

Wedding Bells

WILCOX-YATES.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Rev. Francis W. O'Brien, pastor of Greenwood Baptist Church, Brooklyn, New York, on Monday, June 8th, when Mr. Gordon B. Yates, a war veteran of the first 500 of the Royal Nfld. Regiment, only son of Mrs. A. E. Yates, Balsam Street, this city, and Miss Elsie Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilcox, Brigus (until recently accountant with Messrs. Ayre & Sons, Ltd.), were made man and wife. The bride looked charming in a dress of honey-colored crepe de chene, trimmed with chintilly lace, with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white and shell pink carnations with baby's breath and fern. She was attended by Mrs. Warwick Penny, who wore white Russian crepe with a corsage bouquet of pink roses, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. W. Penny. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Penny, 466-15th Street, where a host of friends surprised the happy pair on arrival. The numerous presents from home and abroad testified to the esteem in which the happy couple are held. After the honeymoon the bride and groom take up residence in their new home at 47-16th Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. The groom occupies a lucrative position with the Edison Electrical Construction Dept., which position he has held since going to New York about two years ago. The Telegram extends its congratulations to the happy couple.

JOHNSON-FERGUSON.

On June 18th, in the presence of relatives and immediate friends, a quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at "Fernie," the country residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. Johnson, when their eldest daughter, Marjorie, was united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mr. David S. Ferguson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ferguson, Leslie Street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. J. Power, M.A., Pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The bride, groomed in white silk brocade and carrying a bouquet of pink-tinted roses and carnations, entered the drawing room, leaning on the arm of her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Jean Johnston, who wore a dress of sea-blue, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. B. R. Taylor. After the ceremony a luncheon was served and the usual toasts were honored. The party then motored to Waterford Bridge where, amidst showers of confetti and good wishes, the happy couple boarded the express en route to Robinson's, where the honeymoon will be spent. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful presents, all testifying to the esteem in which the happy couple are held. Their many friends join in wishing them many years of happiness.

ALL LIT UP.—Smithville will be all lit up on Wednesday night when Peter O'Mara starts the fireworks, at the C. L. A. Outing, June 22nd.

That Rumored Shortage

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—In view of certain statements published in a local weekly newspaper within the past two weeks, having reference to an alleged shortage of $17,000.00 in the funds of a certain charitable institution, coupled with rumors that have reached me to the effect that the item was supposed to have reference to a shortage in the funds of the Church of England Orphanage, I write to state for the information of the public that the editor of the weekly newspaper has assured me that the article was not intended to refer to the Orphanage. It unfortunately happens to be the case that there is a sum of about $60.00 due by the farmer at the Orphanage in connection with collections made by him at various times and not accounted for, which however, he is repaying. It becomes necessary therefore to acquaint the public with this fact rather than allow the rumor to spread as to the alarming shortage in the article, and attributed by rumor to apply to the C. E. Orphanage funds.

I understand from the editor of the weekly paper in question that the item was put into print entirely through a mistake, and it was held subject to further confirmation, and feel sure you will be mainly enough to state this fact. Mistakes will occur but unwarranted statements of this description do no harm, and particularly when they are made without a specific reference which can be contradicted, and made worse by an insufficient correction.

Thanking you for giving space to this letter.

Yours very truly,
ROBERT B. JOE,
Hon. Treasurer C. E. Orphanage.

SAGONA REPORTS.—A message from Capt. Burgess of S.S. Sagona, has been received by the Railway Commission, which reads as follows:—"Passenger Battle Harbor at 10 a.m. No sign of fog on lower part of Labrador coast. Fog up as far as Grady. A sign of fog on the upper part of the coast."

Grand Master L.O.A. Visits Corner Brook

Hon. F. G. Bradley, L.L.B., Grand Master of the Loyal Orange Association in Nfld., visited the Primary Lodge at Corner Brook last week, and received a very enthusiastic reception. The brethren were present in large numbers and the hall had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The W.M. Bro. Piffeld presided, assisted by his regular staff of officers. After the usual preliminaries at a regular lodge meeting were disposed of, the Grand Master, being introduced, addressed the gathering for more than one hour, dealing with the different questions now before the Orangermen of this country, such as a Field Secretary, and what could be accomplished if the Orangermen desired to have a travelling delegate. He also dealt with Education emphasizing a principle that all Orangermen stand for—one national public school system. The principles and objectives of the Orange order were reiterated by Grand Master Bradley in such fashion as to make the event of his visit something to be remembered. The writer does not attempt to make a full report of his speech but would like to convey a few of the salient points.

"It is the most natural thing in the world that men who believe in common principles, who hold similar Protestant and Patriotic convictions should go forward shouldered to shoulder and hand in hand."

"The Orange Order stands for the maintenance and perpetuation of the highest and best Protestant principles and British Ideals and Institutions."

A fair conception of our aims and objectives may be grasped from the following: "Equal rights to all special privileges to none."

"Private Judgment"—"Individualism"

"Absolute Separation of Church and State"—"The Open Bible"—"National Public and Non-Sectarian System of Education"—"One Flag"—"One Language"—"Loyalty to the King"—"A United Empire."

Grand Master Bradley has held his office for the past two consecutive years, and issued an invitation to as many of the brethren who could make it convenient to attend the next Grand Session which will open at Bonaville about the eighteenth July next. It is expected that this Grand convention will be one of the most interesting in the history of the Grand Orange.

THE WOMEN'S VOTE.—All the fair sex who are going to attend the C.L.A. Outing at Smithville, on Wednesday, will vote it the best time they have ever had.—June 22nd.

Paint and Clean Up

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir.—The suggestion that a "Paint and Clean Up" week should be held, which was made by your contributor, "Forward Newfoundland" in Saturday's issue of your paper, is one which ought to meet with general approval.

A casual tour about St. John's today would be sufficient to induce the belief that our people have no pride of citizenship.

There is no doubt that the city is poorly laid out, and that eventually, many sections of it will have to be torn down and rebuilt if the town is to be cleaned and beautified. For the present, however, we must make the best of what we have, and the very least that can be done to make St. John's presentable is for each and every citizen to give his house a coat of paint. The question of cleanliness is one that is even more easily dealt with. In no other city in the world would the authorities permit scraps of paper, fruit skins, and other rubbish to be thrown on the streets as is done here with impunity. One would like to put this down more to carelessness than to lack of civic pride, but whatever the cause, St. John's is undoubtedly a very dirty city and the heedlessness of its citizens does away with most of the benefits which we derive from our healthy situation. By all means let us have a paint and clean up week, and as part of the campaign during that week, may I suggest a series of lectures on Citizenship, and a thorough cleansing of our city streets.

Yours faithfully,
CITIZEN.

St. John's, June 22, 1925.

GOOD VALUE.—An afternoon's sport in the open air, a splendid supper and then a jolly dance in the evening. All these at C. L. A. Outing, Smithville, Wednesday. Everybody welcome.—June 22nd.

Railway Party Returns

Mr. H. J. Russell, Engineer Joyce and Freight Agent B. W. Taylor of the Newfoundland Government Railway, returned to the city Saturday night after a tour of inspection along the Bay de Verde branch railway. This part of the line was found in very good condition, and does not require any ballasting this year.

Sun-Proof Paint bought from Gear's will last for many years. June 22nd.

Adventist Church

It is quite evident from Elder Massey's sermon last night, on the subject "Justification by Faith," that he has no sympathy whatever with the Modernist Movement, but that he, with every other Seventh-day Adventist, stands for the old time doctrine of the fall of man, and justification by faith in the atoning blood of Christ.

Mr. Manuel said in part: "The Bible plainly teaches that man was created upright, but was given the power to obey or disobey. He yielded to the tempter and fell into sin. Sin is the transgression of law—of God's law—See 1 John 3: 4 (and all have sinned and come short of the glory of God). Since the fall of man there has been nothing that he might do to regain that position which he once held. In other words there is nothing he can do to save himself. None of his own good works can atone for his sins. 'Not of works lest any man should boast,' is the plain Bible statement."

"Sin is punished with death. The broken law demands the life of the transgressor, but 'when we were yet without strength, in due time, Christ died for the ungodly.' Christ not only died for us, but He offers us His life. His righteous life—and if we will be faithful accept Him—accept His righteousness—God can be just and yet justify us."

"The moment the sinner accepts Jesus as his Saviour, Christ's life covers his life of sin, the best robe is brought forth and put upon him, and that moment and as long as he remains clothed with the garments of Christ's righteousness, God looks upon him just as though he had never sinned. All this is done freely. 'Being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, Whom God hath sent forth to be a propitiation through faith in His blood, to declare His righteousness for the remission of sins past, through the forbearance of God, to declare, I say, His righteousness that He might be just and the justifier of him who believeth in Jesus.'"

"The man who has accepted Christ in His fullness will work the works of righteousness. He will delight to do God's Will—not his own will. This is simply the fruit of righteousness, which springs from the heart of him who is willing to do anything for Christ. Who has done for him that which he could not possibly do for himself."

At the close of the service, three men witnessed to their faith in Christ, by being buried with Him by Baptism and rising to walk with Him in newness of life.

Ordained at All Hallows

At All Hallows College, Dublin, June 21st, amongst the young men from different parts of the globe who were ordained to the Priesthood of the Roman Catholic Church, was Mr. John J. Power, of St. John's, Nfld., son of Mr. M. Power, of James Baird, Ltd. Father Power received his early education at St. Bon's College, and continued his studies at the Benedictine College, Oregon, subsequently going to Holy Heart College, Halifax. During the past four years he has been training for his priestly mission at All Hallows, in Dublin, and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his Ordination. At present Father Power is on a visit, accompanied by his mother and sister. They will probably return home about the end of the present month.

Service of Song at Wesley Church

RETIRING ORGANIST MADE PRESENTATION.

At Wesley Methodist Church last evening the large congregation present was treated to a feast of music and song by the choir, under Mr. J. H. Clapham, Organist. The Anthems, "Judge Me O God," "To Thee O God We Fly" and "O God Our Help in Ages Past," were rendered very effectively, while Mr. H. Chaplin was heard to advantage in a solo, entitled, "My Task." The Pastor, Rev. J. G. Joyce, delivered a ten minutes address in keeping with the service, in which he referred to the great effect of music, and made particular mention of the great composer and authors, Ira D. Sankey, also Croxley and Hunter and many other noted men of the musical profession. After the service the members of the choir assembled in the Vestry, and through Miss Taylor, the Secretary, an address and presentation were made to Mr. J. H. Clapham, the retiring organist, who is about to leave for England. The address, a handsome piece of craftsmanship, done on silk, reads as follows:—

ADDRESS.
Presented to J. H. Clapham, Esq., Organist of Wesley Methodist Church, from the Members of the Choir.

Dear Mr. Clapham:
It is with deep regret that we have learned of your intention to sever your connection with Wesley Church Choir. We feel that we cannot allow the occasion to pass without expressing our sincere appreciation of your services as organist, and of the pleasure which we have derived from listening week after week to the choice music which you have so ably rendered.

We feel that we are speaking not only for ourselves, but on behalf of the congregation, as well as for the great number of people, both in St. John's and elsewhere, who have been able to enjoy the services broadcast over the radio from station 8 WMO.

You have the unique distinction of being the first organist in Newfoundland who has had the privilege of bringing pleasure and enjoyment to a great number of people who through sickness or other causes have been prevented from hearing the church music.

We ask you to accept the accompanying gifts as a reminder of your short stay in Newfoundland, and in parting we extend to you and Mrs. Clapham our best wishes for your future welfare and happiness.

On behalf of Wesley Church Choir,
J. C. PRATT,
Chairman.
L. TAYLOR,
Secretary.

The gifts accompanying the address were a solid silver entree dish, and an enlarged photograph of members of the choir.

Mr. Clapham, who has been organist for the past eighteen months, was taken by surprise by the thoughtfulness of his associates and in suitable words expressed his appreciation. Mr. Clapham, accompanied by Mrs. Clapham, leaves for England by the next Digby and they take with them the best wishes of the congregation of Wesley Church.

The sale of Tickets for the Columbus Ladies' Association Outing to be held at Smithville on Wednesday, June 24th, will close positively this evening. June 22nd.

Obituary

MRS. FRANCES A. MAHER.

There passed away recently at Aquaforte, Frances A. Maher, one of the best known and highly esteemed residents of Ferryland parish. Although having reached the advanced age of 73 years, the deceased lady was up to within a few days of her death attending to her household duties as active as she was twenty years before. She possessed a wonderfully energetic spirit, a kindly and charitable disposition and her hospitality was known far and wide. She came from one of the pioneer families of the Southern Shore, her father being the late Capt. William Saunders of Aquaforte. She was widow of the late James Maher, who predeceased her five years ago. She leaves to mourn four sons—James, William, Richard and Howard, and two daughters—Mrs. Joseph Keough of Calvert and Mrs. W. Baldwin, who is at present residing in the U. S. A., also a very large circle of friends, who will learn with regret of her passing away so unexpectedly. Fortified by the rites of the Catholic Church her soul was wafted into eternity, there to await the resurrection morn. Her funeral was the largest seen at Aquaforte for a number of years and was attended by a great number of people from nearby localities. May her soul rest in peace.
Ferryland, June 16th, 1925.

A NEW WHALER.—A new steamer for the Newfoundland Whaling Company is now due at Argentia from Norway. It is understood that the ship will operate on the Labrador Coast. There are two other whalers operating from Roseau Bay.

New Machinery Installed at Seal Cove

For some time the United Towns Electric Company have been engaged in installing an up-to-date governor in their power plant at Seal Cove, and the work was successfully completed yesterday afternoon. The power was turned off at midnight on Saturday, and the staff, under Supt. Armstrong, stuck to their job until everything was in working order. The apparatus, which is manufactured by the Allis Chalmers Co., of Milwaukee, was set up under the direction of Mr. Winkler, the firm's representative who came down here specially for that purpose. He very kindly explained to a Telegram representative the effect of the machine, which in brief, is intended to ensure a steady and constant flow of the current. At present about 1300 h.p. is being generated, but provision has been made to increase that amount to 2000 as occasion demands it.

Confirmation Service at Topsail

At Evensong yesterday, His Lordship the Bishop administered the sacred rite of confirmation to a large number of candidates in the Anglican Church at Topsail. The edifice was crowded to its fullest capacity and the impressive ceremony having concluded the Bishop's address was closely followed both by old and young alike.

The church has recently been redecorated, and the magnificent oak reredos now completed, together with the striking effect obtained by the stained glass window in the east end all help to make the church one of the most beautiful in the Diocese. Rev. A. Pittman the Rector has worked indefatigably with this object in view, and both he and the congregation have reason to feel gratified with the result.
