WASHINGTON, April 24 .- The correspondent of the Boston Post is authoritively informed that negotiations have been pending since the accession of the Derby administration between the State Department and the Colonial Secretary, for the purchase of a large portion of British America. Seward's design was to acquire all the territory west of the Mississippi. One prominent difficulty was the transfer of Vancouver Island. England desired to retain that as a naval station. Recently the proposition to purchase has been renewed. Seward put forth the Alabama claims as a partial offset, the whole price to be deter mined hereafter. The strictest secrecy has been maintained respecting the negotiations. Seward relied upon the success of the scheme SOIREE DANSANTE-MIS. Digby Palmer for buying Russian America to help the other
