All Kinds All Kinds.

New Yoar, March 23.—The failure of the New fersey Legislature to pass a bill to allow betting in the race tracks has caused considerable discussion about the racing outlook of New Jersey. It is claimed by some that there will be no racing on the summer tracks, and that Monmouth Park, Linden and Elizabeth will be closed up in the season. This would be a great dispointment to racegoers and would cause a oss of money to all classes of people doing business in New Jersey.

Some claim that the Monmouth Park meeting sill be run off anyhow. About Linden it is very southful. hitful.

President M. F. Dwyer of the Elizabeth Jockey to was with his brother, Mr. J. P. Dwyer, at a Brooklyn Jockey Club office on Saturday. Iking of the outlook Mr. M. F. Dywer said: the prospects of racing in New Jersey are anying but encouraging, and what the future of cing will be in that state it is hard to say. The seting at Elizabeth will open April 10. That is retain and the programs are now being prered. About betting I can't say anything, but e races will take place."

There Will Be No Compromise,
Sr. Louis, Mo., March.—President Von de Ahe returned to day from Cincinnati, where he had been looking after the interests of the Américan Association. When asked how he stood on the prep. sed compromise with the League he replied:
we to gain by it? I am opposed to having anything further to do, with the league, for it never has any dealings with anybody without giving the other party the worst of it.
