Grave State Of Affairs.

British Parliament Meets To-Morrow--Politicians Oppose French Occupation of Ruhr--Turkish Situation Improving--Germans Use Boycott Against French and Belgians.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S DIFFICULTIES.

LONDON, Feb. 12. Comment on all sides turns on the state of affairs facing the re-assembling Parliament to-morrow--internal affairs like unemployment, but foreign affairs such as East and Ruhr crisis. Attention is focused principally on the difference in policy, as the phrases it in an editorial, "as the French action in the Ruhr is past all concealment." Despatches from French sources in Cologne and Düsseldorf show that the Rhineland Commission is making arrangements to permit the French to enter the Ruhr under its jurisdiction without the Commission's representatives, while similar measures have been adopted in Ruhr. It is said out in Paris that British officials must participate in the work of the Rhineland Commission, because Great Britain is still technically a member of the Rhineland Commission. It may be supposed that this will cause further in the Labor and Lloyd George parties which are already at odds for the withdrawal of the British troops from the Rhineland. The complete severance of Great Britain from any responsibility of French action in the Ruhr is quite certain. It is quite certain that the French will find very difficult its attitude of benevolent neutrality towards France in face of the strong attacks to be brought by the Georges and Georges and the French feeling in the country generally against the French policy (?).

EDISON GETS AFTER U.S. NAVY.

WEST ORANGE, N.J., Feb. 12. Thomas A. Edison described the United States Navy as a "closed corporation," declaring he had offered it forty-five inventions since he was President of the Naval Consulting Board, but every one had been turned down. "The navy officers seem to resent ideas for the betterment of the navy, rather than to welcome them," he said. The occasion was the electrical wizard's annual birthday interview with news writers. He began the interview by his laboratory office by kicking over his head to prove the assertion he was "still young."

WOMEN REBELS ARRESTED.

DUBLIN, Feb. 12. Miss Mary MacSwiney and Mrs.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 12.

Improvement in the situation respecting both Smyrna and the Greek war is reflected in official reports to-night. It is understood the Greek authorities at Smyrna have adopted a more conciliatory tone in their exchanges with the commanders of the foreign warships, while a simultaneous report is reported in Angora's newspapers directly with the Allied forces. Immediate favorable results are expected on Ismet Pasha's arrival.

ARMENIAN MINISTER URGES A CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE.

BUCHAREST, Feb. 12. Ismet Pasha, on the way to Angora for the Lausanne Conference, had Clark, widow of Tom Clark, who was executed in 1916, were arrested together with their mothers in a raid by Free State forces upon the Republic Central Publicity Office here which had just been reopened.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12. To-day, the anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth, was celebrated as a holiday throughout the greater part of the United States.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN SYRACUSE.

SYRACUSE, Feb. 12. One man was killed, several persons are reported missing, and twenty others injured, some probably fatally, in a fire tonight that destroyed the Bastable Building, and caused property loss estimated at more than $750,000.

GOULD'S HUNTING BOX RAIDED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12. Clam Island, George J. Gould's famous private hunting preserve in Barnegat Bay, was raided last night by Prohibition agents, who arrested two men and seized six hundred cases of Scotch whiskey, valued at fifty thousand dollars. The seizure was made on two houseboats, moored at the pier. There are rumors of further arrests of prominent men.

STATE TROOPS DEFEATED.

BUENOS AIRES, Feb. 12. Despatches from Porto Alegre assert that State troops at Rio Grande do Sul were defeated by rebels in a battle at Monohay, with two hundred casualties. There is no estimate of casualties among rebels.

TRUE TO TYPE.

BERLIN, Feb. 12. Two organizations, which comprise all medical societies and associations in Germany, have issued a public appeal to members to refuse to treat French or Belgians until the Ruhr is evacuated.

Injured by a Horse.

ACCIDENT TO MR. JONAS BARTER.

Mr. Jonas Barter, S.P.A. Agent, was conveyed to hospital in the ambulance yesterday evening, suffering from injuries received as a result of being kicked by a stallion. Mr. Barter had been superintending the unloading of some cattle from S.S. Sable I. at Harvey & Co.'s wharf, when in passing by the stallion he was kicked in the stomach and driven with much force against a concrete window sill. At first it was thought that Mr. Barter was killed. He was tenderly picked up and carried to Dr. Fallon's surgery by Cabman Brown. The doctor bandaged up a deep scalp wound and ordered the patient to hospital. The ambulance was called and Mr. G. R. Williams, President of the S.P.A., accompanied him to the institution, where Dr. Fox and the Nurses placed him in Crowdy Ward. Inspector Barter is nearly 70 years old and the shock is a very severe one. No blame can be laid to Mr. Barter who was leading the animal or Mr. John Duff, its owner. Both are deeply grieved over the accident. Late last night Mr. Barter was conscious and resting comfortably. The Inspector is very popular around the city, has always faithfully done his duty, being keenly interested in horses all his life and its rather a sad coincidence that he should be the victim of a horse yesterday. Mr. Barter is known everywhere as the friend of the horse.

Honorarium For Firemen.

C. H. Hutchings, Esq., Inspector General of Constabulary, Dear Sir—Enclosed please find Cheque for One Hundred Dollars, as a small appreciation of the admirable work done by the firemen at our plant yesterday. They were on the job in an incredibly short time after the alarm was rung in, and the damage caused was minimized greatly by the intelligent manner in which they did their work.

Yours truly,

Aged Sixty-Four Now Relieved of Rheumatism.

ALBERTA MAN BECOMES A STANCH FRIEND OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Mr. A. J. Biermann tells how Dodd's Kidney Pills Relieved him from his Trouble.

Munson, Alta., Feb. 12. (Special.)

Mr. Biermann, well-known and highly respected resident here is a firm believer of Dodd's Kidney Pills. "I was troubled with rheumatism for 18 months. I could not lay on my right side. I tried several boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and got relief. After the eighth box my trouble completely disappeared and I have not felt it since. I always keep them in the house. I shall always remain a friend of Dodd's Kidney Pills." Statements like these speak for themselves.

Rheumatism is caused by Uric Acid in the blood. The natural way to treat it is to strengthen the kidneys so that they will do their full work and strain all the uric acid out of the blood.

Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy kidneys.

Ask your neighbors about the Dodd's Remedies.

Mildred Harris Gives Charming Portrayal.

IN LATEST PHOTOPLAY AT THE NICKEL THEATRE.

"Habit" one of the most ambitious photo-plays of the season, has an exceptional appeal to women. Besides having a dramatic love story, the picture presents scenes in the shop of a Fifth Avenue importer and designer. Here models wearing thousands of dollars worth of furs and furbelows of the latest fashion are displayed. They furnish a forecast to the women of the very latest styles. Another feature of "Habit" is a head-on collision between two railroad locomotives. Mildred Harris, Chaplin, in the character of Irene Fletcher, gives a striking lesson of the consequences of habit. William Lawrence, Walter McGrail, Ethel Grey Terry and Emmet C. King support Miss Chaplin. This is one of the finest pictures in which this noted star has appeared, and any who have not seen it should take in this show at the Nickel tonight.

Norma Talmadge will shortly be seen in her greatest starring vehicle, "The Wonderful Thing." Watch the Nickel's advertising space for showing dates of this big First National Attraction.

Snow Knowledge.

Snow is at once a great friend, and an enemy. In the towns a heavy fall of snow does much damage. Roofs, gutters, cornices, and the like, cave in and crash. There is also the great cost of clearing it up.

But in the country snow is a necessity. A snowless winter diminishes to a surprising extent the yield of the next year's crops. This is because snow nourishes the soil with its content of carbonic acid. Plants and seeds, too, which would not survive a spell of hard frost, are quite safe when covered with snow, for there is but one thing that is warmer, and that is wool. It is the air contained in the fallen snow which makes it warm.

Snow is white because it is formed of an infinite number of very minute crystals and prisms, which reflect all the component rays of which white light consists.

OPENING OF THE ST. BON'S RINK.—On Tuesday at 8 p.m. His Excellency, the Governor and His Grace the Archbishop will open the new Rink at St. Bonaventure's. All the friends of the College are most cordially invited to be present on the occasion.—Feb 12, 21

Cows' Milk Made Safe and Convenient

CARNATION MILK comes to you from Canada's dairy sections noted for their rich milk and cream. The milk is carefully selected and tested by Carnation experts. About 60% of the water is removed and nothing added. The milk is then sealed in the container and sterilized. Carnation is just cows' milk in a convenient, safe form. It is absolutely pure. It keeps. It is rich enough to take the place of cream in tea, coffee, etc. By adding a little more than an equal part of water you get "whole" milk. Order several tall (16-oz.) cans—or a case of 48 cans—of this convenient milk from your grocer. Try this recipe and write for the free Carnation Cook Book.

CREAM OF MACARONI SOUP

One teaspoonful salt, 2 tablespoonfuls butter, ¼ cup macaroni broken in ¼-inch pieces, 2 tablespoonfuls flour, 3 cups water, 1 cup Carnation Milk. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water, about twenty minutes, or until soft. Drain and melt butter; add flour; add salt; add milk, and cook five minutes. Combine with macaroni. This recipe serves six people.

THE UNFORTUNATE.

When you sit before your fire, on a stormy winter night, everything you could desire, every luxury in sight, do you ever sadly think of the hungry, homeless gink, who has nothing fit to drink, nothing comforting to bite? You have doughnuts in a crock, you have mince and pumpkin pies, you have liverwurst in stock, bacon at the larder lies; and along the frozen street, trudging on their weary feet, suffering for things to eat, go a hundred famished guys. You've a bed in which to sleep, and it is a stately bed, with its mattress soft and deep, and its blankets striped with red; in the alley grim and dark, or in yonder windswept park, lie the homeless cold and stark, with a frosty sky overhead. And your thoughts in comfort drift to some platitudes threadbare; if they'd only practice thrift, they would not be freezing there; if they'd prudent be, like you, salting down a plunk or two, they would have a bed in which to sleep, and it is a stately bed, with its mattress soft and deep, and its blankets striped with red; in the alley grim and dark, or in yonder windswept park, lie the homeless cold and stark, with a frosty sky overhead. And your thoughts in comfort drift to some platitudes threadbare; if they'd only practice thrift, they would not be freezing there; if they'd prudent be, like you, salting down a plunk or two, they would have a bed in which to sleep, and it is a stately bed, with its mattress soft and deep, and its blankets striped with red; in the alley grim and dark, or in yonder windswept park, lie the homeless cold and stark, with a frosty sky overhead.
