The Henley correspondent of the Sportsman declares that Scholes, of Toronto, is faster than when he rowed Titus, and will beat Kelty, who is not rewing as well as last year. Be thinks the Canadian is not the best trainer. He says the Winnipeggers, if they meet Third Trinity, will never see the finish of their opponents. Scholes' afternoon practice was only a light pull over the course. The wind was too strong for a trial. The Winnipeggs also had easy work. Since the previous cable, many) opinions have been expressed very favorable to the Winnipeggers. Tom Sullivan is of the opinion that they have good chances. The Winnipeggers have just received a wire from Lord Strathcons saying he had just heard of the unfortunate accident to their boat, and would feel obliged for a wire as to the extent of the damage. San Francisco, June 30.—(Special).—Jim Jeffries' bad knee is improving. He was able to walk without being carried yester flay, and thly morning his trainer allowed him to brush his own teeth. Up to this time he had been sending them to the laundry. He did not seem to mind the exertion and gave 27 saucy dabs with the brush without feeling at least exhausted. He has been put on a silet.
