

THE PRAIRIE

ILLUSTRATED

Vol. I. No. 5.

CALGARY, SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1896.

Price 10c.

TRACHER ROYAL, (dancing with fury)—“ Mr. Principal, ze boys of ze College Legislatteeve drive me to distraction, I despair ! I weep !! Zay listen not to my council ! zay laugn at my colleagues ! zay spread out zarc fin-gares before zarc nozes ! zay raise ze DR-VILLK-K ! zay obey not ze laws and or-dare !!”

PRINCIPAL JOHN A.—“ Well, Mr. Royal,—I—ah ! would—hem !! advise that you should immediately—ah ! that is—hem ! ! hm—m—m—m—”

PRAIRIE FAMILIAR—“ Don’t you two gentlemen think you would save a lot of valuable wind and time by giving these boys a new constitution, which would be both useful and at the same time one that they could respect.”