It is dreadful to contemplate what may happen."

If any "representative citizen" fever develops in Dawson it is hoped the committee appointed to arrange for the visit of the ministerial party will promptly check it.

The state board of pardons of Minnesota, acting under a law passed for this especial purpose at the last session of the legislature, has issued paroles to the notorious Younger brothers. There is no accounting for tastes; only, if the people of Minnesota want to set be some way of preventing them from leaving the state. Let them live with to get the Youngers out of the penitentiary had been devoted to putting other malefactors in, Minnesota's criminal record today would be unmatched in the Union .- P. I.
