ROSSEAND WEEKLY MENER.

Two Dollars a Year.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen Cordially

Received.

LORD ABERDEEN'S SPEECH

Visit the Mines.

quet of roses.

their honor at the opera house.

Reception in the Opera House-The people found vent in the ovation tendered

them, and it vias one of the days that gave fuesday to Lord and Lady Aber- and prosperity.

honored the city with their presence; all the city of Rossland, night yet it was lacking only a few min-utes to midnight before the train drew To His Excellency, the loyalty and patriotism of a patriotic [L. S.] City Clerk.

ROSSLAND, B. C., THURSDAY, JULY 21, 1898.

Fourth Year, Number 19

GUESTS my purpose to say but a very few observant Canadians, never failed to address which he has given," said His recognize His Excellency's devotion to Excellency, "and although I may be-

) words and to detain you but two or three minutes, and it is a pleasure for me to speak upon the mines and resources of Kootenay—a noble part of a noble prov-ince—the land of mountains, exquisite lakes, magnificent rivers and, moreover, a land of mines of wealth yet untold. It is almost needless this afternoon to re-mind our guests that this country but a short decade ago was a terrs incognita. THE MINES short decade ago was a terra incognita, self to vast numbers throughout Canada of the people of Rossland, and you may and the United States; that she has depend upon it that when I return to the its advance if we remember that the beautified social life and set an example motherland I shall represent to Her A Pleasant Banquet at the Allan-Some Excellent Speeches-Lady Ab-erdeen Discourses at the Opera Hense-Recention et the Theater. sure, a source of gratification and of in- Mr. Mackintosh continued : "A ma- personal character to Her Majesty, and terest to His Excellency as he makes this jority at least of those present are I have at times written at some length,

"We wish to express our sincere appreciation of the courteous hos-pitality and the gracious welcome that has been extended to us while it, and our best wishes are with Rossland and its people."—Lord and Lady Aberdeen's farewell "and Lady Aberdeen's farewell "and Lady Aberdeen's farewell "and the gracious to the source of the to the source of the to and Lady Aberdeen's farewell word through The Miner to the people of Rossland. The entertainment of Their Excel-lencies, the governor-general and Lady Aberdeen, yesterday, included a trip to the blue books; with which until lately I the mines, a luncheon at the Allan to have been more or less intimately con- and being an enthusiast was perhaps mineral resources, and we have also had

B. C. 🔹 MINES.

O'BRIEN REDDIN

1898.

large sale and

a single he good ir clients ave they

10 cents a shipping he lead of da will, if

with their buy on the perty has walls, and various ine. The advised the

, but now to 37 cents. but has has passed cents.

and good

DDIN & CO

Bros. & Purgold

* * *

ck Market.

k has been a particularly r as the stock market is ar Eagle has failed to ecent advance and after as \$3 is freely offered at a holds its own and is onte Christo is steady at quite a flurry in Deer blocks changed hands at from $15\frac{1}{2}$ to $18\frac{1}{2}$ and it is e latter price with every advancing to 20 or higher. ver, was the stock most alt in and we are pleased r clients took over 120,000 stock during the last week. advanced from 7 to 10 exceedingly good showing and on the fact that a conlet for the hauling of the th grade ore now on the pre will be shipped immed. rail smelter and judging ent smelter test which 20 to the ton, should give alts. A contract has been of tunneling and 100 feet of r eastern friends cannot do llow the lead of the homerest their money in a ship-10 cents per share. Such are not of frequent occur-into the Columbia & Western station. accident as the train was drawing into Trail, when it ran off the track and chugged along over the ties for some deen, in the Peerage of the United Kingdistance. By good fortune no one was hurt, and the transfer was quickly made Vice-Admiral of the same: to the private car of the narrow-gauge should arrive soon after 10 o'clock at who read the following address:

An Enthusiastic Demonstration at the will have been an eye-witness.

Reception in the Opera House-The Program for Today-The Party Will and esteem it a high honor that Your

It was a royal welcome that Rossland In conclusion, we wish Your Excellen-deen, when, for the first time, they Signed on behalf of the corporation will live long in the history of the town. behalf of the city, J. B. McArthur, presi-

Although it had been promised that dent of the board of trade, presented

May it please Your Excellency: division, which carried the party to this he Rossland board of trade, desire to The trip down the lakes was made extend to Your Excellency and to Lady under the escort of Hon. C. H. Mackin-Aberdeen a cordial welcome to Rossland, tosh, and as it was a pleasant day the voyage through the mountain-locked lochs was a delightiul one. Halcyon During your visit we trust that we may hot springs was briefly visited, and at be permitted to join with the mayor and Trail there were some 150 citizens present to greet the party, and to bestow upon Lady Aberdeen a magnificent bou-Her Gracious Majesty, the Queen, and WELCOME with the great wealth which lies buried in the mountains of our district, requiring only the aid of capital for its extraction.

We trust that on Your Excellencys return to the motherland, you may be in a position to do justice in representing

to the empire the untold mineral resources and possibilities of the province, and of the great development work of this district, of which Your Excellency

We extend to Your Excellency and to Excellency and Lady Aberdeen consented to become its guests during your visit.

W. MCQUEEN, H. S. WALLACE,

At the conclusion of the address on

The Right Honorable Sir John

Rossland, July 19, 1898.

the train bearing the vice-regal party John McKane, secretary of the body, people of Rossland.

Mayor.

tion, and that Your Excellency may be further impressed with the grand and prosperous future which awaits this portion of the Dominion.

At the hotel the guests were shown at once to their rooms, and after half an hour reappeared to attend the ball in The entrance of the party into the ball room was marked by the same enthusiasm that has greeted the appearance of His Excellency and Her Ladyship wherever they had appeared. Lord Aberdeen was the first to enter the stage, escorting Mrs. H.S. Wallace, silk gown, overlaid with jet passamen- chair.

terie, and a small bonnet, trimmed with red roses. The governor-general and his lady were introduced by the mayor, and the address from the city was read by was to a large extent uncleared land, treasured souvenirs of her trip. W. J. Nelson, acting city clerk. His and the district had contributed nothing Excellency stood to hear the address-a either to the Dominion or to the provslender, serious-faced, black-bearded man, with dark, thoughtful eyes, over-Now the output of ore from the Rossshadowed by a thoughtful forehead. land mines have amounted to 170.000

He listened carefully and courteously tons; the value of realty within the city throughout. has already exceeded $2,000,000, the The address, which was beautifully value of the permanent improvements engrossed upon parchment, and was enclosed in a leather case, was as follows: To His Excellency, the Right Honorable less than $1,000,000, while the present Sir John Campbell Hamilton-Gor- capital value of the mines is at least don. P. C., Earl of Aberdeen, Gov- $25,000,000.

unusually elaborate. Mayor Wallace presided and occupied been most encouraging within that mate civilization where a bible is carried anything written or unwritten on the ernor-General of Canada and Vice-The revenue derived from the Rossland postoffice has been $35,000, and the customs receipts total $350,000, without the bead of the table. At his right hand sat the guest of honor, His Excelleny the who have driven down deeper and drift- other. [Applause.] Once usher in that "The war between Spain and the Admiral of the same: Your Excellency :--Governor-General. Farther down the ed in further are quite satisfied with the era when the 'wardrum throbs no longer United States is a war, not for conquest We, the mayor, the council and the reference to inland revenue. table in order were Hon. C. H. Mackin- amount of ore disclosed. Your Excel- and the pattle flag is furled'; when or glory, but a war in the interests of citizens of Rossland extend to you and Last year the district of West Kootto Lady Aberdeen a hearty welcome to enay contributed to the provincial tosh, T. Mayne Daly, John Charlton, M. lency, we hope you will not only enjoy English-speaking races backed by better humanity. The Americans are responour city, the treasure vault of the golden revenue the sum of $310,000, of which P. Chas. S. Warren, A. S. Goodeve, the scenery of this most beautiful part thinking men of other nations, deter- sible for this war. Almost since the be-Rossland produced a large proportion. Edwin Durant; Chas. F. Fondey, of the Province, but that you will be im- mine to link their fortunes, then will be ginning of time England has been to the Kootenays. We trust that Your Excellency will consider this welcome, not as a mere perfunctory ceremony, but as mere perfunctory ceremony, but as springing from a true appreciation of those sterling qualities which have so eminently fitted Your Excellency for the great future of the district such as the discharge of the responsible and ar-duous duties appertaining to the Gover-nor-Generalship of the Dominion. During Your Excellency and Lady Aberdeen shall During Your Excellency's tenure of have severed your official connection Henry Kehoe, J. Kirkup, Wm. Dunn, banquetters with the classic song of the must be prepared to accept some respon- ment and the advancement of the human office we have had abundant evidence of your capacity to govern, and of the member its people with the same warm of well, A. J. McMillan, Mr. Waterlow, W. goes without saying that it was well then will be established the greatest "There is no doubt that the attitude "There is no doubt that the attitude advantages of having at the head of our feelings as they entertain towards your- Oliver, S. Geo. Ridout, T. S. Gilmour, sung, while the audience joined in the confederation of freemen the world has of England in this war has kept the W. S. Deacon, J. S. Kirk, Dr. Coulthard, chorus with a vim. Mr. Sword was ac- ever dreamed of. [Loud cheers.] A wolves and the hyenas from interference. affairs such a worthy representative of selves. consummation devoutly to be wished All I can say is 'Here's to the Angloour gracious Queen. Nor have we failed Signed on behalf of the Rossland John Boultbee, W. J. Maxwell, Jas. B. companied by Chas. F. Fondey. for ;-an epoch during which each star Saxon; may he live long and prosper." to appreciate the kindly interest mani-Dabney, Edwin Finch, R. Marsh, Mr. Mr. Mackintosh's Speech. Board of Trade. upon the flag of the United States will "Your Excellency, as you saw down fested by Lady Aberdeen in the social Campbell, Mr. Moss. JOHN MCKANE, J. B. MCARTHUR, The toast to His Excellency, the govrepresent a civilizing power, each British the Arrow lakes last night the hundred life of Canada. To the left of the mayor was Captain President. ernor-general, was given by Hon. C. H. Secretary. colony a great auxiliary force, all work- camp fires reaching from the lake shore Tharp, W. A. Carlyle, J. S. Clute, Jr., Ross Thompson, J. B. Johnson, J. B. We sincerely regret that your Ex-Rossland, July 19, 1898. ing in concert with the parent country, to the timber line, it is safe to say that all honoring the brave old flag of our those fires were built by your American Mackintosh, in one of the most intercellency's duties as governor-general of McArthur, F. W. Rolt, J. S. C. Fraser, esting speeches of the day. His Excellency spoke briefly and Canada will soon terminate. We know, "The citizens of Rossland," said Mr. fathers, all revering the banner that has consins. They blazed the trails for you however, that the conclusion of your of-ficial duties in this regard will not lessen your interest in the progress, prosperity British Columbia," he said, "and in Lionell Webber, A. B. Irwin, W. H. Mackintosh, "could not have conferred ever been the harbinger of liberty and to follow-they are responsible for the Jones, J. B. Hastings, A. C. Galt, J. W. patriotism; the protector of the op- Kootenays, they are responsible for the a higher honor upon me than by reand development of Canada, and more particular we are delighted to find our- Ferrier, Oliver Durant, John M. Smith, especially of British Columbia, in which province you have already acquired yalu-able agricultural interests. During yourExcellencies' short solourn in the than by re-duction in the than by re-geo. H. Bayne, Mr. Mercer., J. Ferguson McCrae, Fred Schofield, Geo. Richard-son, W. J. Nelson, N. A. Burritt, Dr. Reddick Wer Here in the than by re-guesting me to propose the health of a guished, so respected, so deservedly able agricultural interests. pressed of all lands. [Applause.] Klondike. They do not build railroads in this country, they simply blaze the way for you to do so. The winter or the "'Tis only a small piece of bunting, 'Tis only an old tattered rag; 'But thousands have died for its honour. 'And shed their best blood for the flag.' able agricultural interests. During yourExcellencies' short sojourn cherished long — long in a moderate cherished long — long in a moderat summer storm has no terror for your American cousin. Wherever you find in our city, every means and facility will sense, for we all know that Rossland has Gandier, Frank Guse, P. McL. Forin, J. [Loud cheering.] The Stars and Stripes! [Loud applause.] Some one more caphim in this broad land you find an enter-W. Jenkins, Captain James Morrish, more sincere, none more truly apprecia- Mayor and gentlemen, long may their prising, progressive law abiding citizen, the Union Jack! Your Excellency, Mr. be afforded your Excellency to appre- as yet attained no very great antiquity. Clive Pringle, Dr. Senior, J. W. Astley, varying tints unite and form in heaven's proud of you, proud of your institutions ciate the vast mineral resources of this "The loyalty and the patriotism of the Chas. R. Hamilton, Claude Cregan, Sol part of the province-a province rich in people of Rossland are famous, but we "You all know in what esteem the light one arch of peace! [Applause.] Cameron, W. J. Harris, Mr. Waterlow, queen the world has ever known, but agriculture, rich in pasture, rich in tim- were not prepared for the splendid re-Marquis of Dufferin and Ava was held My Lord Aberdeen, we soon must part. W. Hart-McHarg, Dr. Johnson, Mr. Mcber, rich in coal, rich in precious metals, ception and the kindly hospitality that prouder still of the land that gave him birth." [Cheers] when 20 years ago he closed his term as We will ever reserve a warm spot in our Millan, T.R. Morrow, Mr. Cusack, David in short rich in everything necessary to have been shown us everywhere since governor-general. [Applause.] I am hearts for you and yours. We know you Stussi, C. H. Jackson, Edward Baillie, make it the brightest gem in the diadem our arrival here-a welcome perpetuated Speech of T. Mayne Daly. Olaus Jeldness, John Y. Cole, Alfred not unmindful of the fact that he, loving will gladly convey to Her Most Gracious iu the form of these addresses, which I of our great confederation. Woodbouse, Charles Mackintosh. "Bonny Prince Charley" was well our people today as he did a quarter of a Majesty a message of loyalty and love. Your Excellency will also be afforded cannot deal with tonight as fully as 1 The opening toast, "The Queen," was century ago, consented to accept the We know you will be proud to carry the sung by John McKane, and then T. an opportunity of witnessing the great should like, yet I hope to dwell upon given in rousing fashion, and the singchairmanship of a great mining corpora message across the ocean, assurances of Mayne Daly toasted the mayor and the development that has taken place in the them more extensively tomorrow. I tion, a corporation destined, I am con- our patriotic devotion and unswerving council of Rossland. "There is no better ing of the national anthem followed enmines of this district, with especial re- may, however, express my cordial convinced, to prove how rich British Colum- allegiance. [Loud applause.] Assurthusiastically. god to the fact that such development currence with the sentiments expressed bia is in mineral wealth. You have ances, too, that should ever storms and governed or more orderly town in the Mr. Carlyle's Speech. has been wholly accomplished since your in these addresses regarding the marvel-"The Mineral Resources of British Col- heard what that eminent authority, Mr. passions of envy and hatred beat about Dominion than Rossland," said he, Excellency assumed the office of governor ous mineral wealth of this district. umbia" was responded to by W. A. Car- Carlyle, has said. I can add no more. the Motherland the hardy sons of this "and for this the mayor and the council, "Let me again thank you for the most general. lyle, chief engineer of the B. A. C. Mr. [Cheers.] To my connection with that western hemisphere will surround her as well as the citizens of the town, are to It may be of interest to Your Excel- hearty welcome you have shown us, and lency to know that there are already 14 in particular let me thank you on behalf Carlyle was not allowed to proceed un- corporation I doubtless owe the compli- during every period of gloom and deshipping mines in the Rossland district, of Lady Aberdeen for the courteous til he had been honored by a hearty ment paid to me. Gentlemen, in men- spondency, their strong arms bear her Meyor Wallace Mayor Wallace replied briefly, as the shipping mines in the Rossland district, and further to learn that there has been expended in mining machinery and plants not less than the sum of $1,000,000, and less than the sum of $1,000,000, not less than the sum of $1,000,000, and In conclusion, His Excellency exthat as a result over 170,000 tons of ore pressed the hope that the dancers would Mr. Carlyle responding to the toast of guished statesman finds a responsive Mayor, gentlemen, I give you our officials of it. have been mined, amounting in value to continue their program, and he gave "The Mineral Resources of British chord in the heart of the noble lord who guest Lord Aberdeen, governor-general have been mined, amounting in value to continue their program, and he gave "The Mineral Resources of British chord in the heart of the noble lord who guest Lord Aberdeen, governor-general W. J. Nelson, who gave the toast, Over $5,000,000 - the gold production way to them, for, as he humorously re- Columbia," said: "For the second time, today accepts your hospitalities. [Loud of the Dominion of Canada." [Immense The Ladies," made an unusually witty alone being more than 275,000 fine called, a Greek philospher had declared it is my very pleasant duty to rise to cheers.] Eight years ago, when member cheering.] speech, which was happily responded to Lord Aberdeen's Address. it folly for one to speak when a musician respond to a toast in which most of us for the capital of the Dominion, I had by F. W. Rolt. We trust that an inspection of our was present, and here were the musicians are very deeply interested-the Mineral the honor of meeting His Excellency for "I am most grateful to my friend Govmines may impress Your Excellency all ready to play for the merry makers. Resources of British Columbia. It is the first time, and since then, like all ernor Mackintosh for the beautiful (Continued on Page 4.)

Gordon of Aberdeen, County of Aber- where they left for Nelson.

All of Rossland United To Entertain Them Yesterday.

House-Reception at the Theater.

spect of the whole population.

THE MINES VISITED.

Star Ore Bodies.

Four years ago the mineral output of miners with a magnificent hand made the district was not begun; the site on miner's candlestick, which she assured which the city of Rossland now stands the givers should be one of the most

LUNCH AT THE ALLAN.

now that the time has come for digging, congratulate them upon recent achieve- to say that I am an American in every tion Ever Held in Rossland. The luncheon given yesterday after- and that digging is being done, I am ments of their army and navy while sense of the word, and that my countrynoon at the Allan to His Excellency the sure capital will find more and more en- waging a white man's war for the exten- men are engaged in the industry of Governor General, was one of the most couraging places for investment. Last sion of modern civilization [Cheers] and making history that will stand as long as impressive public functions ever held in year I spoke in most encouraging terms we implore them, when the auspicious in connection with the mines, exclusive Rossland. The attendance numbered of the future of Rossland; at the present hour arrives, to cast their influence with the English language is spoken. One last of roads and trails, is estimated at not over 100 citizens and the speeches were time I am well familiar with its present those who advocate the white man's May day, while children were picking of far-reaching importance. The menu conditions, having seen most of the policy of an Anglo-American alliance. flowers in celebration of the return of spring, one of your cousins named was excellent, and the decorations were properties during the last few months, [Loud cheers.] and I may say that the progress here has '"Gentlemen, there can be no legiti- George Dewey placed 'Old Glory' above

Campbell Hamilton-Gordon, P. C., Earl his lordship, and an address by her nected, we find that ten years ago the carried a little too far by a desire to pro- the pleasure of taking a trip to the Cen-The delay was due first to tardiness in leaving Robson, and secondly to an of Aberdeen, Viscount Formartine, Bar-ladyship and a general reception at the mines of Kootenay—and remember we mote the welfare of the northwest. tre Star, for which I again wish to thank ron Haddi, Methlic, Tarves and Kellie, opera house, after which the vice-regal are speaking of all Kootenay extending When a great exhibition, held away out the manager of that property, Mr. Durin the Peerage of Scotland, Viscount visitors were escorted to the station, from the Rockies westward until we in the prairie took place, His Excellency ant. [Applause]. Let me also give thanks reach the Yale district-a decade ago considered neither distance, fatigue nor for one of the most cherished souvenirs Everywhere they were greeted with these mines produced $26,000; five years hard work too great a sacrifice, and to which we shall carry away from Rossdom, Governor-General of Canada, and the most profound respect and esteem, later the production had increased to him and to Lady Aberdeen, the north- land-a beautiful miner's candlestick, and for the genuine heartiness of the $100,000, while last year the production west owes much for their self-sacrificing made by a number of the miners at the welcome it was an ovation such as was $7,000,000, and when we total up efforts on that occasion. [Loud applause.] Centre Star and given to Lady Aber-We the president and the members of few public personages ever receive. It what Kootenay has produced within "Why then should I not speak in deen.

was the first visit of the vice-regal couple practically the last three years, we find terms of eulogy, why not rejoice, doubly "Regarding an allusion in the adto the city, but in the few hours they that it is $17,000,000. In speaking of rejoice, to welcome them to another dresses presented to me that I might were here by their rare tact and courtesy our own camp, in which we are province, which bids fair to outstrip make known something of the develop-"the city of a few days old," and yet the metropolis of eastern British Columbia." were nere by then have deeply interested we may recite a few figures, and we find work and are true to themselves; [Loud] ment of this favored region, I am proud to say that I shall be happy to take part that in the early days of our camp, in cheering.] a province in which Their in that work. The district has become 1894, the shipments of ore from our Excellencies number hosts of friends and pretty well known, and not only are its doing honor to you as representative of Vice Regal Party Shown the Centre camp amounted to $75,000, while last hold such important interests. [Applause] great resources recognized, but I am we find that from the mountains within who has been a good friend to Canada, tion is over and that permanent work is to assist in every enort to enable Your Excellency and Lady Aberdeen to view the vast mineral resources of the Trail 9:30 o'clock, when the children of the 9:30 o'clock, when the children of the the vast mineral resources of the Trail 5:50 o clock, when the children of the great when compared with Africa and come-but he knew the constitution of the attention of the world to the magin metalliferous ores that it is now and Mrs. Thos. Parker, sang a number the the second of the magattracting the attention of capitalists in of patriotic anthems on the platform that the are to be proud of. We know indorsed by all thinking and reasoning ery which I have not seen equalled any erected for the purpose by the Bank of that they increase from year to year and Canadians. I say this advisedly because, where in my travels throughout the

We trust that Your Excellency and Lady Aberdeen will be much interested number of committee men, then proin the inspection of the mines, and in viewing the great development that has been accounted during the second during th viewing the great development that has been accomplished during the past four years in connection therewith. Interviewith. Interviewith the Le Roi, the War Eagle and the Josie lowed by the mayor escorting Lady Aberdeen, while the members of the suite and the councilmen and the com-Aberdeen, while the members of the suite and the councilmen and the coun-mitteemen succeeded them. On the platform, at the request of Mrs. Wallace were also Mrs. H. W. C. Jackson and Mrs. Geo. Naden. His Excellency was dressed simply in light trousers and a dark frock coat, with a black Ascot tie, while Her Lady-ship was costumed in a salmon-colored silk gown, overlaid with jet passamen-char:

but I am sure that all who know what gether to appreciate the figures they put was the singing of "The Maple Leaf," by we know, and have seen what we have, upon their properties when our corpora- Frank Oliver, and at its conclusion Gencannot but have the very strongest faith tion proposed to purchase them. |Loud eral Charles S. Warren responded to the in the future of this great district. In laughter.] I think we got them down toast, "Our American Cousins."

my report last winter, I said that we to hard pan at last, though. [Laughter.] had more capital than we had mines and "Pleasantry aside, we thank them for "In replying to the toast, 'Our Amer-I was sharply taken up for it, but I assisting in doing honor to the governor- ican Cousins,' it gives me great pleasure

General Warren's Speech. Was the Most Impressive Public Func- think I was right in what 1 said, and general of Canada. [Applause.] We

Bros.	8	Pu	rgold
	7	$	2 60
			42
solidated			15
	•••••	$
isto			30 7 2 12
 •••••			$15_{30\frac{1}{2}}$
			25
			25
			30
2 7- 1			70
			31/2
			IO
ar			6
			75
r			181/2
•••••			151/2
			12
		Y.	32
	12	- 5-	and a

SSLAND, B. C.

ce: 7 Broad Street Avenue. London, E. C.

ford McNeill. A B C and Clough's.

Address, "Nuggets."

