TROUBLES IN SPAIN.

Madrid, March 6.-General Weyler innounces that he will raise the state of siege as soon as a government shall e constituted to restore the constitutional guarantees. Senor Sagasta, the Liberal leader, who yesterday accepted the task of forming a new cabinet, pro-posed the dissolution of the chambers, and that parliament shall meet in June STORMS OFF IRISH COAST.

Cork, March 4.-Stormy weather is reported off the Irish coast. Beaver liner Wassau, which left Queenstown with mails and 500 passengers for Halifax, was compelled to put back to port, with her steering gear seriously disabled. The Ameriliner Kenilworth arrived at Queenstown yesterday in a damaged condition, the bridge having been swept away. MURDERER'S QUEER PLEA. Paris. March 4.-A man named Briet, who last week murdered an unfortunate woman, was today confronted with the victim's body. The sight completely unnerved him, and, weeping, he threw himself on knees, protesting innocence. He told the judge that five years ago he had been bitten by a mad dog, and since then had been subject to spells of insanity. TODAY IN THE COMMONS. London, March 6.—The excitement oc-casioned by last night's scenes in the House of Commons today was still very evident, and when the house met at noon, in view of possible disturbances, the whole police force on duty at West Stephens had been mobilized and reinforced by reserves. Mr. John Red mond speedily rose and raised a question of privilege arising from "the painful scenes of last night." He claimed that members had been suspended without proper steps being taken to identify them, and that their removal had been accompanied by undue violence. He was satisfied, he said, that Pekin, March 5.-The next general meeting of the ministers of the powers will consider the protests of the plenipotentiaries regarding the legation quarters now established in Chinese public buildings. The British and Russians have taken the board of works, board of revenue and board of ceremonials. The Italians have taken the emperor's temple of worship. Fire has destroyed the greater part of the temple of 1,000 years in the summer palace. Fortunately the effigy of Budda, weighing 600 tons, was not injured. The Japanse troops are preparing to leave in transport on their way to Taku. The river is now safely open, and there is no danger of another frost.

GERMAN TROOPS ENGAGED. Berlin, March 5.-The war office has received the following from Count Von Waldersee, dated Pekin, March 4: "A patrol of 25, under Lieut.-Col. GENERAL TO BE COURT-MAR-TIALED.

Petersburg, March 4 .- Major-Gen. Nicholas Orloff, of the Military Academy, is to be court-martialed. When hostilities began in Manchuria he got permission to go to the front. Soon afterward the British press was filled with accounts of his efforts, and for a while one heard only of him, These exploits caused Orloff trouble. Gen. Grodekoff, the commander-inchief of the Russian forces in China, ordered Orloff to take a division and prepare provision depots along a certain road and at a certain town. Gen. Grodekoff followed with 80,000 men. Half way to the town Orloff sighted some Boxers, chased them across the country, attacked a Boxer camp and sent a dispatch about It to St. Peters-

Marries the Great-Grand Daughter of His Early Love-Bride Is 18 and Devoted

Binghamton, March 3 .- Miss Marie Waters, 18 years old, who formerly lived in Binghamton, has just married Albert O. Rood, of Alleghany, Pa., who was 100 years old on Jan. 4 last. The froom is very rich, and the story of his marriage is romantic.

In his youth Mr. Rood was engaged to Miss Waters' great-grandmother, but they had a misunderstanding and the engagement was broken off. Rood never married, but went into business and accumulated a fortune. Recently he visited some friends in the vicinity of Miss Waters' home and met the young girl. Her resemblance to his early sweetheart, her great-grandmother, is so great as to be startling, and old Mr. Rood fell in love with the girl for her far ancestor's sake, and he says that she is his old love come back to cheer him in his old age.

To Sustain the Old People

And Put New Vigor and Vitality Into Thin Blood and Feeble Nerves Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Is Remarkably

As old age approaches vitality runs low. The blood gets thin and watery, the action of the heart grows weaker and ever weaker, the nerves get feeble and the muscles become uncertain in their movements. It is in old age that a general restorative become of utmost importance.

So many old people have written regarding the wonderful help which Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has been to them that this article is published to let others know the good news.

Old people often make a great mistake by taking strong purgatives when they really need something to enrich their blood and replenish the nerve force wasted by disease, overwork or worry. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is a blood-builder and nerve revitalizer of the most inestimable value, and contains in condensed pill form the very essence of the greatest restoratives of nature was not a consideration in her mind.

A month's treatment with this great prescription of Dr. A. W. Chase, who is known personally or through his Receipt Book to nearly all old people, will do more to prolong life and to insure good health than any quantity of strong drugs.

You can have faith in any remedy prescribed by Dr. Chase. His treatments never disappoint, because they were proven in his own practice to be the best obtainable long before they were offered to the public.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has come to be considered the standard tonic and restorative for every form of weakness and debility of blood or nerves from youth to old age, and is especially popular as a means of building up the system after la grippe and similar depressing and nerve-sapping diseases.
