

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO MARKET—February 27, 1899.

FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

SMALL INCREASE IN VISIBLE—
MARKET INACTIVE BUT FIRM—
CORN STRONG.

Chicago, Feb. 27.

Bearish news and statistics got the pit traders all short, and the market at the opening rallied sharply on manipulation and shorts covering.

Receipts for the past week at Liverpool have been largely American, and the spot price well maintained there in the face of easier foreign wheats. The stiff premium of cash wheat over May is reflected in the March delivery. Foreign houses have been buying sparingly of March and July with an effort not to raise the price. The market has developed a moderate advance for the past fortnight, and the price has moved in striking opposition to the surface news for some time.

Bradstreet's exports of wheat, including flour, for the week aggregate 3,844,359 bushels, against 2,454,771 bushels last week, and 3,722,469 bushels in the corresponding week of 1898.

Since July 1st this season the exports of wheat aggregate 162,897,349 bushels, against 161,204,750 bushels last year.

Corn exports for the week aggregate 2,871,057 bushels, against 1,560,845 bushels last week, and 3,692,799 bushels this week a year ago.

Since July 1st this season corn exports aggregate 107,714,178 bushels, against 114,256,045 bushels during the same period a year ago.
