LADIES OF HUNT CLUB HOLD GOLF FIELD DAY

Fine Weather Marks First Competitions of Season—About Fifty Attend.

The first field day of the season, arranged by the women of the London Hunt and Country Club, yesterday, was marked by a series of interesting competitions and a large attendance of about 50 golfers. Play began in the morning with the most favorable weather possible, was followed by a club luncheon, and an afternoon of two-ball foursomes, "big and little sister." Many of the players stayed on for tea. The next field day has been arranged for June 30. Tomorrow afternoon mixed foursomes will be played by selected teams.

The results of the day's events were as follows: Driving—Senior prize, Mrs. Ernest L. Williams; junior prize, Mrs. Alex. Calder. Longest drive—Mrs. George W. Little. Punting and Putting—Senior, Mr. Claude Brown; junior, Mrs. F. C. Field. Obstacle golf—Mrs. Basil Stirling. Two-ball foursomes (big and little sister)—First, Miss Helen Baker and Mrs. Donald McLean; second, Miss Jo Belton and Mrs. Frank Gordon; third, Miss Audrey Farncombe and Mrs. James Baxter.

How to make better strawberry jam in a few minutes

Keeps perfectly—Make up a supply now to use during winter months.

By ANN PROCTOR

Everyone loves strawberry jam. For a spread on bread or hot biscuits nothing seems to equal it. Its wonderful flavor makes children of us all. Until now, however, an expert was required to make it. Until now, it was expensive. Certo, a natural product of fruit, has solved the problem so that everyone can now make and eat this delicious conserve.

This process banishes all the guesswork or worry, as perfect results are certain. Unlike the old method of "peep for pound" mixture which had to be boiled for thirty or more minutes, with consequent loss of fruit juice and flavor being boiled away, the economical Certo process requires only one minute's boiling and thereby saves all the fruit to produce 50 per cent. more jam.

Certo is an absolutely pure fruit product—contains no gelatine or preservative. Jams and jellies made the Certo way will keep perfectly. Certo will positively save you time and fruit and eliminate all guesswork. You can use it on all kinds of fruits and you can even use canned fruits—something you could never do before. It is highly endorsed by all domestic science experts. Every woman who has used it recommends it to her friends and says she will never be without it.

To make Strawberry Jam by the easy Certo process:

CRUSH WELL about two quarts ripe berries in separate portions so that each berry is mashed. This allows fruit to quickly absorb the sugar during the short boil. Measure 4 level cups crushed berries into large kettle, add 7 level cups sugar and mix well. Use hottest fire and stir constantly before and while boiling. BOIL HARD FOR ONE MINUTE, remove from fire and stir in ½ bottle (scant ½ cup) Certo. From time jam is taken off fire allow to stand not over 5 minutes, BY THE CLOCK, before pouring. In the meantime skim and stir occasionally to cool recipe will go on to the coast and will visit her parents, Col. and Mrs. Grant, in Victoria. Major and Mrs. Hemming will return to London the end of September.

Write today to the Douglas Packing Co., Limited, Cobourg, for a copy of the Certo recipe booklet of 73 recipes. If your grocer does not have Certo send 40c in stamps to this Company and they will forward you a bottle.

Be sure to start now—the new, sure, quick, economical way of making jams and jellies. You will never return to the old "hit or miss" method.

Riverview Pupils Serve Fine Dinners For 35 Cents

Girls Entertain Businessmen At the School Last Night.

A PRETTY TABLE

Marketing, Cooking and Serving All Done by Young Hostesses.

Another successful demonstration dinner was given last night, this time at the Riverview School, under the direction of Miss Isabel Craig. Prominent businessmen and educationists of the city were the guests of honor, and the very excellent meal which was served to them cost the youthful cooks but 35 cents a head. There was clear tomato soup, roast beef, Yorkshire pudding, mashed potatoes, creamed asparagus, combination salad, bread and butter, pineapple trifle, fancy cakes, coffee and candy.

The hostesses were the girls of grade eight, who served the dinner at a table attractively arranged with mauve iris in crystal vases and dainty floral wreath. Little mauve baskets at each place were pretty favors. The girls themselves, frocked in white middie and skirts, acted as efficient waitresses, cooks and hostesses. The resultant meal was well balanced as to food values and cooked to suit the most fastidious taste. Even the marketing was done by the girls themselves.

The guests, delighted with their dinner, were: Inspector G. A. Wheable, T. S. H. Graham, principal of the South London Collegiate, F. J. Newhouse, principal of the school; John Graham, of the teaching staff of the school; Bryden Campbell, Rev. R. D. Mess and Trustees of the board of education; Mayor G. A. Wenig, Col. C. M. R. Graham, Capt. Tom Robson, E. R. Dennis, John Orchard, Thomas Fortner, P. J. W. T. D. McCullough, W. D. Quigley, John Stuart, Rev. W. L. Armitage, W. G. Rigner, Charles Walker and others.

Miss Oak, physical director of the South London Collegiate, is arranging a demonstration of dancing to be presented at the garden fete being given under the auspices of the Women's Guild of St. James Church, London, at the lovely home of Mrs. Rowland Stevens, on the Base Line road Friday afternoon and evening. Mrs. A. O. Hunt, president of the guild, and general convenor of the affair, will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. L. Armitage and Mrs. Stevens.

Mrs. W. J. Chisholm, Stanley street, was the hostess of a charming little informal tea given yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Grace, who is leaving her home on Hale street shortly to take up her residence in Ottawa. The honored guests were three house visitors, Mr. Oliver Eytne, Mrs. Henry Bruell and Mrs. Oscar Kelhofer, all of Mount Clemens, Mich. From a table attractively arranged and centered with a silver basket of golden and white iris, Mrs. Ed. Shu poured tea, assisted by Miss Hodgkinson.

There is but one London girl graduating from Alma College on Friday night, Miss Marion Waide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Waide, Adelaide street. Miss Waide graduates in physical education. Other graduates will be Madeline Boucher, Frances Orich, Ethel Holmes and Minnie Welch, all in general course; Edith Whitty, in piano; Marion McKillop and Frances Whitcomb, in expression; Kathleen McMurtry, Edith Mabel Florence Stogatz, in physical education; Dorcas Rose in the secretarial course; Carolyn Curtis in the home makers' course and Lou Rutledge in household science.

The Teumseh House was the scene of a series of interesting little reception parties on Saturday afternoon and evening and all day Sunday, when a large and enthusiastic audience was present.

The program throughout was brilliantly given, demonstrating knowledge of the piano and keen sympathy with the composers whose work they were interpreting. Assisting was Miss Katherine Sweet of Brantford, a vocal pupil of A. D. Jordan, who sang beautifully two groups, "Mermaid's Song" (Haydn) and "L'Heure Silencieuse" (Debussy), "Cuckoo Song" and "It Was a Lover and His Lass" (Quilter).

The piano program included big numbers from Beethoven and Mozowski, by Miss Evelyn Jarvis, "Country Gardens" (Grainville), by Frank James; the Bach concerto in C minor by Miss Mildred Chantler, with Mr. Martin at a second piano; Godowsky and Cyril Scott numbers by Miss Chantler, and an interesting group—"Impromptu in E Flat Major" (Faure), "Fisherman's Song" and "Fire Dance" (de Falla), by Miss Laura Kirkwood.

Mrs. Jack Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Forbes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Forrester, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garbutt, Rev. John Garbutt and Mrs. Garbutt, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon.

When Thomas Martin's pupils appeared in recital at the Institute of Musical Art last night, they were greeted by a large and enthusiastic audience.
