SUNDAY EXCURSIONS.

Now that the thing has been startweather. There are very many per-sons who would hail with pleasure the introduction of these excursions which with a good organ and choir the affair would be very attractive. Great numcourse this would involve for a time the closing of the Sunday schools and the suspension of the usual Sanday evening service in the Churches; this however would be counterbalanced by the greater good accomplished in the direction. No doubt a few would object, but these are not the days of the Puritans and Covenanters, the times have changed and we must clesiastical body who are very strict in regard to the observance of the Sabbath, and who protested to the Government against a former desecra-

Shippegan, July 6th, 1878. To the Editors of the Advocate.

Sirs .- The Freeman has been condemning the "Sackville Borderer" for raising the religious cry and speaks of intolerance, fanaticism &c., which it condemns. I agree with the Free-man and think the persons who raised the cry deserved the defeat which received. I would like to ask the Editor of the Freeman a question. In the late local election was it right

Batoum a free port. Beaconsfield aunounced that England could not but be satisfied with the Czar's reassuring resolve. Salisbury warmly advocated the claims of the Lazis to be protected from annexation, and private negotiations are proceeding on the subject. Russia objected to having warlike independent people in the immediate neighborhood of her-new possessions. There are also some slight difficulties in regard to the dismantlement of the tortifications, the Russians claiming that some of them are natural features of the ground.

Diocesan Synod.

The annual meeting of the Diocesan Synod of Fredericton was convened at St. John on Wednesday last, the Rev. G. M. Armstrong in the chair. There was a large attendance. After the roll had been called, a letter was read from His Lordship Bishop Medley (now in England). This letter referred, among other things, to the establishment of a Theological School.
