Who Have Settled in the Morthwest-Resolution of Thanks to Lady Aber-deen –Mrs. Parker's Report.

The Local Council of Women met last night, with the president, Mrs. Boomer, in the chair, and a very good extendence. A report of the sixth annual meeting at Hamilton was presented and fully discussed, as was also the proposal to assist Doukhobor women exiles from their native land, them, says they are clean, industrious, hard-working and quiet people. Conneing from Cyprus, as they did, their clothing is not adapted to the severe without means to get better, so the National Council of Women of Canada has undertaken to assist them. With this object in view it was decided to aspoint a sub-committee to raise a loan fund of money, which money should be forwarded to the treasurer of the fund. With the money, spinning wheels and materials for work will be purchased, and sent to the Doukhobors are a very worthy people, who surely need the sympathetic help of sister women in charge. The following committee was appointed in the matter: Mrs. Bremner of the fund. With the money spin ment for the loans advanced. The letter concludes by stating that the Doukhobors are a very worthy people, who surely need the sympathetic help of sister women, in this their first winter in a strange land.

The following resolution was meeting that the matter can be received by writing Mrs. Fitzgibbon, 3 Grange road, Toronto. Mrs. E Yarker, recording secretary, presented a very full and sadisfactory report of the sixth annual meeting held in Hamilton from Oct. 19 to 28.
