What are earthly Kings to Thee!
Things of nothing, if we measure
Man by God's Immensity.

Leo! Father! Pontiff King!!
Amid the natiou's glee,
We too, thy English children sing
A hymn of thanks to thee.

Leo! Thus we sing to thee,
From Britain's happy Christian Land;
A Pope it was when we were pagans,
Ranked us with the Christian band.
Has any King or Queen of England,
Conferred a blessing like to this?
Row many a king has brought us sorrow
Could one bestow life's greatest bliss?

Leo! Father! Pontiff King!!
Amid the nation's glee.
We too, thy English children, sing
A hymn of thanks to thee.
