Great Bargains in all Summer Lines, to close.

THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., AUG. 16, 1895.

Local and Provincial.

The gasoline launch made a trip to Windsor this week, going Monday evening and returning on Tuesday morning.

The excursion to Parrsboro on Saturday promises to be a pleasant affair and will no doubt be well patronized.

Mr. J. M. Shaw has purchased a lot on Ken street and this week is getting a cellar excavated preparatory to the erection of a residence for himself.

Mr. F. J. Porter brought into our office on Wednesday a cannon-ball which was recently plowed up on the farm of Mr. Daniel Miner, at Gasperon.

There have been a large number of tourists visiting at Grand Pre this summer. This is of course one of the chief points of interest for visitors and a good many of them prefer to make their headquarters there.

Rev. D. J. Fraser has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Presbyterian congregation of Wolfville and Lower Horton, to take effect at the close of the present year, Sept. 20th, in order to study for a time abroad.

The street authorities are having a quantity of gravel brought from the Greenwich gravel pit for the streets. This material has been found to make a good road where it has been used and it is hoped that our streets will be much improved by its application.

The late Congregational Union of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, which recently met at Antigonish, is a small body, can claim antiquity. One of the ministers of this body, Rev. Jacob Whitman, now upwards of eighty years of age, is still preaching.

The last meeting of the W. C. T. U. was the third of the regular series of modern meetings. Mrs. Witter who is, soon, greatly to the regret of all, to leave us, presided. Suitable addresses were given, personal enquiries in the training of children were related, and earnest prayers offered.

Miss Basin was visited last Saturday by the handsome New York yacht competitor. Her owner, Mr. Frank S. Vanderbilt, and party, left the yacht at Digby and came up the Valley by rail, visiting the "Look Off" and other points of interest, and were taken on board at Kingsport.

Public meeting of the citizens of Parrsboro, held on Saturday, at a proposal to apply to the Legislature of the province for an act to prohibit the sale of liquor.

Personal Mention

Contributions to this department will be gladly received. Rev. Mr. Grant, pastor of the First Baptist church, Montreal, was in town this week.

Miss Cassie Bell, of Hilltown, is visiting in Wolfville, at the residence of J. W. Bigelow, Esq.

Messrs Harold Gilmore and J. S. Hales are spending their vacation at Wilmot, Annapolis county.

Rev. Dr. Gilbert, of Southport, Conn., who has been spending the past week in Wolfville, left on Wednesday last for Halifax.

Conductor A. G. Herbert is now in charge of an accommodation train between Digby and Annapolis which is proving a great convenience.

Mr Peter Murphy is home from Pensacola, Florida, visiting old friends. Mr Murphy has been absent sixteen years, and has prospered in the home of his adoption. He now has the position of captain on the police force of the city of Pensacola.

Mr and Mrs John E. Palmer, of Milton, Mass., have been spending the past week in this vicinity, visiting old friends. Although Mr. Palmer is prospering in the home of his adoption, he has not forgotten his native land, and contemplates returning here ere long to reside.

Mr and Mrs H. P. Barton, who have resided in Wolfville for the past few years, left on Wednesday for their old home in Halifax. During their residence here they have made many friends, and regret very much their departure from our town.

Mr L. J. Webster, of the Lunenburg agency of the People's Bank, arrived in Wolfville on Wednesday last. He will relieve Mr Baker, who leaves to-day to enjoy a two weeks' vacation at his home in Woodstock, N. B. We are informed that Mr Webster has begun an action against the town of Lunenburg to recover damages on account of injuries sustained a few days since while riding his bicycle on the streets of that town.

Mr G. W. Cox arrived in Wolfville yesterday morning on a short visit. He completed his course at Harvard last spring and has been spending a vacation in Colchester county. Mr Cox is now on his way to New Hampshire, where he has been appointed to the principalship of McCollom's Institute, at Mount Vernon. This institution, which was founded by the liberality of a New York millionaire, is a collegiate school, carrying on high scholastic work in preparing students for entering the universities.
