

PARAGRAPHIC.

THE MOON'S INFLUENCE

upon the weather is accepted by some as real, by others it is disputed. The moon never attracts corns from the tender, aching spot. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes the most painful corns in three days. This great remedy makes no sore spots, doesn't go fooling around a man's foot, but gets to business at once, and effects a cure. Don't be imposed upon by substitutes and imitations. Get "Putnam's," and no other.

Mamma (to Noel, who is inclined to be talkative) — Hush, Noel! Haven't I told you often that little boys should be seen and not heard? Noel — Yes, mamma, but you don't look at me.

Have you ague in the face and is it badly swollen? Have you severe pains in the chest, back and side? Have you cramps or pains in the limbs, or rheumatism in any form? If so, get Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. It will give instant relief and finally cure you.

Little Willie, when he first saw his new baby cousin, gazed on the tiny thing for a moment in awed silence, and then whispered, "Mamma, is he a her?"

Kleptomania or stealing is not determined by the height at which the chickens roosted, but the height in the social scale of the man who went after them.

If any person would see the difference between real worth and real worthlessness, let him buy a small pack of Sheridan's horse and cattle powders and feed it out to his hens. The increase of eggs will surprise you.

The latest instances of "married in haste" was that of a couple united in matrimony on an Erie express train while it was spinning along at the rate of forty miles an hour.

A Standard article, universally recommended, is James Pyle's Pearlina, which is claimed to be the best thing ever invented for making washing easy, in hard or soft water, without harm to fabric or hands. No soap is required and the work is done thoroughly without it. The genuine is sold by all grocers, and purchasers should be aware of imitation.

Used up with asthma. Go to the druggist and get a bottle of Minard's Honey Balsam; it is a positive cure for asthma.
