 glances over their last year's records shows that the figures justify the faith of the White Caps' leader. The three twirlers won 32 and lost 22 games last season, giving them a pitching average of .593, which was away higher than the average of either the Petes or the London and Guelph teams, upon which Silex figured. Tracey won 15 and lost 8, a percentage of .652, or very nearly two wins out of three starts. And it must be remembered that within the Iron Man joined the White Caps the team was badly disorganized and tossed away three of four games, but after he had given an exhibition of twirling that would have easily won later in the season.

Hanson broke even, winning four and losing the same number, but of his defeats came after he had sustained an injury which finally resulted in his having to go to the hospital, and went under an operation. He was not in condition to pitch, but the Petes had only three twirlers at that time and the big fellow had to go on the firing line.

As for Silex, the ex-London and Guelph twirler, from 13 and lost 10 last season, losing two more games than Tracey. He started out with London at a great clip, and won two-thirds or better of his games until the whole London team took a slump. Then he was transferred to Guelph, who was not going very smoothly at that time, but at that he finished the season with his good percentage of .565.

Here are the figures of the three for last season:

	Won	Lost	P.C.
Tracey	15	8	.652
Silex	13	10	.565
Hanson	4	4	.500

KING ALFONSO WAS SHOT AT

An Assassin Made Attempt On His Life—King's Agility Saved Him—A Close Call

MADRID, April 14.—For the third time in his reign, King Alfonso narrowly escaped yesterday being the victim of an anarchist attempt against his life. Three shots were fired at the king yesterday afternoon in the streets of the capital by a recruit of Barcelona, Rafael Sanchez Allegro, who was immediately overpowered.

King Alfonso owed his life to his own courage, quickness and skilled horsemanship. Accompanied by his staff he was riding along the Calle de Alcalá on the way back from the ceremony of swearing in the recruits when a man sprang from the sidewalk and seized the bridle of the king's horse with one hand, pointing a revolver point blank with the other.

The king took in the situation at a glance. With lightning rapidity he dug his spurs into the horse, which reared violently. His quickness saved his life. The bullet, instead of burying itself in the king's breast, struck the horse on the neck, but so close was it that the king's left hand discharge was blackened by the powder discharge.

Would-be Assassin Seized.
 Before the assailant was able to pull the trigger again a secret service man sprang upon him. The two men fell on the ground locked in each other's arms, struggling furiously. The assassin managed to free his revolver arm and fired two more shots in rapid succession but the officer knocked his arm aside and the bullets fled harmlessly through the air.

At the sound of the first shot the king's staff forced their horses on the sidewalk and made a ring around the assassin, who fought long and fiercely in the grip of four policemen before he was overpowered and handcuffed. King Alfonso, as soon as he saw that the man had been secured raised himself in the stirrups, turned to the crowd, gave a military salute and shouted in ringing voice, "Long live Spain."

Cheered Wildly.
 He then dismounted and reassured his staff, saying: "It is nothing, gentlemen." Then uprose a mighty roar from the wildly enthusiastic crowds, which rolled along in great waves of sound, all the way as the king rode to the palace, cool, collected and smiling.

A spectator, a pensioned royal halberdier, pushed forward so impetuously to offer his congratulations to the monarch that he was mistaken for another assassin and arrested. He was released, however, as soon as the mistake was discovered.

A young Frenchman, who was standing beside Allegro, was also arrested, but it does not appear that he came in contact with the king.

Later the two squares near the palace were black with people desirous of showing their joy at the king's safety and their admiration for his display of bravery. The king went to the balcony and waved to the throngs for several minutes.

The Assassin's Story.
 MADRID, April 14.—Allegro, the assassin who shot at King Alfonso, is a well-groomed, intelligent looking man, 25 years of age, who, it is suggested that he is anything but a criminal. He says he is a carpenter, but looks more like a clerk. A reporter who got into the house where he was detained by the police pending the arrival of the police pending to Barcelona, but had been in Madrid two months. When asked why he tried to shoot the king he dropped his eyes, hesitated in an embarrassed manner and then stammered something about acting on a sudden impulse. Subsequently he said he was glad the king had not been hurt.

The reporter then asked in amazement: "Then why did you fire at him?" Allegro stammered again and finally said: "I don't know; I cannot say."

What has been learned of his antecedents, however, confirms the supposition that he is a theoretical anarchist, who agreed or was forced by his violent comrades to assassinate the king, and has been waiting for an opportunity since his arrival in Madrid.

MADRID, April 14.—King Alfonso of Spain, took an early ride in the park this morning and was warmly saluted by crowds of people who had gathered to cheer him. Joy reigned everywhere that the king had escaped the bullets by the world-belegued Rafael Sanchez Allegro, while His Majesty was returning from a review of troops yesterday.

The anarchist, Allegro, was in very merry mood during his examination. He forced the guards surrounding him and the interrogating magistrates to laugh at his witty comments. Inquiries made by the police in Barcelona show that Allegro was rejected from the Spanish military service owing to his suffering from nervous attacks. He had been frequently without employment. He is married to a woman of very honorable family.

Women Are Praising Dodd's Kidney Pills.
 Nova Scotia Mother Tells How They Cured Her Aches and Pains, and Made Her a Well Woman Again.

ECUM SECUM BRIDGE, Halifax, N. S., April 14.—(Special.) From Vancouver to Halifax come daily reports of the splendid work Dodd's Kidney Pills are doing for the suffering women of Canada, and this little place can show a splendid cure of its own. Mrs. Orastus Pace, the mother of a large family, was a sufferer from those aches and pains only women know. To-day she is a strong, healthy woman. Dodd's Kidney Pills did it.
 "I had a pain in my left side and down through my hips," Mrs. Pace states. "I had headache all the time. My heart was weak, and at times a pain around it added to my fears. Some days I was hardly able to walk."
 "I read of a number of cures of cases like mine by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and sent for three boxes. Today, an old woman, and can do as much work as ever I could."
 Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Mrs. Pace because her troubles came from diseased kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys and as ninety per cent. of women's troubles come from kidney trouble, Dodd's Kidney Pills have come to be known as suffering woman's best friend.

County Council Defers Action Re-Publicity

Grant of $1000 Was Asked For in Connection With Boosting Brant County—Hydro Electric Matters

The matter of the granting $1,000 by the County Council for publicity purposes, after much discussion by the members of the County Council which met at the Court House on Saturday afternoon, was finally laid over until the June session of that body.

A communication from the Hydro-Electric System addressed to Mr. A. E. Waite and dated April 6, placing before the Council a proposition to come in on the special electric lighting system which is being petitioned for along Market street, was finally referred to the Buildings and Grounds committee with power to act.

The Publicity Scheme.
 At a meeting of the Council held on March 22, a Publicity committee was appointed consisting of the Reeves to meet the county organization interested in the publicity movement in connection with the county, which meeting took place Saturday morning. The following report was submitted by them and adopted:

"Your special committee, consisting of the Reeves various municipalities of the county appointed to meet the county organization interested in the publicity movement in connection with the county beg to report as follows: Your committee met with a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Shuyler, Ballachee, Garney, Clark and Vansickle, appointed by the various county organizations to meet the special committee appointed by the county and having fully discussed the matter, a resolution was unanimously carried as follows:

"That the Reeves of the various municipalities of the county, together with the above gentlemen representing the various county organizations should organize into an association to be known as 'The Brant County Publicity Association,' and that such association should prepare the necessary rules and regulations for the government of the same."

Subsequently the following gentlemen were elected officers of the association: Mr. Schuyler, secretary; and Mr. Geo. E. Cooke, vice-president. Mr. Schuyler, secretary; and the four representatives of the local and Dominion houses from this county were elected honorary members of the committee.

Messrs. Schuyler and Clark on behalf of the Brant County Publicity Association made the following request:

Brantford, Apr. 12, 1913.
 We the undersigned, representing the Brant County Publicity Association, hereby make the following request:

"That the County Council of Brant County be authorized to grant the sum of one thousand dollars for the purpose of advertising the county in the manner deemed best by the said committee."

Objects of the Scheme.
 The following objects in connection with the work are under consideration:

Publishing folders illustrating and advertising the agricultural interests and possibilities of the county for the purpose of encouraging an influx of farm laborers and the further investing of capital within the county.

Making a display of products at the Flower, Fruit and Honey show at Toronto.
 An approximate estimate of the expense in connection with this work based on estimates obtained from other

20,000 pamphlets	$60.00
Photographs and cuts	100.00
Editing and obtaining information	100.00
Postage	50.00
Engraving	100.00
Sundries, (envelopes, etc.)	30.00
Exhibits	263.33
	$813.33

Mr. Schuyler explained to the Council that the department would probably grant the $333.33.

Councillor Cook moved that the $1,000 be granted. This was seconded by Councillor Simpson, both gentlemen making enthusiastic speeches. Councillor Davison, Paris, followed, objecting strongly to the motion, his chief objection being that such associations as fruit growers, bee-keepers, etc., he believed would reap the benefits from the publicity the county would receive, while others who were helping to pay the cost would not receive any special value. He believed that such associations should at least contribute 50 cents per member. He was also of the opinion that the question had not been sufficiently advertised among the residents of the county.

Councillor Taylor was in favor of the grant, but he did not think the people of the county were not ready for the question. He finally moved, seconded by Mr. Waite, That the matter be laid over for a year.

Councillor Davison was in favor of granting the money as was also Councillor McCann.

Councillor Burtis expressed the opinion that the council should go slow.

Mr. Shuyler and Councillor Layton engaged in a discussion in which the other members of the Council joined.

Col. Frazer of Burford was present and expressed the opinion that $1,000 would not be too much to grant. He expressed himself as willing to go down into his own pocket and help the scheme.

The discussion was finally brought to a close after the Warden expressed an opinion that the matter be laid over until the June council meeting, by Councillor Taylor amending his motion to read June instead of a year, and by Councillor Cook withdrawing his motion.

The Hydro-Electric.
 The communication from the Hydro-Electric system, which gave brief stated that the county would be required to pay the difference between the cost of the special system and the system which would ordinarily be in the cost of what was estimated at 22 cents per foot frontage along Market street. The system proposed to be installed will consist either of five light Tungsten cluster standards or an inverted type Magnitite are standard. Several of the Councilmen wished to secure further information.

An engineer from the Hydro system was summoned upon a motion being made by Councillor Davison and seconded by Councillor McCann. After receiving some enlightenment and discussing the matter it was referred to the committee on the Buildings and Grounds, committee with power to act without again referring the matter back to the Council.

An account was passed and the Council adjourned.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scrappy just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair and is the best thing known to remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody chooses "Weyth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw this through the hair taking one small strand at a time which requires but a few moments. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair has disappeared and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and persglossy, lustreous and abundant. It certainly helps folks look years younger and twice as attractive, says a well-known downtown druggist.
