FLOW PIPES.

• • THE PLAXTON • •
SECTIONAL HOT WATER HEATER

"As it was first made, and as it is to-day."

The most practical and common sense Heater in the market;

The greatest heating surface exposed to gases in combustion;

The greatest travel through the boiler of gases in combustion;

And the most direct and positive circulation of water in the boiler.

These features combined make the "PLAXTON" THE MOST ECONOMICAL HEATER NOW BEFORE THE PUBLIC.

Easily cleaned and managed, and prices greatly reduced for 1889.

We append a recent testimonial:

ELORA, April 9th, 1889.

GENTLEMEN,—I have watched the working of the Plaxton Boilers with very much interest, having had to do with the heating of the House of Industry with hot water, and we were not satisfied with the boilers adopted for that institution. Your undertaking to heat Court House at Guelph with Plaxton Boilers has proved a success, and your Heaters are all you claimed for them.

Yours truly,

WM. L. GORDON,
Chairman Property Committee, Co. of Wellington.
