JOE LEITER SOLD

The Fast London Horse Goes To A Detroit Man.

Mr. Norman McLeod has sold his good pacer, Joe Leiter, to Mr. W. B. Moffatt, of Detroit, for a handsome figure.

Joe Leiter was the champion of the harness races at Queen's Park this year and ought to do well in 1906. He will be put in the hands of Dan Hopkins, the Detroit trainer, and sent around the big ring. Joe Leiter was in Hopkins' hands some time ago and did well. He faced the flag thirteen times and was out of the money only once.

SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED

Interesting Exercises Held Throughout the City This Afternoon.

In nearly every public school in London exercises to mark the closing for the Christmas holidays were held this afternoon. As in previous years, the children had been making preparations for the event for some time. The programmes were given almost entirely by the boys and girls, and they were enjoyed by a large number of the parents. In the kindergartens, the little tots had Christmas trees, and they sprung not a few surprises on the mothers who assembled for the exercises. By 4 o'clock the schools were pretty well closed, and the worries over lessons had passed out of the pupils' minds for ten days.

CRUSHED HIS HEAD

A Foreman Carpenter Falls Fifty Feet to Instant Death.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Dec. 22.—Joseph Bernard, foreman carpenter for Thomas Ford, sub contractor in the addition which has been erected to the Western block, fell from the building, a distance of 50 feet, this morning and was instantly killed. Bernard was taking down the scaffold to put on the roof, when it suddenly gave away, Bernard landing on his head. His skull was crushed. Bernard's son was working on the building. He was 50 years of age and leaves a widow and two children. Bernard's home is in Montreal, but the family are at present in Ottawa.

Governor to Senator.

Madison, Wis., Dec. 22.—Robert M. La Follette has resigned the governorship of Wisconsin to qualify as United States senator, to which office he was elected by the State Legislature last winter.

Wise Talks by the Printer's Devil

Here's another saying that I'd like to get into your almanac book: "The demand for an advertised article begins in the home." Got it? There's no fairy tale about that little statement. It's simple truth, which any man will accept. And that being the case, here's what I'm going to talk about this trip: The best paper to use is the one that gets to the home when circumstances give people the most time and the most desire to read—that is, the evening paper. Here's the way it is in our house, and I'll bet a few of you have the same all along the line. I bring the paper home in the evening, and after supper my dad and mother sit down and divvy it up. One takes one part and the other the other. They've got the whole night in front of them. No more work. They sit down and read the whole thing through from end to end, ads, weather report, and all. I believe the gov'nor even reads the stock market reports, although there isn't any Twin City or Sao Paulo down in his sock that I know of. After a while ma says, "Trade," and the old man says, "I ain't through with this part yet," but they swap parts after a bit, and when they finish they go to bed. There's the way to reach the people, when they're through with their work, and can read over what you've got to tell them, and make up their minds what they need, and what they'll buy when they need it. Don't you think that's right?

HEADED CLASS OF 400

Success of Young Londoner in Army Medical Service Exam.

Percy Clifton, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Howell, of this city, who during the past three years has been stationed at Fort Bayard, New Mexico, and is attached to the medical department of the American army, has just passed his final examination. In a class of nearly 400, Mr. Howell was at the top of the list. He has been ordered to Washington, and assigned to a position in the Army Medical Museum, and is in charge of the laboratory there.

SITE FOR NEW CHURCH

St. Paul's Evangelical Purchases Property in South End of City.

After months of negotiations to find a suitable site for its proposed church building, St. Paul's United Evangelical congregation has purchased the beautiful property situated at the northeast corner of Wellington and Grey streets. From now on preparations will progress rapidly. It is expected, however, to be ready for building operations with the opening of spring.

This young congregation is making steady progress. Christmas will be observed with due celebrations at the temporary quarters in the Dufferin Block, southwest corner of Dundas and Clarence streets. The Sunday school will hold its exercises Saturday evening, Dec. 23, at 8 o'clock, with a German and English programme, and a fine Christmas tree. The services on Sunday forenoon will be in German, and on Christmas Day at 11 a.m. German services will again be conducted.

WALSH NOT GUILTY

Acknowledged on the Charge of Stealing From a Bartender.

Harry Walsh was this morning acquitted by Magistrate Love on a charge of stealing $9 from William Renwick in the Brown House nearly two weeks ago.

The offense was alleged to have occurred in the Brown House hallway. Renwick had been drinking at several hotels, and he claimed that while at the Brown House Walsh offered him some whisky with one hand and took $9 from his pocket with the other.

To Detective Eglton, Renwick stated that he had been robbed of $7; to Constable Paisley, who arrested Walsh, he said it was $8, and later put it at $9. He had been paid his wages that evening, amounting to $12, and had spent a little less than $2 of that amount. Renwick's employer, John Fern, corroborated part of Renwick's evidence.

The defense called several witnesses, who swore that Renwick was in the barroom at the time that he alleged he had been robbed. Walsh was at the hotel, but swore that he didn't rob Renwick.

"I don't know Renwick; never saw him, and don't know anything about him," said Walsh, emphatically.

The evidence of the defense as opposed to Renwick's unsupported testimony led the court to acquit Walsh.

A debate was held in which the affirmative was "Resolved, that co-education in the universities is detrimental to both sexes." was the subject. During the course of the evening Miss Sage gave solo and Mr. Cornish a reading, and a supper was held at which the greatest of fun prevailed. In the debate Mr. Brett and Miss Guest upheld the affirmative side and Mr. Johnston and Miss Butler took the negative.

REPUTATION WAS BAD

That's Why Raymond Foreman Was Sent to Prison.

Raymond Leslie Foreman was this morning sentenced to six months in the Central Prison, Toronto, for stealing an overcoat from Norman Ryckman, of Ridout street.

Foreman pleaded guilty to the offense. He would have been let off on suspended sentence had not his previous character been against him.

"So you can see of how much value a good character is," said the court. "I have learned of your past life in Hamilton, and find it to be anything but honorable."

The case against Nestor A. Young, sen., charged with selling stock in this Province for the Pick and Drill Mining Company of Arizona, which was unsuccessful in Ontario, was dismissed. It was proved that Young had not sold stock on behalf of the company, but on his own behalf, which does not come under the meaning of the statute.

The son of the defendant was also named in the charge, but the latter did not appear because of his illness, he being at present in Victoria Hospital. Timothy Grace was fined $1 or three days for improper driving. Three statute labor delinquents paid $5 each, and one other will have a warrant issued because of his non-appearance.
