TEMPERANCE MANUAL.

THE UNDERSIGNED begs to announce his intention of preparing for the press a Volume entitled as above, provided a sufficient number of Subscribers can be obtained to cover the expenses. The work will be 18mo., 200 pages, and embellished with several Wood-cuts.

CONTENTS :

I.—A History of the Rise and Progress of Teetotalism in the World, and particularly in Canada.

II.—Interesting Statistics and Facts.

III.—Valuable Testimonies in favour of Total Abstinence from Intoxicating Drinks, from Clergymen, Statesmen, Physicians, and Mechanics.

IV.—Poetry:—being selected Hymns and Songs, adapted for Public Meetings and Social Entertainments.

This will be a valuable Companion for Lecturers and Official Members of Temperance Societies throughout the Province.

Terms:—Bound in Cloth, 2s. 6d.—in Sheep, 2s. 9d.

R. D. WADSWORTH,
Publisher,

Montreal, April 26, 1847.

No. 4, Exchange Court.

THE SAILORS' HOME IS NOW OPEN.

THIS Establishment is to be a Benevolent Institution, but not as a Gratuitous Charity. It is expected that those who reside at the House, will, as a general thing, pay their board; while the stranger, the worthy objects of charity, the destitute and ship-wrecked mariner, will meet with a welcome home within its doors, and share freely in its hospitalities.

REGULATIONS,

RULE. 1.—Morning and Evening Prayer.

" 2.—Boarders must conduct themselves in a quiet and orderly manner.

" 3.—Gambling or games of Chance will not be permitted.

" 4.—Profane Swearing, or improper language shall in no case be allowed.

" 5.—Bringing Intoxicating Liquors into the house is prohibited.

" 6.—Books, Periodicals or Newspapers shall not be taken from the Reading Room or defaced.

" 7.—Persons infringing the last Five Rules, may be expelled from the Home, by the person in charge.

Conditions of Admission.

" 8.—One Week's Board, payable in advance.

" 9.—Any Seaman being Sick or De-titute, coming from a distance requiring admittance, must produce a Certificate of his own moral character, signed by some respectable Ship-master, Physician, Clergyman, or Magistrate of the locality where he last resided, or three respectable persons, if the above cannot be obtained.

☞ Doors closed at ten o'clock, p. m.

Contributions in aid, either of the General Funds of the Bethel Society, or to sustain and encourage the Sailors' Home, will be thankfully received. Donations in Bibles, Testaments, Magazines, Tracts, and other Religious Books, are respectfully solicited, and may be remitted or forwarded to the following persons:

CAPT. A. C. ROSS, REC. SECRETARY.
JOHN WAUDBY, COR. SEC. & TREASURER.

Kingston, May 4, 1847.
