

Visit of Mgr. Bruchesi to Toronto.

His Grace the Most Rev. Paul Bruchesi, Archbishop of Montreal, paid an unexpected visit to Toronto on Saturday, and remained until Monday morning, when he left for home.

Mgr. Bruchesi was accompanied by his secretary, Rev. Father Gallagher, and both were the guests of Mrs. G. W. Kelly, at 680 Jarvis street.

Saturday afternoon and evening Archbishop Bruchesi paid visits to his Grace the Archbishop of Toronto, and on Sunday morning he celebrated Mass at the Convent of the Precious Blood.

Mrs. G. W. Kelly entertained a party at dinner to meet the Archbishop of Montreal. Those who sat at table were Archbishop Walsh, Sir Frank Smith, J. J. Foy, Q.C., Alfred Evanturel, M.P., (Speaker Legislature), Fathers Teofy, Walsh, Lamarche and Gallagher.

At 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given at the French church on King street east, where the Archbishop addressed the congregation.

Rev. Father Lamarche welcomed his Grace of Montreal to the church in his own name and in the name of the congregation. They were impressed with a deep sense of obligation that he should pay a visit to the French-Canadians of Toronto. They were glad to see one who was so looked up to and who had just come from the feet of his Holiness.

Archbishop Bruchesi, who spoke in French addressed. Father Lamarche and his people. He referred to his predecessor, Archbishop Fabre of Montreal and paid a high tribute to his memory.

Archbishop Bruchesi assured them of the love which Mgr. Fabre always had for them and the warm interest the dead prelate had taken in their welfare. Archbishop Fabre had many friends in Toronto, and the friendship he felt for them had descended to him.

He wanted to tell them all the benediction of his Holiness, from whom he had just come, and he assured them of the very warm place Canadians held in the heart of his Holiness. For himself he desired to express his best wishes for their welfare, both spiritual and temporal.

He then pointed out the great debt they all owed to God, who had done so much for them, and they should be thankful for the fact that they were born and educated in a Christian country. God had not treated all men and nations as He had treated them, and their obligations to God were all the greater because they were not necessary to Him.

THE BEST RESULTS.

ALWAYS FOLLOW THE USE OF DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Two Cases in Which They Restored Health and Strength After All Other Means Had Failed. I had been a sufferer from rheumatism for upwards of twenty years, at times being confined to the house.

There are few if any people in Murray township, Northumberland county, to whom the name of Chase is not familiar. Mr. Jacob Chase, who has followed the profession of farmer and fisherman and fishdealer is especially well known. He has been a great sufferer from rheumatism, as all his neighbors know, but has fortunately succeeded in getting rid of the disease.

As a result of the diversity of trouble for which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a cure it may also be mentioned that they restored Mrs. Frank Chaso, a daughter-in-law of the gentleman above referred to, to health and strength after all other means had apparently failed.

Nothing in the life of the late Mrs. O'Hagan was more beautiful than her gift of faith. She was throughout her whole life a faithful, practical and devout Roman Catholic. Rather than grow cold or neglectful in her religious duties she has been known in early pioneering days to walk through a high plain pathless wilderness a distance of twenty-five miles for the purpose of attending divine service in her own church.

The previous Board having voted to consolidate the floating debt, the new Board last night passed a by-law authorizing the issue of debentures to the amount of $5,000, bearing 4 per cent. interest. The by-law was moved by Father Rohleder and seconded by Michael Donovan.

ST. HELEN'S BRANCH, NO. 11, TORONTO.

The members of St. Helen's Circle and Branch held a very successful At Home on New Year's Eve, it being largely attended by the members and their friends.

And at the regular Branch meeting the installation of officers took place, most of the members were present; great interest was taken in the proceedings and a very pleasant evening was spent. The A. Sec. and Treasurer presented their annual report showing the Branch funds to be in a very satisfactory state and the prospects for the year 1898 very promising.

John Srikland and James Delory were elected delegates for the convocation to be held in May next.

On Sunday the 9th, the members of the Branch according to custom, attended St. Helen's Church in a body, for the purpose of receiving Holy Communion.

THE LATE MRS. O'HAGAN.

PAISELEY, Ont., Jan. 7.—The Advocate chronicled last week the death of Bridget O'Hagan, whose maiden name was Ryle, relict of the late John O'Hagan, who died at her home in Elderslie on the 28th ult., at the ripe age of 80. The deceased was born in the Parish of Ballyheigue, County Kerry, Ireland, about the year 1817, and in company with her husband and three children set out for the New World about the year 1850.

Nothing in the life of the late Mrs. O'Hagan was more beautiful than her gift of faith. She was throughout her whole life a faithful, practical and devout Roman Catholic. Rather than grow cold or neglectful in her religious duties she has been known in early pioneering days to walk through a high plain pathless wilderness a distance of twenty-five miles for the purpose of attending divine service in her own church.

She was possessed of great nobility of heart and mind, as well as great natural endowments and gifts, and a depth and height of love and devotion to her own family almost measureless. For their happiness and welfare it was she spent her life—yes, sacrificed herself, leaving to them a goodly inheritance of this world and the better heritage of a beautiful and blameless name starred with sweet, which grows pale the flickering light of noisy fame.

The funeral took place from the family residence in Elderslie at 7 a.m. on Friday, 8th ult., to Oshespa cemetery, and though the hour of departure was exceedingly early a very large body of friends turned out to pay their last tribute of respect to the memory and virtues of one who they had revered and respected in life.

The pall-bearers were: J. Fergusson, D. Bailly, J. Marshall, J. Sheehan, T. Foley and A. Bryce. Among the prominent persons from a distance who attended the funeral were: J. O. McIntyre, clerk of Elderslie Tp., J. W. McNab, clerk of Greenock Tp., Messrs. Coulter, McBride, Fraser and McGregor, of Paisley, M. McNamara, Judge Klein and S. McKay, of Walkerton, and Mr. Trimble and Henry Cargill, M.P., of Ovgvill.

Arrived at Oshespa Roman Catholic church solemn requiem high mass was celebrated with Father Kelly, of Walkerton, as celebrant, Father Corcoran, of Teeswater, as sub-deacon, Father Zettler, of Formosa, as sub-deacon, and Father Wey, of Walkerton, as master of ceremonies, Father Wadel, of Oshespa, was also present. The sermon was preached by Father Kelly and was a tribute to the life virtues of the deceased, who, he said, had done her duty to God and to her neighbor—who had fought the good fight and kept the faith and had now gone to her reward.

The deceased belonged to a family that had given many priests to the church, Father James P. Byle, the present pastor of Montville Roman Catholic church in the diocese of Hartford, Conn., being her cousin, and Father Sheehy the well known Irish Nationalist, another relative.
