OTTAWA TOOK THE WHOLE SERIES PUNY LAD BECOMES WORLD'S BEST JUMPER BY BEATING INDIANS SATURDAY

Herbert Held the Bowermanites to Four Hits and One Run-Hynes Pitched Good Ball in Spots, But Allowed Senators to Bunch Hits Off Him.

BY JINX.]

Mr. Bowerman's Indians exploded with a big bang Saturday afternoon, and Mr. Cook's pirates will return to their native lair with their pockets filled with some choice plunder. Saturday's frolic was canned by the invaders in the third inning, when they beaned Mr. Hynes' choice selections for a quintette of hits and a quartette of runs. It was a real painfut session for the home folks, who had pawned their socks and journeyed to the local premises to bet on the Bowermanites. When the curtain blew down on the proceedings, the count stood 8 to 1, with Mr. Cook's aggregation copping the several, and the home help receiving the numeral.

HERBERT A GOOD ONE.

Mr. Cook sprang a surprise party on the local faction when he chased Mr. Herbert into the box. Much has been heard of this prize heaver, and the local fans are now convenced that much has been left unsaid. He cheated the Bowermanites out of several bingles owing to his queer habit of placing the ball where it was missed by the Tecumsehs. He had only two strike outs to his credit, but the most the locals could do his credit, but the most the local faction when he chased Mr. Herbert into the box. Much has been heard of this prize heaver, and the local faction when he local faction whis convermental to prize heaver. It was missed to put the base and when the hird inning, and single to right which brought Burke II. Bowerman dropping the ball while touching him out. The other two batters were easy outs.

The locals could do nothing with Mr. Herbert in the first spasm, and Hynes had the sign on the Senators in their half of the second, striking Callahan, Louden and Hopper out in order lahan, Louden and Hopper out of lahan, Louden and Hopper out on the left, lad so the lahan, Louden and Hopper out or lahan, Louden and Robertson scored and Indians had a look-in.

That Awful Third.

GIANTS LOSE TWO GAMES TO CARDINALS

Marquard Is Charged With Two Straight Defeats as a Result.

Phillies Won a Close Game From the Reds by a Score of 2 to 1 -

Bresnahan's boys threw the harpoon into the panting and wilted Giants by a score of 3 to 2 in the first battle, and inserted the gaff by a score of 4 to 2 in the second encounter. Rube Marquard helped drag the Giants down to two defeats, and the Giants helped to drag the Rube down. George Wiltse was going along fine, when he was taken out for a pinch hitter. Marquard pitched the last two innings of the New York001003111—7 8 2 a score of 3 to 2 in the first battle, and pitched the last two innings of the game and the score was a tie when he came in. The Cardinals ransacked his pitching for three hits, and the deciding run in the ninth, and therefore the defeat is charged to Marquard. R. H. E.

and the younger generation whooped it up.

No one was particularly surprised, as Alma Richards has a habit of doing things. But everyone was happy.

The call the winner of the great jump the "Mormon Giant" here, and he deserves the title. He is a self-made athlete, and his winning of world-renown comes after years of endeavor and a determination inherited from the men who established the Mormon religion and made the desert blossom.

He hails from a family of athletes. The son of Morgan A. Richards, he was born at Parowan, Utah, and is just 21. When a child he was an invalid, and was sent from the city into the fields to find the health and strength which nature had denied him.

His quest was successful, and today he

His quest was successful, and today he is a big, strapping fellow, clean-limbed as a greyhound, and as tough as raw-hide. Life in the open, athletics and clean living, backed by determination, accomplished the miracle.

Richards is a Brigham Young University student. He first competed in athletics three years ago, and his best jump was 5 feet 7 inches. Two years ago he competed at the university, and was beaten in every event in which he entered.

Undiscouraged, he entered the games held the next fall, and won every event he entered, making a stat record of 6
