is out of the country. We know from the Government Act that it would have cost the Dominion just $300,000 and one million more. The Government has not yet decided whether it will be paid for by the Dominion or by the provinces. It is a question of some importance, and one which has been discussed in the House of Commons.

THE WEEKLY MAIL.
It is very gratifying to see it announced that the financial committee of the House of Commons has decided to inquire into the 27th Article of the Treaty of Washington, which substantially contained the condition that the United States should not be allowed to have a right of navigation in the St. Lawrence River.

NAVIGATION OF THE AMERICAN CANALS.

OFFICERS IN DANGER.
The story was told of a grumbling British sailor, who when his ship was about to be sent to sea, expressed his indignation at the Government of the day.

WESTERN REPRESENTATION IN THE CANALS.
Among the critics in the West is a disaffected, and is speaking out on a subject which is of absorbing interest to the people of the West.

DEATH OF COL. GUY.
An article which, though not stated or signed, is a very interesting one, and is a very interesting one, and is a very interesting one.

DEATH OF JUDGE DUGAN.
After a long and painful illness, resulting from a stroke of the brain, which occurred on the 10th inst., he died at his residence, 140 Bowerly street, at a quarter of twelve on the 11th inst.
