Vera's

Dysart, rubbing his palms together in should not for a moment accede to it. a nervous, feverish way. "For there's I shall not marry to please anyone, little money here, I may tell you. All swallowed up by these thieving rascals around me. Only last week a huge bill, an iniquitous bill, came in from one of tenants. Repairs-repairs always is their cry. They are like the norse-leech and his daughters. And there are your cousins! You think they do not count, that meat for one means meat that is because to be induced to abandon the scheme of you understand nothing. I'm besgar-ed between them all, I tell you. I'm which a late conscience clings as its

"Yes—I think I do understand," says Seaton, with wonderful composure. He even manages to smile kindly at the extremely unpleasant father with whom nature has endowed him; yet it is by a supreme effort only that he keeps back the unfilial sense of loathing that fills him. It is all so pitiful, so poor, so false. The old man trembling on the brink of the grave that yawns ready for him, clinging with greedy hands to for him, clinging with greedy hands to the gold that he yet dreads to acknowledge, lest he be defrauded of it; an old man fabulously rich through

CHAPTER XVI.

God has guarded the sacredness of Vera, having made up her mind to go to her uncle and fully explain to him that neither she nor Griselda desire any change in their way of living, waits patiently for Seaton's departure from his father's den, and now, at last, seeing the coast clear, goes quickly for-yard, as if afraid lest her determinaon should weaken. "Uncle Gregory, I wish to say some-ng to you," she is beginning hurried-, hating her task and hating her earer, when suddenly she is inter-

"Hah! For the first time, let me say, am glad to see you," says the old man ise of Seaton's attempt at interfer- therefrom ence on her and Griselda's behalf, be-comes a certainty to Miss Dysart, as she draws forward an extremely shaky chair and cautiously seats herself up-

You cannot be more annoyed than I am-" she is beginning faintly, when once again he strikes in. 'Who is annoyed?" he demands, flercely, shaking his head at her. "Tush, girl, I've heard enough about your grievances. Attend to me." Here he fixed his piercing eyes on her and says sharply, "You have met my son sev-

"Yes," says Vera slowly, being still possessed by the idea that she is about to receive a riprimand. 'You like him?" with a watchful

'I can hardly say so much," coldly. "He is neither more nor less than a complete stranger to me." 'As yet. Time will cure that; and I speak thus early to you, because it is well that you should make up your nind beforehand to like him." Something in his tone compels Vera

o turn more directly towards him. "Because in him you see your future

There is a dead pause. The old man sits with bright, unblinking eyes fixed upon the girl, who has risen to her feet and is staring back at him as if hardly daring to understand. From red o white, from white to red, she grows; her breath fails her, passionate indig-nation burns hot within her breast. Then suddenly she throws her anger from her as unworthy, and faces her uncle with a steady gaze.

'Absurd!" she says contemptuously. "Call it so, if you will," with an of- cers and the Hon. Mrs. George Keppel regard it as a fact for all that. You'A BUSY WEEK IN LOCAL HOCKEY

"That you certainly shall."
"Do not compel me to contradict you again," says Vera with dignity. "Try to understand that no living power shall make me marry against my will."
"A dead power may, however. Did you not know that your marriage with my son was the last wish, the last command, of your father?"
He is lying well, so well that at first to girl forgets to doubt him.
"My father?" she says with much astonishment. "He never so much as mentioned my cousin's name to me."
"To me, however, he did. Do you wish not see the letter?"
This is a bold stronger. Then may be considered that the contradict you again," says Vera with dignity. "Try to understand that no living power shall make me marry against my will."
"A dead power may, however. Did you more know that your father?"
He is lying well, so well that at first to girl forgets to doubt him.
"My father?" she says with much astonishment. "He never so much as mentioned my cousin's name to me."
"To me, however, he did. Do you wish to see the letter?"
This is a bold stronger. The contradict you again, says Vera with dignity. "Try to understand that no living power shall make me marry against my will."
"A dead power may, however. Did you more know that your father?"
He is lying well, so well that at first to girl forgets to doubt him.
"My father?" she says with much astonishment. "He never so much as mentioned my cousin's name to me."
"To me, however, he did. Do you wish to see the letter?"
This is a bold stronger.

dead or living, except myself."
The color has flamed again into her white cheeks, and she has unconsciou ly but haughtily thrown back her head. Resolution is so strongly marked on a poor man, Seaton — a very poor man." The wretched voice dwindles almost into a whine.

"Yet a late to list the ill-spent past, when it lay dormant? A thousand times, no! He feels as if he could shout aloud that Yes—I think I do understand," says defiant monosyllable. Surely, frail as they have not given up hopes of win-ning out the district. They left last Thursday to play in Stratford, but were on a snowbound train for 24 hours, get-ting in Stratford on Friday night, in-stead of Thursday. The tickets purlong years of saving, who yet grudges whether he be immaculate or 'a sinner to his orphan nieces a morsel of above all the Galileans.'" A sensation of sickness takes hold of him? By your own showing, he is an Rising, rather abruptly, he utter stranger to you. His smallest an excuse or two and quits vices and virtues are unknown. When, lee Rink will be good for tomorrow's game with Listowel. Willie Evans will be back in the game again. The Hortons are grateful to Mr. Paterson and therefore, you do know him-"

"I shall be as determined as I am today never to marry him." Strong are the instincts with which damsel, you have a good reason for this most unreasonable determination?" As he speaks there is an expression on his face that says he would gladly kill her where she sands if only he dared. Vera, seeing it, smiles bitterly to herself, but not for a second does she quall before it. There is enough of his own blood in her to uphold her in this hour. "I have endured enough already, through my own family," she says in a low tone, but distinctly. "I refuse to link myself further with it."

"How dare you, girl?" cries her uncle, ionship race. flinging off all restraint and letting the fury that is consuming him have its way. "How dare you stand thus before The management of the Aberdeen W. O. H. A. hockey teams are enme and insult me to my face? Fool! Do you indeed believe that what I have leavoring to arrange for a visit to this city from the Marlboros, about the fastest of the senior O. H. A. teams of Toronto. The game should be an inset my mind upon can be lightly thrust mly. "Hitherto I have been re-ss, I fear, in such minor matters of quette. Sit down teresting one. tiquette. Sit down. I, too, have omething to say to you."

That she is in for a severe scolding that she is the severe scolding that she

[To be Continued.]

Queen Alexandra's Tribute on Wreath

for Sir Henry Keppel.

London, Jan. 25.-The remains of Sir

Henry Keppel, admiral of the fleet, who died on Jan. 17, were removed from London and interred at Winkfield. Berkshire, this afternoon with full naval honors, a detachment of 500 bluejackets and marines forming the

The only floral tribute on the admiral's coffin was a wreath from Queen Alexandra, with a card and an

In loving memory of my beloved little admiral; the best and bravest of men.

King Edward, Queen Alexandra,

Emperor William and the Prince of Wales all sent special representatives, and the lords of the admiralty and a large contingent of naval officers in full uniform attended.

Simultaneously a memorial service was held in the Chapel Royal, St.

James Palace, at which the King and Queen and their suites, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Connaught, Lord

Roberts, many naval and military offiautograph inscription, reading:

From Alexandra. Rest in peace.

escort and firing party.

PRINTERS PLAY. A friendly game of hockey was yed in the Jubilee Rink on Saturday evening between employes of Law-son & Joes Printing and Lithograph Company, and the London Printing and Lithograph Company, resulting in score of 2 to 0 in favor of the lat-BELOVED LITTLE ADMIRAL the Listowel team will play the Hortons tomorrow night, and on Wednesday evening, in the Senior City League series, the Aberdeens meet the Y. M. C. A., and the Seventh Regiment team plays the St. John's A. C.

The Hortons play Stratford at Stratford in the Junior O. H. A. series on Thursday.

Several games are scheduled for Friday night. The Hortons play at Listowel, the Aberdeens at Goderich (in the Senior W. O. H. A.), and in the Junior City League the Waterloos play the Lornes, the St. John's A. C.

erdeens meet the Collegiate In-

·****************

HORTONS VS. LISTOWEL.

Listowel comes to this city tomorrow night to play the Hortons a Junior O. H. A. game at the Juilee Rink.

game will start at 8 o'clock. Although chased for the last game at the Jubishown them while on the snowbound The Hortons will go away next

WILL DEFAULT.

The St. John's Athletic Club intend be played at Exeter tomorrow. This uts the London team out of the cham-

MARLBOROS MAY COME.

default their game with Exeter in indicates the play, which was very even, and would compare favorably with the hockey played by the Senior O. H. A. teams.

BEATEN BY SMALL MARGIN. Toronto, Jan. 23.—Standing room was | defeated Arnprior, score 8 to 3. at a premium in the Mutual stret rink onight when the fast Barrie team layed their return game with the fariboros in the senior O. H. A. serhave an equal on the ice. The ice was in the district race.

Championship.

A team of four from the Hamilton of Londoners for some time. The visitors included Mesers. G. H. Levy.

J. Levy, W. M. Logan and F. R. Martin, and they had an easy victory, win-and whatever luck was going with for all that it is worth. The Londoners Galbraith, Guy Andrus and W. Thrasher. This is the tenth time the by the Londoners, who will make another bid for it at an early date.

WON CHAMPIONSHIP. the Jubilee Rink on Saturday

ight, William Pugsley won the gold nedal that goes with the one-mile day evening, Feb. 6. It is expected that Bert Thomas, West, Lawlor, Pugsley and other flyers will compete.

GOT MEDALS. Harriston, Ont., Jan. 22.-In the final game of the primary curling competi-tion, Fergus defeated Harriston by one cluded Messrs. Fred Magee, William trophy has been won by the Hamilton over him.

League, which has been in possession THE TURF.

LONDONERS LOSE WHIST TROPHY:

Whist Club paid a visit to the city on Saturday evening and took away with them the trophy of the Ontario Whist ing a 30-board game by 20 points. They and 70 yards, stumbled to his knees, Hamiltonians, however: They know over the course riderless. the game of whist, and they play it Barney Schreiber, who p had the best of the play from the start, just as Dwyer shot the barrier. As he lead until the tenth lap, when Pugsley ber of fixed events annually opened by passed him. Shortly afterwards Thomas the association. The new stake will tripped and fell and was thereafter be known as the Stoll stake, in honor hopelessly out of it, not finishing the of the late President Richard P. Stoll. race. Pugsley is now entitled to the championship of the city.

WORLD; MANY GAMES SCHEDULED

St. John's A. C. Will Default to soft, and fast combination was almost impossible. The first half ended 3 to 2 im favor of Barrie. Both teams went at it hard in the second half, but so stubborn was the defense of the two visitors that the Mariboros were forced to go the limit. Charlton finally evened the second by a lift from the Mariboro were forced to go the limit. Charlton finally evened the second by a lift from the Mariboro series of 1903 showed the winning game from a scrimmage ten seconds ater. Score: Mariboros 4.

This will be a busy week in the local hockey world, and several interesting games are assured.

In the Junior O. H. A. series, the Listowel team will play the Hortons tomorrow night, and on played here tonight with Elora. Guelph had the best of the first half, scoring four, while Elora failed to find the nets. In the second half the teams played six men a side, Guelph scored seven more goals in the second half, while Elora only succeeded in finding the nets three times. Final score: Guelph,

WORLD; MANY GAMES SCHEDULED

CLOSE SCORE. Quebec, Jan. 23.—Three Rivers de-feated Quebec II. here this evening in Bracebridge, Ont., Jan. 22. - In the intermediate O. H. A. match played here tonight Bracebridge defeated Burk's Falls by a score of 8 to 6.

Montreal, Jan. 24. - The match beween the Victorias and Montrealers n the C. A. H. L. series, which was played in the Arena on Saturday night, resulted in a victory for the Victorias by 7 to 6. DOUBLED OPPENENTS' SCORE.

Mount Forest, Ont., Jan. 22. - In a Northern Hockey League game played here tonight, Harriston defeated the COLLEGIANS AT IT. Toronto, Jan. 22. - Upper Canada College defeated Waverley by 6 to 3 week for a two-days' trip—one game in a junior O. H. A. match tonight, being scheduled for Stratford, and the other at Listowel. Mr. T. C. Wag- an intermediate O. H. A. game by a of Toronto, will referee the score of 6 to 4. PORT COLBORNE LOST.

the intermediate series, scheduled to ONE-SIDED, THIS. Port Hope, Ont., Jan. 22. - In the junior O. H. A. game here tonight the Second Ontarios were defeated by Cobourg by a score of 6 to 1.

BELLEVILLE VS. PETERBORO

An interesting clause in the contract just signed by Herbert Phillips, the star jockey of the present New Orleans meet, with Alex. Shields, by BELLEVILLE VS. PETERBORO.

the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of Belle- approval of Mr. Shields.

Barrie, Ont., Jan. 22. — In a junior and many of them tried to secure O. H. A. hockey game here tonight the jockey. Shields several days ago Barrie defeated Alliston 13, goals to 6. went to the southern track, and after WON THE DISTRICT.

WON THE DISTRICT.

New Hamburg, Jan. 23.—A game of hockey between the New Hamburg and Plattsville Clubs in the W. O. H.

About 1,500 people attended the Bank League game at Toronto on Saturday, which the Toronto team, last year's champions, defeated the Dominion team by a score of 4 to 3. The score about indicates the play, which was very district and qualified to play off with the winners of the other districts.

ARNPRIOR WAS EASY. Renfrew, Jan. 23.-At the hockey match played here last night, Renfrew defeated Arnprior, score 8 to 3. "BEG-YOUR-PARDON" GAME.

Stouffville, Jan. 23. - The intermedi-Marboros in the senior O. H. A. ser-les. Barrie people, although their team tween Uxbridge and Stountville, was as defeated at Barrie, had not lost confidence, and were accepting many play was of the "beg-your-pardon" 2 to 1 bets that were freely offered. The teams were very evenly matched, with the exception of Phillips, who did not see the home team beat Markham out

WONDERLY'S FALL.

Friday, in the fourth race, at 1 mile recovered he was run into by another engagement of the New York jockey any day. Burns is riding in execrable

SATURDAY'S WINNERS.

BIG RACE OFF.

Stonewall. 4 to 1.

Frank Reagan, the New York trainer, is playing in hard luck. Oarsman, the odds on favorite at Oakland, on years of his turf career, he started 104 times, was in the money 66 times, finishing first-25 times. Captain Rice thinks his long rest has cured his ills and that he can be gotten into shape all right by the time the Memphis meet begins. RACING ON THE ICE. Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 24.-With the lar-

GOOD SEASON PROMISED.

Quebec, Jan. 23.—Three Rivers defeated Quebec II. here this evening in the intermediate series of the C. A. H. L. by a score of 2 goals to 1. The game was well contested and close, as the score indicates. This practically gives Three Rivers the championship of C series.

WON 8 TO 6.

Bracebridge, Ont., Jan. 24.—With the largest attendance and most successfully carried out programme of any opening day in the association's history, Saturday witnessed the inception of the sixth annual ice meet of the Central Canada Racing Association. The excellent card was carried out without a hitch. The feature of the day was the feat of Conduct, owned by W. T. Mason, of Port Rowan, who clipped half a second off the world's record for three miles on ice. The record was made last year by Guesner on the mile made last year by Guesner on the mile track. Yesterday's trick was done on a half-mile track. The races were: 2:50 trot and pace:

Little Clip, A. Hunter, Ottawa.. 2 1 1 1 Illyssa, Wall & O'Neil, Ottawa.. 1 4 2 3 Little Neil, J. Peacock, Ottawa.. 3 2 3 4 Nettle Y., C. H. Putnam, Ottawa 4 3 4 2 Time-2:31, 2:29½, 2:20½, 2:30½, Three-mile dash—Conduct, W. T. Mason, Port Rowan, 1; Carinna, Hutchings & Fritz, Carthage, N. Y., 2; Amelia, T. C. Simpson, St. Andrews, Que., 3; Don, George McPherson, Montreal, 4; Mamie Abbott, J. G. Warnock, Ottawa, 5. Time, 7:26.
Gentlemen's cup race:

MR. DODDS' ILLNESS.

Horsemen throughout the country will regret to learn that Mr. E. King Dodds, editor of the Canadian Sports Port Colborne, Ont., Jan. 22. - In an man, is suffering from a severe affecntermediate O. H. A. match here to- tion of the eyes. A surgical operation night Welland defeated Port Colborne was recently resorted to, and should it not prove successful the result may be total blindnes which he is to receive $10,000 for riding Peterboro, Ont., Jan. 22. - The Belle- the Thomas and Shields horses, is ville junior O. H. A. team visited that the youngster is not to marry Peterboro tonight, and were defeated by a score of 7 to 6. At half time all outside mounts are subject to the Almost from the opening day in the BARRIE WON FROM ALLISTON. of horsemen throughout the country.

MUST NOT MARRY.

Phillips at first refused to entertain the offer, inasmuch as the boy for the last six or eight months has been riding successfully in the west and earning big retaining fees. Arcured for the above named salary. This will give him an excellent opportunity to gain further distinction as in the stable for which he will ride are a number of the best horses the American turf.

MAY BE IN BIG HANDICAP. wintering well and that Alex Shields soon agree to the lighter weight. most sanguine as to his ability to bring him to the post for either the Brooklyn or Suburban Handicap. The PRIZE GOES BACK TO HAMILTON Shields has set his heart upon carry-

TO QUIT RACING END.

BASEBALL. OFF THE BAT. Louis Carr has signed with Toronto

ed with Newark. Outfielder Jimmy Jones, of Albany, assigned to Newark, tween Feb. 10 and 24, the date to be se-tile comedians; Howard Loftus, the has also signed.

Miller has written that unless Toronto trades him he will not jump to California, though he has had good offers from there.

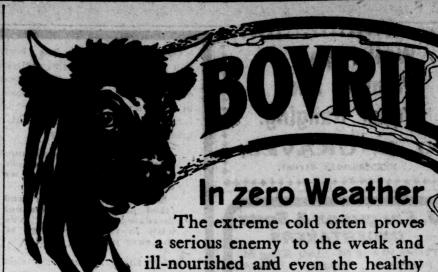

them. There is this to be said of the ing Jockey Wonderly. Oarsman ran ney, who was with Collins' Boston team the early part of last season. York Americans, and then traded to after leaving the Illinois Centra sta-Barney Schreiber, who pays a prince-y salary to Burns, may terminate his Detroit in the Elberfield deal. Laporte and Gettman, two of the men whom Detroit was supposed form and stable boys are putting it al! turned back to the latter city within few_days. Their sale was only a CHESS. bluff, to prevent other clubs from drafting them. — Cincinnati Times-

At New Orleans—Lingo, 4 to 1; Viperine, 9 to 10; Scorpio, 7 to 1; Port Royal, 25 to 1; Hands Across, 7 to 10; as "Pa" Rourke, owner of the Omaha cept March 25 and 26 as the dates for took place, and a Mr. McKenzie held the annual cable match, to be played the lucky ticket. William O'Rourke, otherwise know on, the well-known first baseman, Lexington, Ky., Jan. 23. — Secretary Horace Wilson, of the Kentucky Horse Breeders' Association, announced tohave been brought into a divorce suit filed at Denver, Col., by Fenner F. Burton, president of the Boston Produce trophy, now in the possession of the Maids" Saturday right. The art ton, president of the Boston Produce ed on ten boards.

medal that goes with the one-mile skating championship of the city by defeating Whit Thomas in somewhat easy manner owing to an accident to the latter. Last winter Pugsley won the first heat of the race for the championship, the soft weather coming too soon to permit of the other two heats being skated off. The second heat took place on Saturday evening, a large crowd being present. Thomas held the lead until the tenth lap, when Pugsley With the exception of three infielders and perhaps one backstop, Manager George Smith, of the Rochester base- A FASHIONABLE GATHERING on. The sh ball club club, has signed his team for the season of 1904. The quality of the team, from present indications, will be Honors Come to Miss Abbie May

WARD MAY MEET O'KEEFE. welter-weight, but so far the men are Cherry Pectoral Cures consumption. Not all cases, but very many. Your CHILLS, COLDS and KINDRED AILMENTS are engendered at such times, in moments of weakness and undue fatigue.

THE BEST SAFE GUARD when you feel chilly and run down is

A CUP OF HOT BOVRIL which warms the blood, renews the strength and gives vigor and tone to the entire system.

176 and 178 Dundas Street, and strong have to combat its attacks.

London, Jan. 25, 1904.

35c and 50c UNDERWEAR Tuesday 23c

Boys' Undershirts, light fleece-lined, button front, ribbed wrist, assorted sizes, value 35c and 50c, Tuesday, each 23e

75c Underwear, Tuesday 43c.

Men's Sanitary Wool Fleece-Lined Shirts and Drawers, ribbed wrist and ankles, very highest grades, value 75c, to clear, Tuesday, at, just arrived, special prices, Tuesday, up from 50 Polish, always sold at 25c, our price, Tuesday 20c 25c Writing Pad and Envelopes, Tuesday 15c.

A large assortment of Corsets.

One good size Pure Linen Writing Pad and 25 Envelopes, to match, value 25c, complete Tuesday, for 15c

Specials in Playing Cards for Evening Parties. Playing Cards, celluloid finish, gilt edge back, good value, at 25c, Extra good quality Playing Cards, gilt edges, value 40c, Tuesday 25c A full range of Celluloid Cards at all prices.

Tally Cards for pedro parties, up from 10c per dozen to 50c

Graniteware Sale. All this week we will offer many special values in all lines of Graniteware. We have made a very large purchase and our goods are arriving daily. On Saturday some of our lines were cleaned out, but we will have plenty this week.

Great Bargains in Crockery, Tuesday. A good time to replenish your stock. We quote here only a few of 7 dozen Bowls, in two sizes, heavy, white ironstone, value 7c and 10c, 10 dozen large white Ironstone Salad Dishes, value 25c, Tuesday 15c 3 dozen Meat Platters, medium size, value 25c, Tuesday 15c

Tumblers; Tuesday WOODS' FAIR

It is stated that Advance Guard is and it is probable that the men may Bertha Rogers, contralto, and Mr. Ken. THE WARD-GANS BOUT. Betting on the bout between Mike ing off one of the big handcaps this ring. Some of those who have Gans money are offering 2 to 1, three recorded bets in one day aggregating $55 Visitors Won Easily—Mr. Pugs. plied on behalf of the Fergus club. The prize of the rink winning by highest score went to St. Marys, R. Weir, skip, and pony show man, and namesake of man will offer. Gans beat Fitzgerald on Ward against $110 on the Baltimore and the booby prize, four brooms, went John P. Gentry, will be seen no more at the coast in ten rounds, and was 10 on the turf. They have decided to quit to 8 at the ringside, for the same dis-DETROIT WON TANKARD MATCH. on the turf. They have decided to quit to 8 at the ringside, for the same distance. Ward has two decisions over Sarnia, Jan. 23. - In the contest for after devote themselves to the breed- Fitzgerald, and Gans people wish to the Ontario tankard held here yesterday ing part of the industry exclusively. bet 2 to 1 against the Sarnia lad. TO BOX SIX ROUNDS.

New York, Jan. 24. - Jack Munroe and Tom Sharkey have decided to ac cept the offer of the National A. C. of Philadelphia, and will box there before Catcher Napoleon Shea has re-sign- that organization next month. The bout

Chicago, Jan. 23. - Joe Choynski, recently knocked out by Carter in Boston, and afterward arrested on the charge of prize-fighting, has arrived tion a man grabbed Mrs. Choynski's satchel, containinl $150, which the to pugilist was carrying, and ran away, Choynski reported the robbery to the was held, a large number participat-

INTERNATIONAL MATCH. between America and Great Britain. Brooklyn Chess Club, and will be play-

Helmer at the King Edward.

Jack O'Keefe has received several of- Edward Hotel, Toronto, a week ago, by Temiskaming Railway commission to fers to meet Mike Ward, the Canadian Miss Abbie May Helmer, the talented the vacancy created by the resignachampionship of the city.

Mr. C. W. Smith, of the Jubilee Rink, has offered a handsome diamond pin as a prize for a series of races for the two-mile skating championship of the best two in three heats, and the first heat will be skated off on Saturday evening, Feb. 6. It is expected

The stake will be limited to 4-year-old two the city and the call that the washing that the washed off on the first heat will be skated off on Saturday evening, Feb. 6. It is expected

Miss Abble May Helmer, the talented welter-weight, but so far the men arbeing kept from closing terms on account of a difference of opinion on the weight question. Ward wants the figure of the early new year. Under the distinguished patronage of his hoot ing out for a notch two pounds lower. Clubs at Detroit and Port Huron, as well as the Watita Club here, are ready ladies of the city, including Lady Merdell, and summer meetings of the Harlem national to put on the bout when it is closed, when the talented weight question, the call that wash the first heat will be skated off on Saturday of the first heat will be skated off on Saturday of the first heat will be skated off on Saturday of the stake will be limited to 4-year-old weight question. Ward wants the figure of the insportant society events of the early new year. Under the distinguished patronage of his honor the other commissioners are Ed. Gurney for a notch two pounds lower. Clubs at Detroit and Port Huron, as well as the Watita Club here, are ready ladies of the city, including Lady Merdell, weight question, was a part of the early new year. Under the distinguished patronage of his honor the beat wash to me of the early new year. Chark with some 36 of the leading ladies of the city, including Lady Merdell, weight question, was a part of the early new year. Chark with some 36 of the leading ladies of the city, including Lady Merdell, weight question, was a part of the mean are being kept from closing terms on account of a difference of opinion on the weight question. Was a part of the carry w dith, Lady Mulock, Mrs. George A. Cox, Mrs. Melvin Jones, Mrs. Forsyth Grant, Mrs. Walter Beardmore and others, hardly anything else was to have been expected. And Miss Helmer proved herself equal to all that was expected of her by this very cultured musical audience. Her programme was one to command the highest interest of the most critical musicians, and nedy, accompanist. A beautiful con-cert grand piano of the old firm of bid horse was only beaten a head for the Broooklyn in 1902 by Reina and Mr. Shields has set his heart upon carryShields has set his heart upon carrythe ed nobly to every test of the artist.

We ought to say that Miss Helmer is a pupil of Mr. W. O. Forsyth, one of whom he can be proud. London warerooms of Heintzman &

The Quaker Vaudeville Company open week's engagement at the London Opera House tonight. Among the artlected next week, the winner to receive phenomenal baritone singer; the Finnegans, Irish comedians; Andy and MORE HARD LUCK FOR JOE.

Jennie Lewis, in a comedy sketch; Fred Paul, musical artist. This show ought to draw large audiences, all week, as the prices of admission are but 10 and 15 cents.

Tom Marks concluded his week's engagement at the Grand Saturday night, the company playing to a large house. At the conclusion an amateur contest ing. The prize was divided between a lad named Adair, who sings remarkably well, and little Victor Riddle, a tot of about 5 years, who gave a New York, Jan. 23. — The City of Highland dance. The drawing for the London Chess Club has decided to ac- $10 given away by the company also > studies which, owing to an accident, were omitted Friday night, were put on. The show as a whole is an ex-

Live lobsters at the new Olympia to-

JAFFRAY SUCCEEDS AMES.

The piano recital given at the King Toronto, Jan. 25.—Robert January, from start to finish won their heartiest enthusiasm.

Miss Helmer was assisted by Miss be as old as 82 years.

The Purest Form in which Tobacco can be Smoked.

LONDON LANCET.