concert March 21st. They cleared seventy dollars.

The Epworth League gave a pleasant Sunday afternoon, March 30th, and was well attended.

NEW GLASGOW, N. S.

Two funerals took place this week. Leslie Paris, a lad of about seventeen, passed away last Saturday and was buried on Monday. The unfortunate lad was a patient in the Kentville Sanatorium where he has been receiving special treatment since September last. He is survived by a mother, three sister and two brothers and other relatives.

The other was that of Mrs. Morris who died in Springhill. The remains were taken to New Glasgow where her son and daughter reside. She was 89 years of age. These services were conducted by the Rev. W. Constantine Perry.

Rev. W. C. Perry was in Halifax during the week attending the lectures of Rev. Dr. Griffith Thomas, formerly of Toronto.

The Second Baptist Church is preparing for the celebration of the twentieth anniversary in April. This promises to be an event of major importance.

The Rev. A. N. Morgan, of New Port, has accepted the call to the pastorate of the Zion Baptist Church, Truro, and will begin his work on the 20th of April.

Mr. William Chearnley, of Truro, passed away at his late residence, last Sunday, and was buried on Tuesday. Mrs. Tom MacDonald, of Halifax, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibson, of Truro.

AMHERST NOTES

Mrs. R. N. Martin entertained a number of young folks on March 18th, in honor of her daughter, Evelyn's, birthday.

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Lydia Chearnley in the death of her husband, the late Wm. Chearnley.

Mr. Barry Howe, of Dorchester, N. B., is spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Ethel Jackson, our popular hairdresser, has left for Toronto, where she will reside. We wish her every success.
