors.

When the membership has been enlisted, the new body will be organized under the plan which has been successfully employed in many other cities, involving, of course, the adoption of new by-laws and the election of officers, in which the entire membership will be required to participate.

We ask all thinking citizens of Belleville to join hands with us in this movement to give Belleville first rank among cities of its size in community action and unity.

- Signed: L. W. Marsh, (President), H. W. Ackerman, (Vice Pres.), John Elliott, (Treasurer), W. B. Deacon, W. C. Springer, O. E. Scott, W. B. Riggs, C. J. Howell, J. O. Herity, T. Blackburn, J. E. Walmsley, J. A. Higgs, H. F. Kitcheson
