The Advantages of a Modern Mail Order System

A great metropolitan store at your Post Office address, that's what it means when you order by mail from Simpson's. You don't have the worry of crowded cars and bustling crowds to bother you. You sit down at your own table and write out what you want, enclose the money securely with your name and address very plainly written so as there can be no mistake and send us the letter. A two-cent stamp will be your messenger, the Canadian Post Office and our splendid Mail Order Department will do the rest for you: purchase your goods, look them over with an eye as careful as your own, pack them and ship them to you with the least possible delay. Thus you possess all the advantages which accrue to people who live in big cities without many of the disadvantages. Thus you have the advantage of the lowest prices and a range of choice possible only to a store of national dimensions. We refund your money if you say so. We're confident you'll be perfectly satisfied.

Here are four skirts specially priced as an inducement to you to send us a trial order.
