

Had Headache For Two Years

A Barrie Man Tells of Persistent Headaches and Indigestion—Finally Found His Way to Good Health.

For two long years the writer of the letter was subject to severe headaches. The nervous system got run down, digestion failed, and there was continued loss of weight. The use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food changed all this, and now with scores of other Barrie people Mr. Nader is recommending the use of this food as the best means of building up the exhausted nervous system and curing headaches, indigestion and all the annoying symptoms of a run-down condition.

Mr. John Nader, 38 Penetang street, Barrie, Ont., writes: "During the last two years I had an attack of indigestion, accompanied by severe headaches. I suffered from loss of appetite and my system became run down. I also lost considerably in weight. I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and as they helped me I continued this treatment for some time. My condition is now greatly improved, my headaches are gone and my health in general is much better. I can cheerfully recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to those suffering from nervousness of any kind."

The reason Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is so effective in cases of this kind is because of its extraordinary blood-forming influence. By creating an abundance of rich, red blood it strengthens the action of the heart, revitalizes the exhausted nerves and builds up the system in every way. The appetite is restored, digestion improves, you rest and sleep well, and the new vigor and energy is felt in every organ of the human body. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is doing wonders for men, women and children whose systems have become weak and run down. It costs a box 6 boxes for $1.00. SOLDIERS GIVEN LEAVE

Soldiers in camp throughout this province are to be given leave to assist in harvesting under certain conditions. Officials of the provincial government have received notification from Ottawa to the effect that soldiers in camp may be given a leave of absence of sufficient extent to make it possible for them to assist in harvest operations, but, however, only on the recommendation of their company commanding officer.

The stipulation that the leave may only be granted on the recommendation of the company commanding officer is not viewed with any great account of enthusiasm by those interested in seeing the crop harvested in good order in this province this season. The opinion is expressed that the order for leave should be made general provided the soldier can establish to the satisfaction of his commanding officer the bona fides of his desire to assist in harvesting activities within his native province.

Government authorities point out that there is at present a great shortage of harvest hands not only throughout New Brunswick but all over Canada. The harvest trains for western Canada are expected to take a great many young men who would otherwise be employed on the farms in harvesting in this province and that as the time draws near for harvest hands it will be found increasingly difficult to secure sufficient farm labor to handle the harvesting demands.

In view of this fact it is felt that a two or three weeks or even a month's absence from training activities would not retard the growth of the soldier civilian into a fit soldier and at the same time be of inestimable worth to the farmers of the province in getting their crops garnered in a reasonable length of time.

It is said that at Camp Sussex a great many of the men have already expressed their desire for leave in order to work on the harvest and it is pointed out that at the present time a larger number of farmer's sons in camp than in any previous year, indicating that the drain of labor from the farms due to the Military Service Act has been of considerable proportions.

It is understood that an effort will be made to secure the consent of the military authorities at Ottawa to grant a general leave of absence to all men who desire to assist in the harvest operations, the consent of their company commanding officer notwithstanding, provided of course that each individual establishes the fact that his desire to work on the harvest is genuine.

Card of Thanks

This is to thank my friends and neighbors for their kindness to me for having installed at my bed side a desk telephone on the Farmer's line, also for the nice gift of money, for which I am very thankful to you and to my Lord and Saviour. I am sure Our God will reward you, although you are more blessed than I am—Jesus said it is more blessed to give than to receive. But I know I am greatly blest in receiving.

I am ever your servant in righteousness.

JUST LIKE A MAN.

He May See the Advantages of a Bad Bargain, but Not Like a Woman.

"Well," said Mrs. Caperton expectantly as her husband entered the room, "how did it look to you?"

"Bully!" cried Caperton enthusiastically. "It's just the place to spend the summer. You'll like it immensely. I know you will. I've engaged accommodations for August with an option on September."

"Is it a nice boarding house?" asked his wife.

"Oh, also enough," answered Caperton. "The rooms are dainty, little things, the windows are small, and the ceilings are low, but—"

"Well, of all things! And you engaged accommodations in such a place?"

"Listen, dearie, I'm not through yet. As I just said, the rooms are small and all that and I'm told the grub isn't so very good—mostly canned stuff, you know—and they don't keep many sorts, as the milk supply is not particularly plentiful when there's a crowd there, but—"

"Are you losing your mind, Jim Caperton?"

"Wait a bit, dearie. Don't be hasty! I'm not through yet. The rooms are small, and the food is not absolutely 'A No. 1' and they're sort of shy on milk, and it's a good way to the town, and there are not many nice walks, and there's no water near except the well, but those are just minor considerations."

"Just m!"

"Precisely. Here's the main thing. They've got the finest bathroom and floor I ever saw in my life anywhere, and there's dancing every night and free lessons in all the new steps every morning. From—just think of that! They keep a fellow there all season just to teach 'em!"

"You big dummy," blurted Mrs. Caperton—"yes, dummy. You know how a place like that fills up. Why didn't you reserve accommodations for July as well as August? Can't you get them on the long distance phone?"—Freck.

Valuable Misinformation.

In the large dining room of the Hotel Marlborough hangs a large equestrian painting representing General Robert B. Lee. It is the mascot of the Hungry Club, which has its dinners at monthly intervals at this hotel and was painted by a member of the club.

Recently a lady on the west side gave a bridge party at the hotel in aid of her pet charity. Among the players was a modern Mrs. Malaprop, a typical "cellar" with considerably less education than cash. Consequently she was never backward with misinformation on most any subject that came up. During a cessation in the play one of the ladies expressed admiration of the picture and a desire to know whom it represented.

"It was Mrs. Malaprop's opportunity. 'That, my dear,' she solemnly explained, 'is General Marlborough, a noted Frenchman, for whom the hotel is named.'—New York Times.

The Way to Unlock.

The red haired office boy was whistling a lute popular air, but he didn't carry the tune very well.

"You will break into song occasionally, will you?" remarked his employer.

"Sometimes," answered the auburn haired youth.

"If you'd get the key you wouldn't need to break in," retorted the boss.—National Monthly.

Sheer Brutality.

"This reminds me of some of the pie I had in my happy childhood days," said the man without a heart.

"The kind your mother used to make?"

"No. The kind we children would make out of mud."—Washington Star.

Tired Eyes.

When the eyes are tired and dimmed use either an eye lotion bath or one made of water to which a little boric powder has been added. Keep the eyes open in the water. This both strengthens and brightens them. Kholing the brows when reading or working is a habit certain to produce disfiguring lines on the face.

His Cruel Critic.

"I shall now give out the effect of distance," he said to her, and he sang so low as to be scarcely heard.

"A little further, please," she said crossly, and he picked up his voice and went away with it into the chilly night.

Commissioned Officers.

An officer never "enlists." He is commissioned by the president of the United States. Only private soldiers, including corporals and sergeants, can "enlist."

[L.S.] CANADA

PROCLAMATION

GEORGE the FIFTH, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, KING, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come or whom the same may in any wise concern, GREETING:

A Proclamation of conditional amnesty respecting men belonging to Class I under the Military Service Act, 1917, who have disobeyed our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, or their orders to report for duty, or are deserters or absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

E. L. NEWCOMBE, Deputy Minister of Justice, Canada. WHEREAS considerable numbers of men belonging to Class I under our Military Service Act, 1917, called out on active service in our Canadian Expeditionary Force for the defence of Canada under our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, although they have thus become by law soldiers enlisted in the Military Service of Canada,

Have failed to report for duty as lawfully required of them under the said Military Service Act and the regulations thereunder, including the Order in Council duly passed on April 20 last,

Or have deserted.

Or absented themselves without leave from our Canadian Expeditionary Force,

And it is represented that the very serious and unfortunate situation in which these men find themselves is due in many cases to the fact that, notwithstanding the information and warning contained in our Proclamation aforesaid, they have misunderstood their duty or obligation, or have been misled by the advice of ill-disposed, disloyal or seditious persons.

AND WHEREAS we desire, if possible, to avoid the infliction of the heavy penalties which the law imposes for the offences of which these soldiers have thus been guilty, and to afford them an opportunity within a limited time to report and make their services available in our Canadian Expeditionary Force as is by law their bounden duty, and as is necessary for the defence of Our Dominion of Canada.

NOW KNOW YE that we in the exercise of Our powers, and of Our good will and pleasure in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare and cause to be published and made known THAT THE PENALTIES OF THE LAW WILL NOT BE IMPOSED OR EXACTED as against the men who belong to Class I under Our Military Service Act, 1917, and who have disobeyed Our Proclamation aforesaid; or who have received notice from any of Our registrars or deputy registrars to report for duty on a day now past and have failed so to report; or who, having reported and obtained leave of absence, have failed to report at the expiry of their leave, or have become deserters from Our Expeditionary Force, PROVIDED THEY REPORT FOR DUTY ON OR BEFORE THE TWENTY FOURTH DAY OF AUGUST 1918.

AND WE DO HEREBY STRICTLY WARN AND SOLEMNLY IMPRESS UPON ALL SUCH MEN, and as well those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist them in their disobedience, that, if they persist in their failure to report, absence or desertion until the expiry of the last mentioned day, they will be pursued and punished with all the rigour and severity of the law. SUBJECT TO THE JUDGMENT OF OUR COURTS MARTIAL WHICH WILL BE CONVENED TO TRY SUCH CASES or other competent tribunals, and also that those who employ, harbour, conceal or assist such men will be held strictly accountable as offenders and subject to the pains, penalties and forfeitures in that behalf by law provided for their said offence.

Provided however that nothing contained in this Our Proclamation is intended to release the men aforesaid from their obligation to report for duty as soon as possible or to grant them immunity from arrest or detention in the meantime for the purpose of compelling them to perform their military duty; Our intention being merely to forego or remit the penalties heretofore incurred for failure to report, absence without leave or desertion incurred by those men of the description aforesaid who shall be in the proper discharge of their military duties on or before the said twenty-fourth day of August, 1918.

Of all of which Our loving subjects and all others whom these presents may concern are hereby required to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

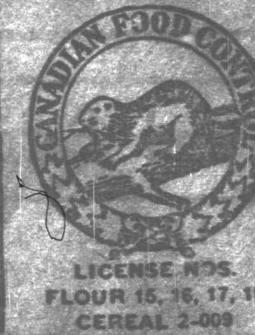

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent, and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed. Witness: Our Right Trusty and Right Entirely Beloved Cousin and Counsellor, Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, Marquess of Hartington, Earl of Devonshire, Earl of Burlington, Baron Cavendish of Hardwicke, Baron Cavendish of Keighley, Knight of Our Most Noble Order of the Garter; One of Our Most Honourable Privy Council; Knight Grand Cross of Our Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George; Knight Grand Cross of Our Royal Victorian Order; Governor General and Commander-in-Chief of Our Dominion of Canada.

At Our Government House, in Our City of OTTAWA, this FIRST day of AUGUST, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the ninth year of Our Reign.

By Command,

Thomas Mackenzie
Under-Secretary of State.
