Insisted On Presenting Petition to His Majesty in Person.

London, July 24.—Two suffragettes belonging to the British nobility, Lady Clary and the Hon. Miss Edith Fitz-gerald, were arrested today at Buckingham Palace, where they made persistent attempts to present to King George a letter written to his majesty by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader. The letter demanded a personal interview with the King, and claimed that the suffragettes should be given the same right to an interview as certain

They stated that they had a petition to present to his majesty. The attendants, however, persuaded them to leave, but they returned later and announced their determination to remain until they were given an audience with the King. The police then took the two women
