suited to the early form of belief, that of 1549. are ludicrously and mischieviously out of place REAL COLLEGE .- There are lewientertainments now that that belief no longer obtains, and is at which we have ever assisted that have given indeed expressly repudiated by the legal authorities. . . . . . .

And this seems to be all that the authorities can legally do : for though they would fain put down Ritualism-as inconsistent with as abhorrent to, the essential Protestant or anti-Catholic | Philosophy, and most interesting experiments on character of the Establishment, the law gives them no vantage ground for that purpose. Hence the operation of Lynch law is invoked, and put in force against the Ritualists. Brutal and savage mobs - composed, not of the lowest classes to say more in praise of it. The distribution of of society, socially, but of wealthy and welldressed males and females-assail the obnoxious ritualising clergymen with foul obscene abuse, and hideous noises when he makes his appearance 10 the Church. These failings, other and more extreme acts of violence are by our Protestant champions resorted to, till the unhappy Ritual-1st, to whom the law gives no protection against ruffianly assailants, is compelled to yield, and to deast from the attempt to give to his "oyster brand"-as Anglican communion tables were irreverently and not unaptly termed in the sixteenth century-the semblance of a Catholic dian civilisation. After this came what many altar.

ists are better received; for with all their follies | experiments by Messrs. J. Dubuc and F. and inconsistencies, the Ritualistic clergymen are honorably distinguished from their evangelical brethren, by their attention to the wants of the poor, by their kindness to the sick, and by their self-devotion. Hence whilst the sleek, well fed evangelical is a favorite with the well to-do middie classes, - by the poor, and wretched, by the outcasts of society from whom respectable evangelicalism keeps itself contemptuously aloof, the High Church clergyman, who if he does the service, visits and comforts the poor : who if he be guilty of the enormity of flowers and lighted candles at Easter, will stint himself in his meals at Christmas, in order to furnish forth the table ot some lonely widow-or starving orphan-is looked upon as a friend, a spiritual adviser, and as a priest. This accounts for the phenomenon which we find exultingly recorded in the Low Church papers; that it is not amongst the poor and ignorant, but amongst the wealthy, well dressed, and better educated classes of the Protestant community, that the most active antiritualists, that the most noisy church brawlers, and that the greatest blackguards are to be tound. There is for instance much significance in the following paragraph on the subject which we clip from the Protestant Episcopalian :-

"The congregation at St. Alban's, gathered out of one of the most degraded parts of London, and little able to distinguish between truth and untruth, good and evil, no doubt go with the minister who gets up such prevty shows for them. But in places where there is more capacity for thoughtful judg. ment, there are sometimes strong popular demonstrations against such things. At Northmoor Green, near Bridgewater, for instance, the people, learning that the incumbent meant Easter Sunday to introduce the highest forms of Romanists ceremonial. broke into the yestry Room, tore up the obnoxious vestments, carried off the ' altar,' destroyed the super altar,' with its cross, and then, on Sunday, of prizes at the Montreal College. We always promise ourselves, on that pleasant occasion, a rich treat as well in music as in the more serious matter of discussions on various questions of scientific subjects, and we have never yet been disappointed. This year the entertainment was as successful as any at which we have ever had the pleasure of assisting, and it would be difficult prizes, which took place on Tuesday, the 3rd instant, was preceded by a discussin between Messrs. T. Dagenais and O. Jannel, on the liberty of the Human Mind : mens humana est libera. The latter young gentleman made many adroit objections to the proposition, but they were successfully solved by his confrere, both of them displaying much deep thought and a solid fund of erudition. This interesting discussion was folled by a learned essay, by Mr. Derome, on that great Christian and statesman, M. de Maisonneuve, one of the great pioneers of Canaprobably considered the most interesting part of By the poorer classes of society, the Ritual- the whole entertainment - some very amusing Doherty, ou the artificial production of cold .--These experiments were not the less surprising, because the great heat of the day almost prevented the large and select assemblage from believing that they were within a few feet of objects would suffice to convert water into icecles. The valedictory address was delivered by Mr. O. Jannel, with a depth of emotion which made a ively impression on the vast audience.

> It would be an act of ingratitude in us, were we to omit rendering our humble meed of praise to the College Choir, led by the Rev. Mr. Lefebvre, who discoursed some of their sweetest music at appropriate intervals during this pleasant entertainment. The distribution of prizes took place as usual; after which the Rev. Mr. Bayle, Superior of the Seminary of St. Sulpice, made short address to the students of the College exhorting them to beware of the dangers with which the holidays are so generally accompanied, nd expressing a hope that the vacation on which they were then entering would be in every sense pleasant to themselves and to their parents.

A CANADIAN VIOLINIST .- The Minerve states that a young Freuch Canadian, Mr. Oucar Martel, gives promise of becoming a distinguished violinist. His extraordinary talent has attracted attention, and he has received lessons as well as encouragement from from the well known artists Messrs Hone and Prume. He is to play in public for the first time, next week, at the commencement of the Assumption College. LIGHTNING IN LACHINE. - The Minerve states that during the thunder storm of Tuesday last, the lightning fel on the house of Mr. Norbert Lafond in Lachine. It came down the chimney, and struck, in the room where the faimly were assembled, two m-n. who lost, for a few hours, the use of their legs, after which the numbress left them, without their having been otherwise burt. There was in the room a strong smell of sulphur.

FIRE AT LEVIS. Among the effects of the thunder storms of Wednesday, was the destruction by fire, of two houses belonging to Mr. Samson, near No.3 Fort, on the beight of Levis over the Grand Trunk Depot. Mr Samson having parted with his original dwelling lauds for the benefit of the Imperial Government to build the new fortifications on, he had just constructed a new and large brick dwelling, which was struck by the lightning, on Wednesday right, and burned with all its contents which were uninsured. The proprietor had only recently moved in from a smaller building alongside that he had temporarily occupied, and with his family, had a narrow escape - Daily News FIRM .- We regret to learn that Samuel Cairos, Esq, of Durham, had the whole of his outbuildings destroyed by fire on the 30th ult. They contained large quantity of grain, bay, $c., which was also destroyed. His dwelling house was saved with great difficulty. The loss is very heavy, there being no insurance. - Huntingdon Journal

Fort Erie July 3 .- About noon to day severa shots were fired from a barge full of men in the dress of Unites States soldiers, as they were proceeding along the Erie Canal in tow of a tug. The Fentian and the United States flags were boisted side by side, but the latter was lowered just before the outrage was committed. One ball struck the house of the Rev. Mr. Greenham. It is supposed that the shots were fired at a train full of the 47:h regiment waiting at the main goard, as several balls were seen to stricke the water short of this point. Toronto Leader July 5.

ROMAN LOAN.

AMERICAN ISSUE-FOUR MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

To issure the Tressury of the States of the Holy See complete independence during the negotiations pending between the Gavaraments of France and Italy for the liquidation of the Papal State debt, His Holiness, Pupe Pius IX., by Pontifical Act of the 11th April 1866 decreed the emission by subscription of the loan now offered to the public.

Although former loans have comminded nearly par, His Holiness, in visw of the present condition of monetary matters, not wishing to impose a sacrifice upon those willing to assist him in surmounting his present temporary embarrassments, as well as to present inducements to capital has decided to issue this loan at sixty six(66) dollars gold for the one hundred dollar gold bund.

The Bonds, payable to bearer, are of 500 francs, er one hundred dollars (gold), each bearing 5 per cent. interest per annum, in gold, the coupons psyable semi annually, on the 1st of April and the 1 st of October, in Paris or in New York, Philadelphia and New Orleans, at the current rate of erchauge. The issue being at 66 dollars (gold) will give more than 71 per cent. interest on the invest. ment. From 1870, $12,000 will be annually appropriated for the purchase of the bonds ; th amount of interest of those cancelled will be applied to the further reduction of the debt.

It is believed that this loau will commend itself to capitalists generally, and andoubtedly will to all good Oatholics having at heart a desire to prove that His Holiness never addresses himself to them in

No investment can present greater security than one guaranteed as this is, by the pledged faith of a State which has always punctually fulfilled every the engagement of its Pontifical Head.

THE BISHOP OF MONTREAL. - HIS LORDship the Bishop of Montreal, who is, as our readers are aware, on his Pastoral visit, was at St. Elizabeth's last Sunday. We are pleased to learn that his Lordship's health is daily improving, notwithstanding the arduous duties which he imposes on himself, and that the pure country air is gradually re-establishing his health.

THE ROMAN LOAN IN AMERICA .- In another column will be found an advertisement of the Roman Loan in America. It is almost unnecessary for us to draw public attention to this Loan. To those who thoroughly understand the matter it is one of the most remarkable and liberal propositions ever made by any Government, and it has the still further recommendation of being made by a Government which has never yet failed in its engagements.

Mr. Robert Murphy, the gentleman who was chosen to place the bonds of the Roman Loan before the public, has, as will be seen by the advertisement referred to, obtained the recommendation of His Lordship, Rt. Rev. Dr. Horan, Bishop of Kingston, who has most earnestly commended the object of Mr. Murphy's mission to the clergy and faithful of the Diocess of Kingston. We feel certain that His Lordship's kind appeal will not be in vain. It is needless to add that we too heartily recommend it to those of that, Diocess with whom we have any influence.
