Beauty of the Skin

BECAUSE they clog the pores of the skin and prevent the healthful action of these minute organs of excretion, powders when used continually injure the skin and give rise to pimples and skin eruptions.

There is no beautifier of the skin to compare to Dr. Chase's Ointment as a means of curing all sorts of skin eruptions, and leaving the skin in its natural soft, smooth condition.

Apply the ointment at night after bathing in warm water and you will be surprised at the improvement which will be made by a few applications.

PLAGIARISED AND OTHERWISE.

CHAMPIONSHIP (I) TO-MORROW.

The result of the to-morrow night's game will be a most potent factor in deciding the Championship. Should B. I. S. win then they are virtually champions, while should victory go to the Red Lions it will doubtless mean a play off. Both teams before will make strenuous endeavours to win, and the strongest possibilities will be on the diamond.

LEADING RUN GETTERS.

Time is now getting short, and runners must hustle to be able to down Mr. Geo. Kearney's prizes which are offered for:
1. The first homerun.
2. The best batting average.
3. The player getting the most runs.
4. And the selection of the best dozen ties in his store to the championship team.

Sue Heath is leading in the race for prize 2, a silk shirt; but the homerun artist has yet to be discovered. Leading the League in runs are:

W. Cooney	7	runs
C. Quick	6	"
F. Brien	6	"
S. Jenkins	5	"
P. Dobbin	5	"
P. Grace	5	"

Both the Red Lions and B. I. S. have two more games each to play so that their players have a chance to oust Brien and Dobbin of the Wanderers who are close runners up.

THE DUGGAN MIXUP.

This is the title by which Duggan's now historic play when his bat accidentally hit the ball, is now known. Many heated arguments have taken place since whether it was a legally batted ball or not. The discussion has developed so much that Empire Chessman and Manager Hartnett have jointly wired to the National Commission at New York asking for their decision. A reply was received to-day that the play requires some consideration, but that a conference with Umpires Klem and Byron would be held, and their ruling wired. The full correspondence will be published in this column, probably to-morrow. The loser of the wager between Messrs. Hartnett and Chessman is to pay the cost of all the wires.

SPEAKING OF EMPIRES.

Before howling out the umpire just keenly would you relish his job? Remember that for four years Mr. Chessman has been behind the plate, under all weather and conditions, without one leave of absence. He has calmly and dispassionately withstood at all times the not altogether too complimentary eloquence of the players, and the harsh and mordant criticism of the fans. During his tenure of office he has only one decision reversed on him, which is a record to be proud of when the complicated-rules of the game are taken into consideration. Yet, in view of all this, we doubt it after each game any of the managers have the graciousness or goodness of heart to thank him for his services. Personally, as a player, we do not always see eye to eye with his decisions, but when he does make a pronouncement we believe it to be sincere and to the best of his knowledge and judgment. We hate flattery, but this is different; this is a boast, and a more deserved one was never before published, and away down in his heart every player and fan feels that one of the things that has made the game a success in Newfoundland is the umpiring as handed out by the "Chief"—Mr. Chessman.

TO PUNNY.

A "Wanderer" sends us the following in appreciation of Mr. Harold Brown.
Gone is the crown that adorned your head,
And the hurling skill that the bleachers knew.
The glamour and glitter of fame has sped,
Your day is done and your arm is through.
Your zipping spitter has petered out
With the winning spark from your once great wing.
And the speed that throated the festive clout
Is a faded dream and a by-gone thing.

Gone is your spitter of yesteryear,
And the stuff that silenced the war club's boom;
But they'll tote your name
In the Hall of Fame
As the THREE YEAR KINK, 'till the day of doom.

THE LINEUPS.

The lineups of both the B. I. S. and Red Lions will appear in to-morrow's papers. Either Charley Quick or Archie Gowans will pitch for the latter, while Dan Kielly (one of last year's Grand Falls team) will likely appear in the outfield. Carew will be on the mound for the McGrath crew.

EMMA GOLDMAN.

All day long fair Emma sits in her little white-washed cell; for a time she'll throw no fits, urging hoboes to rebel. For a time she'll boost no cause, and she will denounce no foes; and her gutta percha jaws will enjoy an earned repose. In the rainy days of peace she went shrieking o'er the plain, saying government should cease and that anarchy should reign. When the dove of peace is near, floating in its downy wings, we don't care what rot we hear, and we grin at Emma's flings. When the sword is in its sheath, and we are not called to fight, foolish freaks may grind their teeth, cursing everything in sight. All the cranks may whoop and rant, with their whiskers wet with foam, may for wreck and ruin pant, till the brindled cows come home. When the sounds of war arise, and the tide of battle rolls, all the cranks, if they were wise, would proceed to hunt their holes. In a time of blood and fire, when the youth to battle fares, all the wind-smiths should retire to their divers moulty lairs. Emma thought she'd rant and yell just as in the times of peace; in her little whitewashed cell she is using elbow grease.

Oliver's Barn Destroyed by Fire.

On Saturday afternoon a fire broke out in the barn owned by Mr. Peter Oliver, on the Thorburn Road, and in very quick time destroyed the building. Mr. Oliver and assistants who were working in the field nearby rushed to the scene, where they were joined by several of the neighbours and with water obtained from a well prevented the flames from catching fire to his dwelling. The fire is supposed to have originated from the spar of a neighbouring chimney which lodged in a ton of new hay that quite recently was stored in the building. All the contents, including farming implements, two sets of harness and about thirty hens, were consumed by the blaze. Mr. Oliver in an attempt to save his carriage got his hand badly burnt.

We understand the building was partly insured.

Death of Soldiers Wife.

Leaves Five Young Children Virtually Orphans.

At the General Hospital yesterday after a brief illness there passed peacefully away Mrs. Ed. Monahan, wife of Private Monahan, of the First Nfld. Regiment now on active service in France. Deceased entered the institution about ten days ago for surgical and medical treatment but despite the best efforts of doctors and nurses she succumbed to her illness, leaving to mourn five little children, the oldest ten years and the youngest three weeks old. The case under ordinary circumstances would be indeed sad, but with the father of the helpless little ones risking his life on the blood-stained fields of France and Flanders the sympathy of the whole country will go out to the bereaved father and children in their great sorrow. The remains of the late Mrs. Monahan were removed to the residence of her sister, Mrs. P. Kennedy, 56 Carter's Hill, from where the funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

Bay Bulls Garden Party

The annual garden party held at Bay Bulls yesterday surprised all previous successes. The weather was all that could be desired and the attendance was a record one, the visitors being received by Rex, Fr. O'Brien. Hundreds of people from the city attended the affair, going out by special trains.

TO AID THE KHAKI CLUB.—The members of the Holiday Club are holding a Sale and Garden Party in aid of the Khaki Club, on Thursday, at Summerlee, the residence of Mrs. J. Syme, Waterford Bridge Road. The affair promises to be an enjoyable one and considering the object should be well attended.

Shore and Bank Fishery on the South-West Coast

THE BEST IN HISTORY — SALT SCARCITY.

From parties who arrived from the S. W. Coast by the S. S. Portia this morning we learn that the codfishery in that centre is a remarkable success; in fact to use Captain Joe Kean's own words, "It's the best in the history of the coast." Thus far there is more than twice as much fish ashore as there was up to the end of the autumn season last year, but a regrettable feature is the scarcity of salt. Owing to the absence of a sufficient supply of this very essential article in a couple of places several hundred quintals of fish have been spoiled.

The Bank fishery also promises to be an unparalleled success, principally attributed to the fact that the bankers are fortunately securing plenty of squid on the grounds, thereby avoiding the undue delays which they previously experienced in looking for bait. At Burin, Grand Bank, St. Jacques, Belleoram, Hr. Breton and other well known banking centres vessels are arriving daily from the Grand Banks with big fares. Amongst the high-liners are Capt. Thornhill and Chuet, of Burin, each having landed four thousand quintals of cod to date. By finish up time they hope to "clean up" another thousand each.

The Gas Range!

The Gas Range means comfort for the housewife; shorter kitchen hours for her, and a cleaner kitchen. It is a great mistake to think that cooking with gas is expensive.

Whenever a woman becomes used to gas for cooking, thoughts of a coal or wood stove fill her with gloom. A Gas Range is so much easier to operate, so efficient for all kinds of cooking, and so much cleaner, that the idea of going back to the old style methods is decidedly unpleasant. Yet in winter many housewives think they must use a coal or wood stove, because there is no other way of heating the kitchen. THERE IS ANOTHER WAY AND IT IS FAR BETTER THAN THE OLD. MARKET GOOD.—According to a late letter from Oporto to the Board of Trade the demand for fish continues good and the market is responding to its higher prices more being demanded by shippers; the rate of exchange is 32d.

Sadie Wiseman, 14 Dicks' Square, wins 2nd prize of $15.00 for Stafford's Lucky Number Competition, No. 1557. (See advertisement.)—aug 4,17

TO BECOME BIRD MEN.—By yesterday's express Messrs. A. Parsons and J. Diamond, returned and discharged soldiers of the Newfoundland Regiment, left for Toronto where they will take up training as aviators.
