CANADA PRESBYTERIAN

EDITED BY REV. WILLIAM INGLIS.

Will be Better Value to our Readers than ever before.

All Departments which have given so much satisfaction in the past are to be continued; and, under the new Editorial Management, fresh features will be introduced, calculated to increase the interest and render the paper more than ever necessary to every Presbyterian family in the Dominion. Arrangements are already made to secure early ecclesiastical news items from the Maritime Provinces; and communications will be received, at regular intervals, from St. John, N.B., Halifax, N.S., and Charlottetown, P.E.I. The interests of our Church in the Prairie Province will be looked after by an able correspondent at Winnipeg. Man.: and wide-awake writers at widely separated points, such as New York, Edinburgh, Beliast, and in India. Formosa and the South Sea Islands, will favour our readers with interesting letters. A new feature of the paper will be a MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT under the special supervision of the Editor, in which a comprehensive view will be given of missionary operations throughout the world.

→ UNPRECEDENTED PREMIUM ATTRACTIONS. →

The Engravings, given to EVERY SUBSCRIBER, are of greater intrinsic value than any premium offer ever before made in this country. "The Death of Nelson" and the "Meeting of Wellington and Blucher"—Companion Pictures—by Maclise, the great Historical Painter, are furnished by the Art Union of London, England, only, at ONE GUINEA EACH. They are both placed within the reach of every subscriber to THE PRESBYTERIAN, who either remits $2, or joins a club at reduced rates, before the 1st of January next. THE PREMIUM PICTURES ARE 18 by 40 INCHES EACH. Both are magnificent representations of Great Historical. Scenes; and the fac-similes, in the hands of Agents, convey but a very faint idea of their great beauty. They are certainly calculated to adorn the best homes in the land.

OUR S. S. PAPERS,

The SABBATH SCHOOL PRESBYTERIAN (monthly) for 1880 will be better adapted for senior scholars. In its columns will be found more frequent reference to the mission work of our own Church; and efforts will be made to awaken and keep alive the interest of our young readers in the great work of spreading the saving truths of the Gospel into all lands.

GOLDEN HOURS will be continued as a monthly. It is already quite a favourite; and no efforts will be spared to increase its popularity and usefulness.

I have been asked to get out a paper at a lower price, which would be better adapted for INFANT CLASSES. EARLY DAYS will be published fortnightly , for 1880 in response to this request. It will be beautifully illustrated; and cannot fail to be in great demand amongst the young folks.

Specimen copies of each sent free on application.

The Rev. Wm. Inglis has kindly consented to take charge of these papers, which will be a guarantee that they may be safely placed in the hands of the "Children of the Church."

THE INDEPENDENT.

The Independent appeals to cultivated men and women. It ciscusses current questions of religion, philosophy, and politics. It is wide-awake. It is not afraid. It sets people to thinking. It welcomes fresh truth. It has numerous departments. It publishes more religious discussion than the religious reviews, more poetry and stories than the popular monthles, and gives more information than an annual cyclopædia. It has a larger corps of the most famous writers than any other journal of any sort in the country. It makes strong friends of those who read it. TRY IT FOR NEXT YEAR.

We have purchased the newspaper copyright of the Boston Monday Lectures for 1879—1880, to be delivered, as heretofore, by the REV. JOSEPH COOK, beginning Nov. 3rd, and the same will be given verbatim to the readers of The Independent weekly, toge her with the Preludes, after revision by the author.

Sermons by Eminent Clergymen in all parts of the country will continue to be printed
