The recent meeting of the Austria-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs with Bismarck strengthened the feelings of all that the matter will be amicably settled on a peace basis.

Which is Right? PROVINCETON, Mass., Sept. 3.—The stories of the loss of life on the Newfoundland banks are not believed by Massachusetts fishermen. Thirteen vessels, however, are acknowledged to have been missing for 60 days—that is they have not been heard of for the time—but they are believed to be in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. St. Johns, Nfld., Sept. 3.—The captain of a schooner just arrived from the Grand banks fishing lodge describes passing through a perfect sea of shattered driftwood, broken boxes, spars, gaffs, and other gear of fishing vessels.

It is reported from Trepassy this evening that several Newfoundland vessels succumbed to a storm on Tuesday. Portions of vessels in Lake water, cables, ropes and punts are hourly driven ashore. MALDEN, Mass., Sept. 3.—W. A. Malvern, Boston, committed suicide on Sunday by shooting himself. He left a note in which he said that he was tired of life and was going to the water and was here.

THE CHINESE ACUTE. HONG KONG, Sept. 3.—It is reported that 15,000 Chinese troops have crossed the Mongolian proceeding to Naidong. A small force of Chinese troops, including a priest, several land owners and members of the communal council.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—The remains of Chamberlain were conveyed from Frohndorf to Weidorf on Sunday morning, thence to Goritz in the evening. All the inhabitants of Frohndorf accompanied the procession to the depot. The cortege consisted of a force of local volunteers and intimate friends of the deceased.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3.—Recent storms have almost totally destroyed the grain and other crops in the south of Ireland. The authorities fear a renewal of the rent agitation owing to distress consequent upon the smallness of crops at general strike against rent is thought imminent.

RENEWAL OF THE LAND AGITATION FEARED.—Deaths in Atlantic Coast.—Deaths in Atlantic Coast.

DUBLIN, Sept. 3.—At a mass meeting on Sunday, Sept. 3, Michael Davitt said that by the transiency of operation of landlordism in Ireland 6000 households had been deprived of homes within the past quarter. Davitt contended that the complete abolition of landlordism must be kept before the people if they are to be rescued from failure, rapidly becoming so. Not a sixth of the tenant farmers succeeded in having their rents fixed. He urged the people to be resolute and calm and not to lose self-control.

THE IRISH CONSULATORS AT CINCINNATI. GILMANSON, Sept. 3.—The Irish here are much excited, scared over a report that Bernard Gallagher is to turn informer. The nine prisoners suspected of being fanatics were released yesterday. All attempts at hostile demonstrations will be suppressed and special precautions have been taken to prevent any attempt at rescue.

APPLIANCES FOR MAKING EXPLOSIVES AND INFERNAL MACHINES WERE DISCOVERED IN THE HOUSE OF THE IRISH PRISONERS ARRESTED HERE.

VIENNA, Sept. 3.—Yen Martiniell, commander in Alsace-Lorraine, has joined Bismarck.
