Mercantile Summary.

A LINE of steamers has been established between the Island of Demarara and New York calling at St. Thomas and Barbadoes.

MR. JOHN FENN, of Toronto, lately shoemaker, aspired to the business of grocer, but has signally failed as usual in such cases. His few creditors have now to regret his hasty departure to parts unknown.

ABOUT 150,000 sides of sole leather were burned in Boston and upper leather in proportion. India rubber goods to the amount of $1,000,000 were also destroyed. This has caused a considerable advance in upper leather, sole has been less affected; woollen-lined rubber goods are in limited supply and will advance.

A CIRCULAR has been issued to members of the Toronto Board of Trade by the President, Mr. A. R. McMaster, which we hope will receive their serious consideration. They evidently need a stirring up. Several most important subjects are suggested as being of immediate importance demanding the attention of the mercantile community. These are the Tariff on Imports; the Stamp Act; the Insolvency Laws; Railway Extensions; the Toronto
