

LOVE UNFOLD.

My joy, yet grief—my rose, and yet my thorn; My soul's sweet day, and yet my spirit's night;

I dream of thee, yet lose thee in my dreams, And waking ask of fate if this must be;

There is a constant fever in my breast, A something hoped, which dies when hope is given;

A KANSAS paper gets off the following:—Men of Mark.—Men in the Kansas Legislature who can neither read nor write.

A FRIEND, just returned from abroad, says he once found two Austrian Customs officers endeavouring to make out his name from his travelling trunk.

A good woman in one of the institutions of the country—an angel in dry goods and glory—She makes sunshine and happiness, wherever she goes.

POETICAL.—An American editor out west thus announces an increase in his olive branches:—Sound the stagehorn—blow the trumpet,

Seize your pen, oh dreaming poet! And in numbers smooth as may be, Spread afar the joyful tidings!

"My dear," said a husband to his affectionate better half, after a matrimonial squabble, "you will never be permitted to go to Heaven."

"Massa! massa!" exclaimed a slave, on the appearance of snow at New Orleans, in the winter of 1851.

A Chamberlain paper contains an advertisement of bonnets and petticoats for young men's wear, to correspond with the shawls, now so universally worn.

A new stove has been invented for the comfort of travellers. It is put under the feet, and a mustard plaster upon the head, which draws the whole system!

A Frenchman being hard up for a dinner, stole a pig. He was caught in the act, taken before a magistrate and called upon for his defence and thus delivered himself.—"Oh, mon Dieu! I steal a pig! No, sir, I never! Aha! you shall see! I tell you pig, will he go wiz me! He says 'Out out!' and zen I take him. Is zat vot you eat, atal da pig, ven he go vis his own consent?"

A YANKEE IN LOVE.—"Oh dear, what nonsense people talk about love, don't they? Sleepless nights—broken dreams—beating hearts—pale faces—a pinin' away to shadows—fits of abscence—loss of appetite—nervous flutterings, and all that. I haven't got the symptoms, but I'll swear to the disease. Folks take this talk, I guess, from poets; and they are miserable, mooney sort of critters, half mad; and whole lazy, who would rather take a day's dream than a day's work at any time, and catch rimes as niggens catch flies, to pass time—beats and darts, supid and stupid, purlin' streams pulin' dreams, and so on. It's all humkum! Spooney looks and spooney words may do for schoolboys and seminary gals; but for a man like me, and an angeliferous critter like Sophy, love must be like elasticity, as eye for eye, and heart for heart, telegraphed backward and forward like 'iled ghtmin'—Sam Slick.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF ASTHMA!! OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY FIVE YEARS OF AGE. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thomas Weston, (Book Store,) Toronto, dated the 9th October, 1854.

To Professor Holloway, Sir,—Gratitude compels me to make known to you the extraordinary benefit an aged parent has derived from the use of your Pills. My mother was afflicted for upwards of four and twenty years with asthma and spitting of blood; it was quite agony to see her suffer and hear her cough; I have often declared, that I would give all I possessed to have her cured; but although I paid a large sum for medicine and advice, it was all to no purpose.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DROPSY. AFTER BEING TAPPED THREE TIMES.

Copy of a Letter from Anthony Smith, Esq. Halifax, Nova Scotia, dated the 25th August, 1854.

To Professor Holloway, Sir,—I desire to add my testimony to the value of your Pills, in cases of dropsy. For nine months I suffered the greatest torture with this distressing complaint; was tapped three times, and finally given up by the doctors; having become in appearance as a skeleton, and with no more strength in me than a child just born. It was then, that I thought of trying your Pills, and immediately sent for a quantity, and commenced using them. The result I can scarcely credit even now, although true it is. After using them for four weeks, I felt much better, and by persevering with them, at the expiration of two months, I was completely cured. I have since enjoyed the best of health.

ASTONISHING CURE OF GENERAL DEBILITY AND LIVER COMPLAINT!! Copy of a Letter from William Rees, of Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, dated 17th Nov. 1854.

To Professor Holloway, Sir,—I am happy to say, that your Pills have restored me to health after suffering for nine years from the most intense general debility and languor, my liver and bowels were also much deranged for the whole of that time. I tried many medicines, but they were of no good to me, until I had recourse to your Pills, by taking which, and following the printed directions for seven weeks I was cured, after every other means failed to the astonishment of my neighbours, acquaintances, and friends. I shall ever feel grateful to you for this astonishing restoration to health, and will recommend your Pills to all sufferers, feeling it my duty to do so.

(Signed) WILLIAM REEVES.
